Community Interest Company

Report of the Directors for the Year Ended 30 September 2010

The directors present their report with the financial statements of the company for the year ended 30 September 2010

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY

The principal activity of the company is to carry on activities which benefit the community and in particular (without limitation) to serve the wider Milton Keynes community by

- (a) providing the first professional theatre company for Milton Keynes, staging challenging plays and working with new writers to develop their work,
- (b) providing production and actor training with workshops on theatre and in drama for those who have little access to the arts, and
- (c) providing unique opportunities to those interested in the theatre to learn skills and develop their craft, with opportunities to work on professional productions and to attend workshops

REVIEW OF BUSINESS

The company was incorporated on 26th September 2008 and in October 2008 the company was launched with a production of "Picasso's Women" by Brian McAvera. This was part funded by the Milton Keynes Community Foundation. The production was very well received and attended. Since then the company has been building its reputation by running master classes on many aspects of theatre - ranging from Stanislavski, Meisner, Voice, Commedia dell'arte, Theatre of the Absurd, Film and Screen Acting and Stage Combat. These classes are all run by professional practitioners and are open to professionals and non professionals alike. Some are for beginners and others are aimed at those with more experience and skill. They have proved to be very popular and offer an income stream to the company. A full programme of master classes was run in 2010 which were fully booked and the company is gaining a reputation outside of Milton Keynes as workshop participants came from all over the U K.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

A very successful production of "Frozen" by Bryony Lavery was performed in October 2010 which received excellent reviews including a national review in What's on Stage. The company now plans a full programme of events with a series of master classes in 2011 and a production of Alan Bennett's "Talking Heads" in Autumn 2011. The company will also be working with new writers to help them develop their work. A series of play surgery events are planned for Spring 2011 and the production of a new play by a local playwright will also be performed in April. This will further add to our income streams.

DIRECTORS

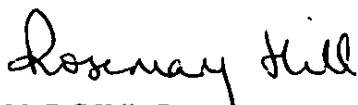

Ms R C Hill has held office during the whole of the period from 1 October 2009 to the date of this report.

Other changes in directors holding office are as follows:

Ms P Ryder - resigned 27 July 2010
S Raynor - appointed 27 July 2010

This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

The company has provided the first professional company in Milton Keynes which specialises in producing serious plays from the canon and which encourages and works with new writers. It has continued to provide high quality actor training with facilitators who are well renowned national and international experts. Workshops have also been provided for those who have little or no access to the arts. The company has also provided unique opportunities for those interested in theatre to work on professional productions to develop their craft and in many cases to offer a first step on the ladder into a career in the creative industries.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
