What to do next

Notify all parties.

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made.

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company.

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk

Warning to all interested parties

This is an important notice and should not be ignored. The company named has applied to the Registrar to be struck off the Register and dissolved. Please note that on dissolution any remaining assets will be passed to the Crown. The Registrar will strike the company off the register unless there is reasonable cause not to do so. Guidance is available on grounds for objection. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

Further guidance

Guidance on all aspects of striking off is available from our website at www.companieshouse.gov.uk
