Directors' Report

The directors present the annual report and audited financial statements of AMG Plymouth UK Holdings (1) Limited ("the Company") for the year ended 31 December 2012

Business review and principal activities

The Company is a holding company with subsidiaries that provide investment management services predominantly in connection with inquoted companies which are supported by private equity managers. The Company together with its subsidiaries forms the "Group". The Company through its subsidiaries holds direct investments in Pantheon equity finds.

The results of the Company show a profit of $14,940 661 for the year (2011 $27,216 226)

The Company is subject to a transfer pricing agreement with other Group companies. Income and expenditure allocation in the Group is determined by the transfer pricing agreement.

Business environment

The private equity fundraising environment improved in 2012, with aggregate amount of closed-end find private equity capital raised increasing from $312 billion in 2011 to $327 billion in 2012. Lurther the significant improvement in 2012 returns for private equity portfolios bodes well for fundraising efforts in 2013. In a survey undertaken by Prequit amongst 100 feading LPs, 74% of the LPs interviewed said their private equity returns have met their expectations and a further 11% felt their returns exceeded expectations. This is a substantial improvement compared to 2009, where approximately 23% of the LPs were dissatisfied with their private equity portfolio returns.

The Group raised approximately $1.9 billion in assets during the 2012 fiscal year bringing the total assets under management to $24.0 billion. It completed the final close of its three primary funds that were launched in 2010, which includes PASIA VI, PUSA IX and PFURO VII. It also launched new funds including I merging Markets. Co-investment, and Global infrastructure Fund II.

Strategy

The Group aims to produce the best possible risk adjusted returns for its clients through diversification, discipline, and active involvement. It has a strong and consistent long-term performance track record, substantial experience of investing in private equity through various economic cycles and in different regional markers, and disciplined due diligence systems.

Future outlook

The investor appetite for private equity is expected to be strong in 2013. According to the Prequi survey¹, 59% of the LPs interviewed expected to minimal their level of exposure to private equity over the next 12 months, while a further 27% plan to increase their allocation to private equity in 2013. There continues to be significant investor appetite for emerging markets-focused private equity with 60% of the LPs surveyed currently investing in emerging markets and an additional 14% considering allocation in 2013. Also, separate accounts are being utilized by an increasing number of LPs as a way to create highly customized portfolios and forge closer relationships with GPs.

Given some of the recent trends in private equity the Group has been shifting its focus to better position itself for long-term growth. It has developed a separate account platform that provides flexible solutions to institutional clients. It has also expanded its product oftening to include Emerging Markets and Infrastructure. Further it has been exploring avenues to broaden its distribution reach including creating products targeted at individual investors.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The management of the business and the execution of the Group's strategy are subject to a number of risks. The key risks relate to competition investment performance and staff retention.

- Competition. The Group is experiencing a challenging fundraising environment for private equity and significant changes in the private equity fund of-funds industry. To counter this risk, the Group has faunched a number of new product initiatives to reposition the business for the longer term.
- Investment performance. The Group applies a disciplined and proven multi-manager investment approach which allows investors to benefit from diversity at stage, time and sector level, selection of best of-breed managers and enhanced cash flow through secondary opportunities.
- Staff retention. Private equity is an extremely competitive market and the Group recognises the need to employ and retain the best talent available. The Group has a genuine focus on its associates and is committed to providing a rewarding and stimulating environment for all its employees.

Financial Risk Management

The Group and the Company are exposed to financial risk through its financial assets and financial liabilities. The most important components of this tinancial risk are currency risk and credit risk.

Currency risk - The Company is exposed to currency risk in respect of assets and liabilities denominated in currences other than United States Dollar. The most significant currences to which the Group is exposed are the British Pound, the Furo and the Hong Kong Dollar. At present, the Company does not implement any measures to hedge its exposure to foreign exchange risk.

Credit risk. This is the risk that a counterparty will be unable to pay amounts in full when due. The Company manages the risk by a combination of active credit control and client diversification.

Independent auditors

A resolution for the re-appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors of the Company is to be proposed at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company Liw requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law, the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and tair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prodent
- state whether applicable United Kingdom Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is mappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Statement of disclosure of information to auditors

As far as each of the directors are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the Company's auditors are unaware. Each director has taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as a director in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the Company's auditors are aware of that information

Independent Auditors' Report to the Member of AMG Plymouth UK Holdings (1) Limited

We have audited the financial statements of AMG Plymouth UK Holdings (1) Limited for the year ended 31 December 2012 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities set out on page 4, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors

This report, including the opinions, has been prepared for and only for the company's member as a body in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving these opinions, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors, and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the annual report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on the financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs as at 31 December 2012 and of its profit for the year then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.
