DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3 Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles and to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company

4 Change of Company name

Without prejudice to the generality of Article 3, the directors may resolve in accordance with Article 8 to change the Company's name

5 Members' reserve power

5 1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action

5 2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

6 Directors may delegate

6 1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles

6 1 1 to such person or committee,

6 1 2 by such means (including by a power of attorney),

6 1 3 to such an extent,

6 1 4 in relation to such matters or territories, and 6 1 5 on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit

6 2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated

- 6 3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

7 Committee

- 7 1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors

- 7 3 Where a provision of the Articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the directors and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the directors to a committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8 Directors to take decisions collectively

- 8 1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be taken as a majority decision at a meeting or as a directors' written resolution in accordance with Article 9 (Directors' written resolutions) or otherwise as a unanimous decision taken in accordance with Article 10 (Unanimous decisions)
- 8 2 If
- 8 2 1 the Company only has one director for the time being, and
- 8 2 2 no provision of the Articles requires it to have more than one director,
- the general rule does not apply, and the director may (for so long as he remains the sole director) take decisions with regard to any of the provisions of the Articles relating to directors' decision-making
- 8 3 Subject to the Articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote

9 Directors' written resolutions

- 9 1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution by giving notice in writing of the proposed resolution to each of the other directors (including alternate directors)
- 9 2 If the company has appointed a company secretary, the company secretary must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests by giving notice in writing to each of the other directors (including alternate directors)
- 9 3 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate

9 3 1 the proposed resolution, and

9 3 2 the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it

9 4 A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when a majority of the non-conflicted directors (or their alternates) have signed one or more copies of it, provided that those directors (or their alternates) would have formed a quorum at a directors' meeting where the resolution to have been proposed as such meeting

9 5 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the Articles

10 Unanimous decisions

10 1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this Article 10 when all non-conflicted directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter

10 2 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article 10 if the non-conflicted directors would not have formed a quorum at a directors' meeting had the matter been proposed as a resolution at such meeting

10 3 Once a directors' unanimous decision is taken in accordance with this Article 10, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the Articles

11 Calling a directors' meeting

11 1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to each of the directors (including alternate directors), whether or not he is absent from the UK, or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice

11 2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate

11 2 1 its proposed date and time,

11 2 2 where it is to take place, and

11 2 3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting

11 3 Subject to Article 11 4, notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director but need not be in writing

11 4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company prior to or up to and including not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted in it

12 Participation in directors' meetings

12 1 Subject to the Articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of directors' meeting, when

12 1 1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and

12 1 2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting

12 2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other

12 3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

13 Chairing of directors' meetings

13 1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings

13 2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman

13 3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time

13 4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it is to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

14 Chairman's casting vote at directors' meetings

14 1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of directors are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote

14 2 Article 14 1 does not apply in respect of a particular meeting (or part of a meeting) if, in accordance with the Articles, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting is a conflicted director for the purposes of that meeting (or that part of the meeting at which the proposal is voted upon)

15 Quorum for directors' meetings

15 1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting

- 15 2 Subject to Article 15 3, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors but it must never be less than two directors, and unless otherwise fixed it is two. A person, who holds office only as an alternate director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum. If and so long as there is a sole director, he may exercise all the powers and authorities vested in the directors by these Articles and accordingly the quorum for the transaction of business in these circumstances shall be one.
- 15 3 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 16 (Directors' conflicts of interests) to authorise a director's Conflict, if there is only one non-conflicted director in office in addition to the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one non-conflicted director.

16 Directors' conflicts of interest

- 16 1 For the purposes of this Article 16, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and interest includes both direct and indirect interests.
- 16 2 The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this Article 16, authorise any matter proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 of CA 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest (such matter being hereinafter referred to as a Conflict).
- 16 3 A director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict shall declare to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as is reasonably practicable. The director shall provide the other directors with such details of the relevant matter as are necessary for the other directors to decide how to address the Conflict, together with such other information as may be requested by the other directors.
- 16 4 Any authorisation under this Article 16 will be effective only if
- 16 4 1 the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration at a meeting of directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine,
 - 16 4 2 any requirement as to the quorum at any meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question and any other conflicted director(s), and
 - 16 4 3 the matter was agreed to without the director and any other conflicted director(s) voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.
- 16 5 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article 16 may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently)

16 5 1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict so authorised,

16 5 2 be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine, or

16 5 3 be terminated or varied by the directors at any time

This will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation

16 6 In authorising a Conflict the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person the director is under no obligation to

16 6 1 disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company, or 16 6 2 use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director,

Where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence

16 7 Where the directors authorise a Conflict they may provide, without limitation (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that the director

16 7 1 is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict,

16 7 2 is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict,

16 7 3 may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict

16 8 Where the directors authorise a Conflict

16 8 1 the director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict,

16 8 2 the director will not infringe any duty he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of CA 2006 provided he acts in accordance with such terms, limits and/or conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of its authorisation

- 16 9 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he receives as director or other officer or employee of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested or which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006
- 16 10 Subject to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts and to any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in accordance with Article 16 5 2, and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any interest of his in accordance with the Companies Acts, a director notwithstanding his office
- 16 10 1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested,
- 16 10 2 shall be counted as participating for voting and quorum purposes in any decision in connection with any proposed or existing transaction or arrangement with the Company, in which he is in any way directly or indirectly interested,
- 16 10 3 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director,
- 16 10 4 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any contract, transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested, and
- 16 10 5 shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or anyone connected with him (as defined in section 252 of CA 2006)) derives from any such office of employment or from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006
- 16 11 For the purposes of this Article, reference to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting

16 12 Subject to Article 16 13, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

16 13 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

17 Records of decisions to be kept

17 1 The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least ten years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors

17 2 Where decisions of the directors are taken by electronic means, such decisions shall be recorded by the directors in permanent form, so that they may be read with the naked eye

30 Further issues of shares: pre-emption rights

30 1 In accordance with section 570 of the Act, the directors shall be generally empowered to allot ordinary shares as if sections 561 and 562 of the Act do not apply to any such allotment

30 1 1 but shall only apply insofar as the Company has not renewed, waived or revoked it by ordinary resolution, and

30 1 2 may only be exercised for a period of up to five years commencing on the date on which the Company is incorporated or these Articles are adopted whichever is the later, save that the directors may make an offer or agreement which would, or might, require shares to be allotted after the expiry of such authority (and the directors may allot shares in pursuance of an offer or agreement as if such authority had not expired)

31 Powers to issue different classes of shares

31 1 Subject to these Articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restriction as may be determined by ordinary resolution

31 2 The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption or any such shares

32 Variation of class rights

32 1 Whenever the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the special rights attached to any class may only be varied or abrogated, either whilst the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding up, with the consent of the holders of the issued shares of that class given in accordance with Article 32 2

32 2 The consent of the holders of a class of shares may be given by

32 2 1 a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class, or

32 2 2 a written resolution in any form signed by or on behalf of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of that class, but not otherwise To every such meeting, all the provisions of these Articles and CA 2006 relating to general meetings of the Company shall apply (with such amendments as may be necessary to give such provisions efficacy) but so that the necessary quorum shall be two holders of shares of the relevant class present in person or by proxy and holding or representing not less than one third in nominal value of the issued shares of the relevant class, that every holder of shares of the class shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for every such share held by him, and that any holder of shares of the class, present in person or by proxy or (being a corporation) by a duly authorised representative, may demand a poll. If at any adjourned meeting of such holders such a quorum as aforesaid is not present, not less than one person holding shares of the class who is present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

33 Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the Articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

34 Share certificates

34 1 The Company must issue each member, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that member holds.

34 2 Every certificate must specify

34 2 1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued,

34 2 2 the nominal value of those shares,

34 2 3 the extent to which shares are paid up, and 34 2 4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

34 3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

34 4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

34 5 Certificates must 34 5 1 have affixed to them the Company's common seal, or 34 5 2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

35 Replacement share certificates

35 1 If a certificate issued in respect of a member's shares is 35 1 1 damaged or defaced, or 35 1 2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that member is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares

35 2 A member exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate

35 2 1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates,

35 2 2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the Company if it is damaged or defaced, and

35 2 3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide

36 Share transfers

36 1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor

36 2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share

36 3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered

36 4 the transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holders of it

36 5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent

37 Prohibited transfers

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, no transfer of any Share shall be registered if it is to any minor, undischarged bankrupt, trustee in bankruptcy or person of unsound mind

38 Transmission of shares

38 1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the Company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share

38 2 Nothing in these Articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member

38 3 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require

38 3 1 may, subject to the Articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

38 3 2 subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had

38 4 But, subject to Article 20 2 (Methods of appointing directors), transmittes do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares

39 Exercise of transmittes' rights

39 1 Transmittes who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish

39 2 If the transmittes wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittes must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it

39 3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittes has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred

40 Transmittes bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a member in respect of shares and a transmittes is entitled to those shares, the transmittes is bound by the notice if it was given to the member before the transmittes's name or the name of any person nominated under Article 38 3 (Transmission of shares), had been entered in the register of members

41 Procedure for disposing of fractions of shares

41 1 This Article applies where 41 1 1 there has been a consolidation or division of shares, and

41 1 2 as a result, members are entitled to fractions of shares

41 2 The directors may

41 2 1 sell the shares representing the fractions to any person including the Company for the best price reasonably obtainable,

41 2 2 authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser, and

41 2 3 distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares

41 3 The person to whom the shares are transferred is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions

41 4 The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to their sale

42 Call notices

42 1 Subject to the Articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (call notice) to a member requiring the member to pay the Company a specified sum of money (call) which is payable by that member to the Company at a date when the directors decide to send the call notice

42 2 A call notice

42 2 1 must be in writing,

42 2 2 may not require a member to pay a call which exceeds the total amount of his indebtedness or liability to the Company,

42 2 3 must state when and how any call to which it relates is to be paid, and

42 2 4 may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments

42 3 A member must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no member is obliged to pay any call before fourteen days have passed since the notice was sent

42 4 Before the Company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may 42 4 1 revoke it wholly or in part, or 42 4 2 specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice, by a further notice in writing to the member in respect of whose shares the call is made

43 Liability to pay calls

43 1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid

43 2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share

43 3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them

43 3 1 to pay calls which are not the same, or

43 3 2 to pay calls at different times

44 When call notice need not be issued

44 1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the Company in respect of that share

44 1 1 on allotment,

44 1 2 on the occurrence of a particular event, or

44 1 3 on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue

44 2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture

45 Failure to comply with a call notice automatic consequences

45 1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date

45 1 1 the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person, and 45 1 2 until the call is paid, that person must pay the Company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate

45 2 For the purposes of this Article 45

45 2 1 the call payment date is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice in writing specifying a later date, in which case the call payment date is that later date,

45 2 2 the relevant rate is

45 2 2 1 the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted,

45 2 2 2 such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which requirement payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors, or

45 2 2 3 if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, five percentage (5%) per annum

45 3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than five percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998

45 4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part

46 Notice of intended forfeiture

46 1 A notice of intended forfeiture

46 1 1 must be in writing,

46 1 2 may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by the call notice,

46 1 3 must be sent to the holder of that share (or, in the case of joint holders of a share in accordance with Article 74 6) or to a transmittee of that holder in accordance with Article 74 7,

46 1 4 must require payment of the call and any accrued interest and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment by a date which is not less than fourteen days after the date of the notice,

46 1 5 must state how the payment is to be made, and

46 1 6 must state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited

47 Directors' power to forfeit shares

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors must decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture

48 Effect of forfeiture

48 1 Subject to the Articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes

48 1 1 all interest in that share, and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of it, and

48 1 2 all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the Company

48 2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the Articles

48 2 1 is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited,

48 2 2 is deemed to be the property of the Company, and 48 2 3 may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit

48 3 If a person's shares have been forfeited

48 3 1 the Company must send that person written notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members,

48 3 2 that person ceases to be a member in respect of those shares,

48 3 3 that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the Company for cancellation,

48 3 4 that person remains liable to the Company for all sums payable by that person under the Articles at a date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture), and

48 3 5 the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal

48 4 At any time before the Company disposes of a forfeiture share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such terms as they think fit

49 Procedure following forfeiture

49 1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the Company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer

49 2 A statutory declaration by a director or the Company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the Company secretary (as the case may be) and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date

49 2 1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and

49 2 2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the Articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share

49 3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture of transfer of the share

49 4 If the Company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which

49 4 1 was, or would have become, payable, and

49 4 2 had not, when the share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the Company is not required to account for any money earned on them

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

50 Procedure for declaring dividends

50 1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends

50 2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors

50 3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with members' respective rights

50 4 Unless the members' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each member's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it

50 5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear

50 6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment

- 50 7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

51 Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 51 1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means

51 1 1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,

51 1 2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,

51 1 3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or

51 1 4 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide

- 51 2 In these Articles, the distribution recipient means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable

51 2 1 the holder of the share, or

51 2 2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or

51 2 3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee

52 Calculation of dividends

- 52 1 Except as otherwise provided by the Articles or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be

52 1 1 declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid, and

52 1 2 apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid

52 2 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly

53 No interest on distributions

53 1 The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by

53 1 1 the terms on which the share was issued, or

53 1 2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the Company

54 Unclaimed distributions

54 1 All dividends or other sums which are 54 1 1 payable in respect of shares, and 54 1 2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed

54 2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it

54 3 1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum become due for payment, and

54 3 2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company

55 Non-cash distributions

55 1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets or equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in the Company)

55 2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution

- 55 2 1 fixing the value of any assets, or
- 55 2 2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients, and
- 55 2 3 vesting any assets in trustees

56 Waiver of distributions

56 1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if

56 1 1 the share has more than one holder, or 56 1 2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

57 Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

57 1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution

57 1 1 decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and

57 1 2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (capitalised sum) to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (persons entitled) and in the same proportions

57 2 Capitalised sums must be applied

57 2 1 on behalf of the persons entitled, and

57 2 2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them

- 57 3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
- 57 4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied
- 57 4 1 in or towards paying up any amounts on existing shares held by the persons entitled, or
- 57 4 2 in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
- 57 5 Subject to the Articles the directors may
- 57 5 1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs 57 3 and 57 4 partly in one way and partly in another,
- 57 5 2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures become distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and
- 57 5 3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this Article 51

DECISION-MAKING BY MEMBERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

58 Convening general meetings

The directors may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of CA 2006, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting in accordance with CA 2006. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors to call a general meeting, any director or the members requisitioning the meeting (or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of them all) may call a general meeting. If The Company has only a single member, such member shall be entitled at any time to call a general meeting.

59 Notice of general meetings

- 59 1 General meetings (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be called by at least fourteen Clear Days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority together holding not less than ninety per cent (90%) in nominal value of the shares at the meeting, giving that right

59 2 The notice shall specify the time, date and place of the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and the terms of any resolution to be proposed at it

59 3 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be given to all members, to all persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member (if the company has been notified of their entitlement) and to the directors, alternate directors and the auditors for the time being of the Company

59 4 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting

60 Resolutions requiring special notice

60 1 If CA 2006 requires special notice to be given of a resolution, then the resolution will not be effective unless notice of the intention to propose it has been given to the Company at least twenty-eight Clear Days before the general meeting at which it is to be proposed

60 2 Where practicable, the Company must give the members notice of the resolution in the same manner and at the same time as it gives notice of the general meeting at which it is to be proposed. Where that is not practicable, the Company must give the members at least fourteen Clear Days before the relevant general meeting by advertisement in a newspaper with an appropriate circulation

60 3 If, after notice to propose such a resolution has been given to the Company, a meeting is called for a date twenty-eight days or less after the notice has been given, the notice shall be deemed to have been properly given, even though it was not given within the time required by Article 59 1

61 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

61 1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting

61 2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when

61 2 1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to vote at the meeting, and

61 2 2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

61 3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

61 4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other

61 5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

62 Quorum for general meetings

62 1 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Subject to section 319(2) of CA 2006, two qualifying persons (as defined in section 318(3) of CA 2006) entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum, provided that if the Company has only a single member, the quorum shall be one such qualifying person

62 2 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum

63 Chairing general meetings

63 1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so

63 2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start

63 2 1 the directors present, or

63 2 2 (if no directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting

63 3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as the chairman of the meeting

64 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

64 1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members

64 2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not

64 2 1 members of the Company, or

64 2 2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting

65 Adjournment

65 1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it. If, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

65 2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if

65 2 1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or 65 2 2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

65 3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

65 4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must

65 4 1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and

65 4 2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

65 5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than fourteen days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least seven Clear Days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given)

65 5 1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given, and 65 5 2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

65 6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

66 Voting: general

- 66 1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a show of hands, every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative (unless the representative is himself a member, in which case he shall have more than one vote) shall have one vote. A proxy shall not be entitled to vote on a show of hands.
- 66 2 In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register of names.
- 66 4 Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

67 Errors and disputes

- 67 1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to be tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 67 2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

68 Poll votes

- 68 1 On a poll every member who (being an individual) is present in person or by proxy) or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder. On a poll, a member entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- 68 2 A poll on a resolution may be demanded
- 68 2 1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
- 68 2 2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

68 3 A poll may be demanded by 68 3 1 the chairman of the meeting,

68 3 2 the directors,

68 3 3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution,

68 3 4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution, or

68 3 5 a person or persons holding shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution on which not less than one tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right

68 4 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if 68 4 1 the poll has not yet been taken, and

68 4 2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal

A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made

68 5 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand has not been made

68 6 Not notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven Clear Days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken

68 7 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded

69 Content of proxy notices

69 1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, a member is entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at a general meeting. A member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that member

69 2 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (proxy notice) which

69 2 1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy,

69 2 2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,

69 2 3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and

69 2 4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and in accordance with any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which they relate and received by the Company

69 2 4 1 subject to Articles 69 2 4 2 and 69 2 4 3 in the case of a general meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised,

69 2 4 2 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it is demanded, after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, or

69 2 4 3 where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, at the time at which the poll was demanded or twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, whichever is the later, and a proxy notice which is not delivered and received in such manner shall be invalid

69 3 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes

69 4 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions and the proxy is obliged to vote or abstain from voting in accordance with the specified instructions. However, the Company is not obliged to check whether a proxy votes or abstains from voting as he has been instructed and shall incur no liability for failing to do so. Failure by a proxy to vote or abstain from voting as instructed at a meeting shall not invalidate proceedings at the meeting

69 5 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as

69 5 1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and

69 5 2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

70 Delivery of proxy notices

70 1 Any notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (proxy notification address) at which the Company or its agents will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or electronic form

70 2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person to a proxy notification address

70 3 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given

70 4 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is received by the Company

70 4 1 in the case of a general or adjourned meeting, not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised,

70 4 2 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, whichever is the later, or

70 4 3 in the case of a poll not taken forthwith but not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, at the time at which it was demanded or twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, whichever is the later,

And a notice which is not delivered and received in such manner shall be invalid

70 5 In calculating the periods referred to in Article 69 (Content of proxy notices) and this Article 69, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day

70 6 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf

71 Representation of corporations at meetings

Subject to CA 2006, a company which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise one or more persons to act as its representative or representatives at a meeting of the company or at a separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares of the company (corporate representative). A director, secretary or other person authorised for the purpose by the directors may require a corporate representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting him to exercise his powers

72 Amendments to resolutions

72 1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if

72 1 1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than forty-eight hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and

72 1 2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution

72 2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if

72 2 1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

72 2 2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution

72 3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

73 A resolution of the members (or a class of members) may be passed as a written resolution in accordance with chapter 2 of part 13 of CA 2006
