DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 4.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors are responsible for the management and control of the company's business which will be undertaken exclusively from the UK and for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company
- 4.2 Without the need for a special resolution of the company, the directors may decide at any time to change the name of the company, and where the directors decide to change the name, they shall procure that all requisite actions are taken to effect that decision with the Registrar of Companies

5 SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

- 5.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action
- 5.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

6 DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 6.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles

- (a) to such person or committee,
- (b) by such means (including by power of attorney),
- (c) to such an extent,
- (d) in relation to such matters or territories, and
- (e) on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit

6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

7 COMMITTEES

7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors

7.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8 DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be a unanimous decision under Article 9

9 UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

9.1 A unanimous decision taken under this Article must take the form of a resolution in writing, where each eligible director has signed one or more copies of it

9.2 References in this Article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting

10 CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

10.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice

10.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate

(a) its proposed date and time,

(b) where it is to take place, and

(c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting

10.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director but need not be in writing

10.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company before or after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

10.5 All directors' meetings will be held in the UK unless exceptional circumstances prevail subject to at least 80% of the meetings be held in the UK

11 PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

11.1 Subject to the Articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when

(a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and

(b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting

11.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other

11.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

12 QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

12.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on except a proposal to call another meeting

12.2 The quorum for directors' meetings (or for part of a directors' meeting) may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but, subject to the Articles, a class B and a class A director must be present at all times to constitute a quorum for directors' meetings

13 CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 13.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- 13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- 13.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- 13.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

14 CASTING VOTE

- 14.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote
- 14.2 Article 14 1 does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes

15 DIRECTORS' APPOINTMENTS AND INTERESTS

- 15.1 A director may
 - (a) be a party to, or otherwise directly or indirectly interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested, and
 - (b) be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or provide services (directly himself or through his firm including in a professional capacity), or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise directly or indirectly interested in, any body corporate in which the company is interested, and where a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with such a transaction, arrangement, office, employment or other matter, that director may be counted as participating in the decision making process for quorum and voting purposes

15.2 Article 15 1 is subject to the relevant director making a declaration of the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with this Article 15 and with sections 177 and 184 to 187 of the Companies Act 2006

15.3 The following shall not be treated as an 'interest'

- (a) an interest of which a director is not aware and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to be aware, or an interest in a transaction or arrangement of which he is not aware and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to be aware,
- (b) an interest of which the other directors are aware, or ought reasonably be aware, to the extent they are or ought reasonably to be aware of such interest,
- (c) an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest, and

16 DIRECTORS' POWERS TO AUTHORISE CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

16.1 The directors may authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any matter or situation which would (if not so authorised) result in a director infringing his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company and which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interests

16.2 Any authorisation given by the directors under Article 16 1 may (whether at the time it is given or subsequently)

- (a) extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter or situation authorised, and
- (b) be subject to any terms and conditions which the directors consider appropriate, and the directors may at any time vary or terminate such authorisation (but no variation or termination will affect anything done by the director prior to such variation or termination in accordance with the then terms of the authorisation)

16.3 A decision to authorise any matter or situation under Article 16 1 may be made either at a meeting of the directors or by unanimous decision of those directors entitled to vote on the matter, but the decision will only be effective if

- (a) the quorum for any meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director, and
- (b) the matter is agreed to without any interested director voting, or would have been agreed to no interested directors' votes had not been counted

16.4 The provisions of this Article 16 shall not apply to any conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement between a director and the company Article 15 above shall apply to directors' interests in any such transactions or arrangements

17 MANAGEMENT OF DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS

17.1 Where the directors have authorised any matter or situation under Article 16 1, or where a matter is authorised by Article 15, the directors may, at the time of such authorisation or subsequently, provide (without limitation) that an interested director

- (a) is excluded from discussions (whether at directors' meetings or otherwise) related to the matter,
- (b) is not given any documents or other information relating to the matter, or
- (c) both for quorum purposes and for voting purposes may or may not be counted or vote at any future directors' meeting in relation to the matter

17.2 Where the directors have authorised any matter or situation under Article 16 1, or where a matter falls within Article 15 (subject to a director making a declaration of the nature or extent of his interest in an office, employment, transaction or arrangement in accordance with the Companies Acts), then an interested director

- (a) will not be required to disclose to the company, or use for the benefit of the company, any confidential information relating to the matter or situation if to make such a disclosure would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with that matter or situation,

- (b) may absent himself from directors' meetings at which the matter or situation may be discussed, and
- (c) may make such arrangements as he thinks fit not to receive documents and information in relation to the matter or situation, or for such documents and information to be received and read by a professional adviser on behalf of that director

17.3 Article 17.2 does not limit any existing law or equitable principle which may excuse the director from disclosing information in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required, or from attending meetings or receiving and reading documents in circumstances where such actions would otherwise be required

17.4 Where the directors authorise a matter or situation under Article 16.1, or where a matter falls within Article 15, then an interested director

- (a) will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms and conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the matter or situation, and
- (b) will not infringe any duty he owes to the company under sections 171 to 177 of the Companies Act 2006 if he complies with any terms, limits and conditions (if any) imposed by the directors in relation to the authorisation and, where relevant, makes any disclosure required under the Companies Acts

17.5 In relation to any matter or situation which has been authorised under Article 16.1, or where a matter involves a transaction or arrangement which falls within Article 15 (subject to a director making a declaration of the nature or extent of his interest in an office, employment, transaction or arrangement in accordance with the Companies Acts)

- (a) an interested director will not be accountable to the company for any benefit conferred on him (or persons connected with him) in connection with or which he otherwise derives from that matter or situation,
- (b) the receipt of such a benefit shall not constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Companies Act 2006, and
- (c) no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit

18 RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

- 18.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least ten years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors, and every decision of a sole director

- 20.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director

- (a) by ordinary resolution,
- (b) by a decision of the directors, or
- (c) in accordance with Article 20 4

- 20.2 In any case where, as a result of death or bankruptcy, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the transmittee of the last shareholder to have died or to have had a bankruptcy order made against him will have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director

- 20.3 For the purposes of Article 20 2, where two or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder

- 20.4 Any member or members from time to time holding shares carrying a majority of the voting rights in the company may at any time

- (a) appoint any person willing to act (and who is permitted by law to do so) to be a director either as an additional director or to fill a vacancy, and
- (b) remove from office any director however appointed

20.5 Any appointment or removal under Article 20 4 must be made by notice in writing to the company executed by or on behalf of the relevant member or each of the relevant members. Any notice of the appointment or removal of a director under Article 20.4 will take effect when it is delivered to the company's registered office or is produced at a directors' meeting.

20.6 Any removal of a director under Article 20 4 will be deemed to be an act of the company (and no-one else) and will be without prejudice to any claim which a director may have under any contract between him and the company. The power of removal of a director from office conferred by Article 20 4 is in addition to that conferred by the Companies Act 2006 to the extent that sections 168 and 169 of the Companies Act 2006 shall not apply to a removal under Article 20 4.

21 TERMINATION OF DIRECTORS' APPOINTMENT

24.6 An alternate director may be counted for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating at a directors' meeting (but only if that person's appointor is not participating), but no alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes

24.7 Except for such part of the appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing to the company be paid to the alternate director, an alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director

- 27.2 Unless otherwise agreed by special resolution, the company must not allot any equity securities unless the company has first offered them to each person holding equity securities of that class on the date of the offer on the same or more favourable terms, and at the same price, as those equity securities are being offered to other persons on a pari passu and pro rata basis to the number of shares held by those holders (as nearly as possible without involving fractions) The offer to each such person
- (a) must be in writing,
 - (b) must be open for acceptance for a period of at least 14 days beginning the date on which the offer is sent,

After that allotment, any Excess Securities remaining shall be offered to any other person as the directors may determine, at the same price and on the same terms as the offer to the shareholders.

 - (b) subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had
- 32.3 But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares

33 EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

- 33.1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish
- 33.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it
- 33.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred

34 TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES

- 34.1 If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name, or the name of any person named as transferee of the shares in an instrument of transfer executed under Article 33 2, has been entered in the register of members which has not been paid to the company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future, whether or not a call notice has been sent in respect of it

35.2 The company's lien over a share

- (a) takes priority over any third party's interest in that share, and
- (b) extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share

35.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part

36 ENFORCEMENT OF THE COMPANY'S LIEN

36.1 Subject to the provisions of this Article 36, if

- (a) a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share, and
- (b) the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it, the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide

36.2 A lien enforcement notice

- (a) may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed,

- (b) must specify the share concerned,
- (c) must require payment of the sum payable within 14 days of the notice,
- (d) must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a transmittee of that holder, and
- (e) must state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with

36.3 Where shares are sold under this Article

- (a) the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser, and
- (b) the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale

36.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied

- (a) first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice, and
- (b) secondly, in payment of any balance to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors has been given for any lost certificate

Application of funds under this Article 36 4 shall be subject to the imposition of a lien equivalent to the company's lien on all shares registered in the name of the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, (either alone or as one of several joint holders) after the date of the lien enforcement notice in respect of all monies due in respect of those shares after the date of the lien enforcement notice

36.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date

- (a) is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and
- (b) subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the Articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share

37 CALL NOTICES

37.1 Subject to the Articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a 'call notice') to a member requiring the member to pay the company a specified sum of money (a 'call') which is payable in respect of shares which that member holds, at the date when the directors decide to send the call notice

37.2 A call notice

- (a) may not require a member to pay a call which exceeds the total sum unpaid on that member's shares (whether as to the share's nominal value or any amount payable to the company by way of premium),
- (b) must state when and how any call to which it relates it is to be paid, and
- (c) may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments

37.3 A member must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no member is obliged to pay any call before 14 clear days (that is, excluding the date on which the notice was sent and the date on which that 14 days period expires) have passed since the notice was sent

37.4 Before the company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may

- (a) revoke it wholly or in part, or
- (b) specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice, by a further notice in writing to the member in respect of whose shares the call is made

38 LIABILITY TO PAY CALLS

38.1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid. Once a call notice is issued, the person to whom it was issued will remain liable in respect of that call

38.2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share

38.3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them

(a) to pay calls which are not the same, or

(b) to pay calls at different times

39 WHEN CALL NOTICE NEED NOT BE ISSUED

39.1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the company in respect of that share

(a) on allotment,

(b) on the occurrence of a particular event, or

(c) on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue

39.2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture

40 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH CALL NOTICE: AUTOMATIC CONSEQUENCES

40.1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date

(a) the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person, and

(b) until the call is paid, that person must pay the company

(i) interest on that part of the call not paid from the call payment date at the relevant rate, and

(ii) all expenses that have been incurred by the company by reason of non-payment

40.2 For the purposes of this Article

- (a) the 'call payment date' is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors subsequently give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the 'call payment date' is that later date,
- (b) the 'relevant rate' is

 - (i) the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted,
 - (ii) such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors, or
 - (iii) if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, five per cent per annum

40.3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than five percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998

40.4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part

41 NOTICE OF INTENDED FORFEITURE

41.1 A notice of intended forfeiture

- (a) may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice,
- (b) must be sent to the holder of that share or to a transmittee of that holder,
- (c) must require payment of the call and any accrued interest and expenses by a date which is not less than 14 clear days' (that is, excluding the date on which the notice was sent and the date on which that 14 day period expires) after the date of the notice,
- (d) must state how the payment is to be made, and
- (e) must state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited

42 DIRECTORS' POWER TO FORFEIT SHARES

- 42.1 If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture

43 EFFECT OF FORFEITURE

- 43.1 Subject to the Articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes

- (a) all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it, and
- (b) all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company

- 43.2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the Articles

- (a) is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited,
- (b) is deemed to be the property of the company, and
- (c) may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit

- 43.3 If a person's shares have been forfeited

- (a) the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members,
- (b) that person ceases to be a member in respect of those shares,
- (c) that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation,
- (d) that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the Articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture), and

- (e) the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal

43.4 At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit

44 PROCEDURE FOLLOWING FORFEITURE

44.1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer

44.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date

- (a) is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and

- (b) subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the Articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share

44.3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share

44.4 If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission and any expenses and interest on late payment payable under Article 42, and excluding any amount which

- (a) was, or would have become, payable in respect of that share at the time of the relevant call notice, and

- (b) had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the company is not required to account for any money earned on them

45 SURRENDER OF SHARES

45.1 A member may surrender any share

- (a) in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture,
- (b) which the directors may forfeit, or
- (c) which has been forfeited

45.2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share

45.3 The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share

45.4 A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

46 PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

46.1 The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends

46.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors

46.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights

46.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid

46.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear

46.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment

46.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

47 PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

47.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means

- (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
- (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
- (c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or
- (d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide

47.2 In the Articles, the 'distribution recipient' means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable

- (a) the holder of the share,
- (b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members,
- (c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee, or

- (d) such other person or persons as the holder (or in the case of joint holders, all of them), may direct

48 DEDUCTIONS FROM DISTRIBUTIONS IN RESPECT OF SUMS OWED TO THE COMPANY

48.1 If

- (a) a share is subject to the company's lien, and

- (b) the directors are entitled to issue a lien enforcement notice in respect of it

they may, instead of issuing a lien enforcement notice, deduct from any dividend or other sum payable in respect of the share any sum of money which is payable to the company in respect of that share to the extent that they are entitled to require payment under a lien enforcement notice

48.2 Money so deducted must be used to pay any of the sums payable in respect of that share

48.3 The company must notify the distribution recipient in writing of

- (a) the fact and amount of any such deduction,
- (b) any non-payment of a dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share resulting from any such deduction, and
- (c) how the money deducted has been applied

49 NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

49 1 The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by

- (a) the terms on which the share was issued, or
- (b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company

50 UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

50.1 All dividends or other sums which are

- (a) payable in respect of shares, and
- (b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed

50.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it

50.3 If

- (a) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
- (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company

51 NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

51.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)

51.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution

- (a) fixing the value of any assets,
- (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients, and
- (c) vesting any assets in trustees

52 WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

52.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if

- (a) the share has more than one holder, or
- (b) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

53 AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

53.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution –

- (a) decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and
- (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a 'capitalised sum') to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the 'persons entitled') and in the same proportions

53.2 Capitalised sums must be applied

- (a) on behalf of the persons entitled, and
- (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them

53.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum, which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

53.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied

- (a) in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled, or
- (b) in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

53.5 Subject to the Articles the directors may

- (a) apply capitalised sums in accordance with Articles 53 3 and 53 4 partly in one way and partly in another,
- (b) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and
- (c) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this Article

DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

54 ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

54.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting

54.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when

(a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

(b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

54.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

54.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other

54.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

55 QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

55.1 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum

56 CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

56.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so

56.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start

(a) the directors present, or

(b) (if no directors are present), the meeting,

must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting

56.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as the 'chairman of the meeting'

57 ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-SHAREHOLDERS

57.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders

57.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not

(a) shareholders of the company, or

(b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting

58 ADJOURNMENT

58.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it

58.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if

(a) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

(b) it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner

- 58.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting
- 58.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must
- (a) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
 - (b) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting
- 58.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least seven clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given)
- (a) to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - (b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain
- 58.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

59 VOTING: GENERAL

- 59.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles
- 59.2 No voting rights attached to a share may be exercised at any general meeting, at any adjournment of it, or on any poll called at or in relation to it, unless all amounts presently payable to the company in respect of that share have been paid

60 ERRORS AND DISPUTES

- 60.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid

60.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final

61 POLL VOTES

61.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded

- (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
- (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared

61.2 A poll may be demanded by

- (a) the chairman of the meeting,
- (b) the directors,
- (c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution, or
- (d) any member present in person or by proxy or by means of a duly authorised representative who is entitled to vote on the relevant resolution

61.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if

- (a) the poll has not yet been taken, and
- (b) the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal, and a demand so withdrawn will not invalidate the results of a show of hands declared before the demand was made

61.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs

62 CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

62.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a 'proxy notice') which

- (a) states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy,

- (b) identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
- (c) is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
- (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate

62.2 Subject to any instructions in the notice of general meeting to which the proxy notice relates, such proxy notice (and any authentication required by the directors) must be received at the address specified by the company in the notice of meeting or in the proxy notice not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or adjourned meeting) at which the proxy appointed by the proxy notice is to vote, and any proxy notice received at that address less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or adjourned meeting) shall not be valid (unless accepted as valid under Article 62.3). In calculating the periods mentioned in this Article and subject to anything to the contrary in such notice of general meeting, there shall be taken into account any part of a day that is not a working day.

62.3 A proxy notice which does not comply with the provisions of Article 62.1 or 62.2 may, in their discretion, be accepted as valid by the directors at any time before the meeting to which it relates.

62.4 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

62.5 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

62.6 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

63 DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- 63.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person
- 63.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
- 63.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates
- 63.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf

64 AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

- 64.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if
- (a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
 - (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution
- 64.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if
- (a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution
- 64.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

65 MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

- 65.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company

 - (i) to an address outside the United Kingdom, or
 - (ii) from outside the United Kingdom to an address within the United Kingdom,
- five business days after posting, provided (in each case) it was sent by reputable international overnight courier addressed to the intended recipient, delivery in at least five working days was guaranteed at the time of sending and the sending party receives a confirmation of delivery from the courier service provider,

- (c) if properly addressed and delivered by hand, when it was given or left at the appropriate address,
- (d) if properly addressed and sent or supplied by electronic means, 48 hours after the document or information was sent or supplied, and
- (e) if sent or supplied by means of a website, when the material is first made available on the website or (if later) when the recipient receives (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material is available on the website

65.6 For the purposes of this Article, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day

65.7 The accidental failure to send, or the non-receipt by any person entitled to, any notice of or other document or information relating to any meeting or other proceeding shall not invalidate the relevant meeting or proceeding

66 COMPANY SEALS

66.1 Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the directors

66.2 The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used

66.3 Unless otherwise decided by the directors, if the company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature

66.4 For the purposes of this Article, an authorised person is

- (a) any director of the company,
- (b) the company secretary (if any), or
- (c) any person authorised by the directors for the purpose of signing documents to which the common seal is applied

67 NO RIGHT TO INSPECT ACCOUNTS AND OTHER RECORDS

67.1 Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a shareholder

68 PROVISION FOR EMPLOYEES ON CESSATION OF BUSINESS

68.1 The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary
