4. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

5. Shareholders' reserve power

- 5.1 The Shareholders may, by Special Resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5.2 No such Special Resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. Directors may delegate

- 6.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:
 - (a) to such person or committee;
 - (b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
 - (c) to such an extent;
 - (d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
 - (e) on such terms and conditions;
 as they think fit.
- 6.2 If the Directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 6.3 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. Committees

- 7.1 Committees to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by Directors.
- 7.2 The Directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

8. Number of Directors and Directors' Decisions

- 8.1 The minimum number of Directors of the Company shall be two. The number of Directors shall not be subject to a maximum.
- 8.2 The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 9.

9. Written Board Resolutions

- 9.1 A decision of the Directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible Director or to which each eligible Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3 References in this article to eligible Directors are to Directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a Directors' meeting.
- 9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. Calling a Directors' meeting

- 10.1 Any Director may call a Directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the Directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 10.2 Notice of any Directors' meeting must indicate:
 - (a) its proposed date and time;
 - (b) where it is to take place; and
 - (c) if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

10.3 Notice of a Directors' meeting must be given to each Director, but need not be in writing.

10.4 Notice of a Directors' meeting need not be given to Directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

11. Participation in Directors' meetings

11.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when:

(a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and

(b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

11.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.

11.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

12. Quorum for Directors' meetings

12.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

12.2 The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.

12.3 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

(a) to appoint further Directors, or

(b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the Shareholders to appoint further Directors.

13. Chairing of Directors' meetings

13.1 The Directors may appoint a Director to chair their meetings.

13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chairman.

13.3 The Directors may terminate the Chairman's appointment at any time.

13.4 If the Chairman is not participating in a Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating Directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13.5 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chairman or other Director chairing the meeting shall not have a casting vote.

14. Directors Duties and Conflicts of interest

14.1 The Directors shall be subject to the various duties of directors set out in Part 10 of the Act.

14.2 If a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in that meeting, or part of a meeting, for quorum or voting purposes unless:

14.2.1 the company by ordinary resolution disapplies this Article; or

14.2.2 the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or

14.2.3 the transaction or arrangement is a Company policy which applies to all of the Directors collectively and which the Directors are empowered to administer by the Articles.

15. Contracts

15.1 Save as approved by Ordinary Resolution of the Company (or for the avoidance of doubt, in respect of the entry into or modification of a lease in respect of part of the Building), no Owner or resident of the Building for the time being nor any of his Connected Persons shall:

a) be a paid employee of the Company; or

b) otherwise contract with the Company (including, without limit, contracting for the provision of services for remuneration, but excluding being bound by these Articles).

15.2 Save as approved by Ordinary Resolution of the Company (or for the avoidance of doubt, in respect of the entry into or modification of a lease in respect of part of the Building), the Company shall not sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any part of its interest in the Building.

15.3 Save (i) with the approval of an Ordinary Resolution of the Company, or (ii) in respect of trade creditors and other borrowing relating to the supply of goods and services incurred in the ordinary course of managing the Building and discharging its obligations under any lease in respect of the Building; the Company shall not borrow money and/or mortgage or charge its undertaking and property or any part thereof, and/or issue debentures, debenture stock and other similar securities (whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or any third party).

16. Records of decisions to be kept

The Directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Directors.

17. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the Directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to Directors.

18. Methods of appointing Directors

18.1 Any Shareholder who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director:

- (a) by Ordinary Resolution, or
- (b) by a decision of the Directors.

18.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Articles but save as authorised by Special Resolution, no person other than a Shareholder shall be appointed as a Director of the company.

19. Termination of Director's appointment and Removal from Office

19.1 A person ceases to be a Director as soon as:

- (a) that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a Director by law;
- (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;
- (e) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- (f) notification is received by the company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- (g) that person ceases to be an Owner.

19.2 A Director may be removed immediately from office by Ordinary Resolution and in accordance with section 168(5)(b) of the Act special notice (as defined in the Act) shall not be required in order to remove a director. The Board may not reappoint any Director so removed under Article 18.1(b) for a period of 2 years following their removal by Ordinary Resolution. Provided that on any resolution to remove an A Director every Shareholder holding A Shares shall be entitled to 10 votes for every A Share of which he is the holder.

20. Company Secretary

- 20.1 The Directors may appoint a company secretary from time to time but the Company shall not be required or obliged to do so.

21. Directors' remuneration

- 21.1 The Directors may be paid reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in accordance with article 22 but shall not be paid any other remuneration.

22. Directors' expenses

- 22.1 The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

- (a) meetings of Directors or committees of Directors,
- (b) general meetings, or
- (c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of Shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

23. Restrictions on Share Allotments

- 23.1 No person who is not an Owner shall be entitled to become a Shareholder whether by way of transfer, allotment or otherwise save pursuant to Article 29 and no Shareholder shall be entitled to own more than one share in respect of each Flat of which they are the Owner.
- 23.2 No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.

24. Powers to issue different classes of share

- 24.1 Subject to the Articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue Shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by Ordinary Resolution.
- 24.2 The company may issue Shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the Shareholder, and the Directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such Shares.

25. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the Articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the Shareholder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

26. Share certificates

26.1 The company must issue each Shareholder, free of charge, with a certificate in respect of each Share held by that Shareholder.

26.2 Every certificate must specify:

- (a) the nominal value of the Share;
- (b) that the Shares are fully paid; and
- (c) the address of the Flat to which the Share is attached pursuant to article 28.

26.3 If more than one person holds a Share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

26.4 Certificates must:

- (a) have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
- (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

27. Replacement share certificates

27.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a Shareholder's Share is:

- (a) damaged or defaced, or
- (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed,

that Shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same Share.

27.2 A Shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:

- (a) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
- (b) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the Directors decide.

28. Share transfers

28.1 If a Shareholder for any reason ceases to be the Owner of the lease of a Flat, then he (or in the case of death, the relevant Transmitttee), shall transfer his Share to the person or persons becoming Owner of such Flat in his place.

28.2 The price of the transfer referred to in Article 28.1 above shall not exceed the par value of the relevant Share.

28.3 If a Shareholder or Transmittree to which Article 28.1 applies refuses or neglects to transfer a Share in accordance with such Article during what the Directors consider, acting reasonably, is a reasonable time, any of the directors shall be the attorney of such Shareholder with the power to execute in such Shareholder's name and on its behalf a transfer of such Share and to execute or do any other document or act to perfect such transfer in its name and on its behalf as such director shall in his absolute discretion consider necessary or desirable in order to fulfil the obligations of such Shareholder pursuant to Article 28.1 above.

28.4 The directors shall refuse to register a transfer of shares which is not in accordance with the Articles. If they do so, the instrument of transfer shall be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless the directors suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent. Subject to applicable law, the directors shall accept for registration any transfer which is made in accordance with the Articles.

29. Transmission of Shares

29.1 Subject to Article 28 if title to a Share passes to a Transmittree, the company may only recognise the Transmittree as having any title to that Share.

29.2 A Transmittree who produces such evidence of entitlement to Shares as the Directors may properly require:

29.2.1 may choose either to become the Shareholder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person; and

29.2.2 shall have the same rights as the Shareholder had.

29.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the operation of Article 25 shall be subject to the other terms of the Articles, including Article 28.

29.4 No Transmittree shall have the right to do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of Shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the Shareholder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they both become the registered holders of those Shares and are an Owner.

30. Exercise of Transmittrees' rights

30.1 Transmittrees who wish to become the holders of Shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

30.2 If the Transmittree wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the Transmittree must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

30.3 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the Transmittree has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

31. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a Shareholder in respect of Shares and a Transmitttee is entitled to those Shares, the Transmitttee is bound by the notice if it was given to the Shareholder before the Transmitttee's name has been entered in the register of members.

32. Procedure for declaring dividends

32.1 The company may declare dividends by, and only by, Special Resolution and in an amount not exceeding the amount recommended by the Directors. For the avoidance of doubt, the Directors shall have no power to pay or declare interim dividends save where specifically approved by prior Special Resolution.

32.2 Unless the Shareholders' resolution to declare a dividend, or the terms on which Shares are issued, specify otherwise, the dividend must be paid by reference to each Shareholder's holding of Shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

33. Non-cash distributions

33.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the Share in question, the company may, by Special Resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, property rights and interests).

33.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

- (a) fixing the value of any assets;
- (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
- (c) vesting any assets in trustees.

34. Notice, Attendance and speaking at general meetings

34.1 The Directors shall provide the Shareholders with not less than 14 days notice of any General Meeting convened by the Company.

34.2 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

34.3 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

- (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

- (b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 34.4 The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
