This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

Growing Local is Going Local offers educational land-based courses and activities for children and adults. It runs a vegetable bag scheme delivering locally grown vegetables to schools and organisations within Hereford City and the surrounding communities. The profits from all the activities are used to provide quality land-based educational activities for the community. During the financial year 2016 – 2017 Growing Local have brought these benefits:

- 59 primary school sessions where local children have learnt to grow their own food.
- 28 workshops were Harvest-Cook or in-school cookery workshops where children learnt to cook fresh vegetables into healthy snacks and meals
- Weekly instruction for 4 – 8 boys from Brookfield Special School in food growing, including livestock work at Home Farm and woodland work at Credenhill Park Woods.
- Summer activities for families and the production of a Growing Local calendar
- Access to fresh, local fruit and vegetables delivered to homes – approximately 60 bags a week.
- Support for four local food producers keeping money within the local economy.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

The Companies stakeholders are vegetable bag customers the vegetable growers and the children, teachers and family groups receiving education at our garden and farms.
Customers receive a weekly newsletter in their bags providing information and encouraging feedback and communication with Growing Local through email and face-to-face contact when bags are delivered weekly or fortnightly. We communicate with stakeholders through social media – Facebook, Twitter and Instagram

Up to four Growers are consulted on a weekly basis and regular discussions occur about the produce.

Schools receiving education and bag deliveries are consulted about activities they would like and after each workshop the children and teachers are asked to complete evaluation forms – these forms enable us to adapt and improve the educational opportunities we offer.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
