This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

KT Intelligence CIC has continued to provide analytical support to a range of different public sector organisations all of which have a remit to improve the health and wellbeing of local populations. The work has expanded this year to include support to the new Chief Police Commissioners in identifying the health needs of offenders. Therefore the sections of the community that benefit from our work has expanded to include these vulnerable groups.

Other work that has expanded is support to higher education. This work is predominantly unfunded (with an honorary position in kind). We have supported Master's student projects and the scoping of PH reports by health professionals in Wales. To this end, we developed collaborative work with an associate from Glyndwr University.

KT Intelligence continues to undertake and expand analysis and intelligence to highlight the inequalities in health and health outcomes of various disadvantaged communities. Outputs help organisations develop interventions and services designed to benefit their communities.

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are, how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear

The company's stakeholders are primarily it's customers, who are public sector bodies, social enterprises and academic units. No formal consultation is undertaken but feedback from customers has enabled us to amend our strategy and develop new services. Within individual contracts we have consulted stakeholders on methods employed and ensured that our work is fit for purpose. We now have a wider range of partners and collaborative projects which is evidence of our widening networks.
