Terms not otherwise defined have the meanings given in Condition 1 (Definitions) below. References to a numbered Condition shall be to such numbered section of the Conditions.

In the event of any inconsistency between the Articles and the Conditions, the Conditions shall prevail.

1. DEFINITIONS

Adjustment Provisions means all relevant provisions of these Conditions which provide for any adjustment, delay, modification, cancellation or determination in relation to an Index, the valuation procedure for an Index or the Preference Shares. This shall include the provisions of Condition 11 (Calculation Agent Modifications) and all subsequent Conditions.

Administrator/Benchmark Event means, in respect of the Preference Shares and an Index, that one of the following events has occurred or will occur, as determined by the Calculation Agent, in respect of such Index:

- (i) any authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval in respect of the Index or the administrator or sponsor of the Index is not obtained;
- (ii) the Index or the administrator or sponsor of the Index is not included in an official register; or in each case, as required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Company, the Calculation Agent or any other entity to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Preference Shares. For the avoidance of doubt, a Non-Approval Event shall not occur if the Index or the administrator of the Index or the Index Sponsor is not included in an official register because its authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval is suspended if, at the time of such suspension, the continued provision and use of the Index is permitted in respect of the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product under the applicable law or regulation during the period of such suspension;

(b) a Rejection Event, being the relevant competent authority or other relevant official body rejects or refuses any application for authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, an equivalence decision, approval or inclusion in any official register which, in each case, is required in relation to the Index or the administrator of the Index or the Index Sponsor under any applicable law or regulation for the Company, the Calculation Agent or any other entity to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product; or

(c) a Suspension/Withdrawal Event, being:

- (i) the relevant competent authority or other relevant official body suspends or withdraws any authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval in relation to the Index or the administrator of the Index or the Index Sponsor which is required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Company, the

Calculation Agent or any other entity to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product; or

- (ii) the Index or the administrator of the Index is removed from any official register where inclusion in such register is required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Company, the Calculation Agent or any other entity to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Suspension/Withdrawal Event shall not occur if such authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval is suspended or where inclusion in any official register is withdrawn if, at the time of such suspension or withdrawal, the continued provision and use of the Index is permitted in respect of the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product under the applicable law or regulation during the period of such suspension or withdrawal.

11. CALCULATION AGENT MODIFICATIONS

The Calculation Agent will employ the methodology and comply with the provisions described in the Conditions to determine the amounts payable in respect of the Preference Shares. The Calculation Agent's determination in the application of such methodology and compliance with the provisions shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Company and Shareholders except in the case of manifest error.

The Calculation Agent shall be free to modify such methodology or provisions from time to time, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, (1) as it deems appropriate in response to any market, regulatory, juridical, fiscal or other circumstances which may arise which, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, necessitates or makes desirable (taking into account the interests of the Company and any obligor of a Related Financial Product) a modification or change of such methodology or provisions or (2) for the purposes of (i) preserving the intended economic terms of the Preference Shares or (ii) curing any ambiguity or correcting or supplementing any provision of the Conditions or (iii) accounting for any change in the basis on which any relevant values, levels or information is calculated or provided which would materially change the commercial effect of any provision or provisions of the Conditions or (iv) replacing any information provider or source or (v) making amendments to the provisions of a formal, minor or technical nature or (vi) correcting any manifest or proven errors or (vii) making such amendments to comply with mandatory provisions of any applicable laws, provided that no modification by the Calculation Agent constituting a variation (or deemed variation) of the rights of the Preference Shares (or any other class of shares of the Company) for the purposes of sections 630-640 of the Companies Act 2006 and/or the Articles shall have effect unless previously approved in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 and the Articles.

Other than with respect to payments, where the Company fails to exercise any discretion or take any action provided to it in the Conditions when the exercise of such discretion or action would be necessary or desirable (as determined by the Calculation Agent), the Calculation Agent may exercise such discretion on its behalf.

12. CONSEQUENCES OF DISRUPTED DAYS

If any Scheduled Valuation Date in respect of an Index is a Disrupted Day in respect of such Index, then the Strike Date, the Digital Valuation Date the Valuation Date or the Auto-Call Valuation Date, as the case may be, for such Index shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day for such Index that is not a Disrupted Day relating to that Index, unless each of the eight Scheduled Trading Days for such Index immediately following the relevant Scheduled Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day relating to that Index. In that case, (a) that eighth Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the Strike Date, the Digital Valuation Date, the Valuation Date or the Auto-Call Valuation Date, as the case may be, for the relevant Index notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for such Index, and (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of such Index as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day in accordance with (subject to the Adjustment Provisions), the formula for and method of calculating that Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day using the Exchange traded or quoted price as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day of each security comprised in that Index (or, if an event giving rise to a Disrupted Day has occurred in respect of the relevant security on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day, its good faith estimate of the value for the relevant security as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day).

13. ADJUSTMENTS

(a) Successor Index

If a relevant Index is (i) not calculated and announced by the Index Sponsor but is calculated and published by a successor to that Index Sponsor (the Successor Index Sponsor) acceptable to the Calculation Agent or (ii) replaced by a successor index using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for and method of calculation as used in the calculation of such Index, then in each case that Index (the Successor Index) will be deemed to be the Index.

(b) Index Adjustment Events.

If (i) on or prior to the Strike Date, a Digital Valuation Date, the Valuation Date or an Auto-Call Valuation Date the relevant Index Sponsor announces that it will make a material change in the formula for or the method of calculating the relevant Index or in any other way materially modifies the Index (other than a modification prescribed in the formula or method to maintain that Index in the event of changes in its constituent securities, capitalisation and other routine events) (an Index Modification) or permanently cancels that Index and no Successor Index exists (an Index Cancellation) or (ii) on the Strike Date, the relevant Digital Valuation Date, the relevant Auto-Call Valuation Date or the Valuation Date, as the case may be, such Index Sponsor or, if applicable, the Successor Index Sponsor, fails to calculate and announce the relevant Index Level (an Index Disruption and, together with an Index Modification and an Index Cancellation, each an Index Adjustment Event), then (A) in the case of an Index Modification or an Index Disruption, the Calculation Agent shall determine if such Index Adjustment Event has a material effect on the Preference Shares and, if so, shall calculate any relevant adjustment to the Conditions which may include, without limitation (i) an adjustment to any value, date, variable or other provision to take into account the relevant Index Adjustment Event, (ii) delaying the Strike Date, the relevant Digital Valuation Date, the relevant Auto-Call Valuation Date or the Valuation Date, as the case may be, until the relevant Index Adjustment Event no longer exists or (iii) determining the Index Level for such Index for each date following such change, failure or cancellation on which the Index Level is required for the purposes of the Preference Shares, using, in lieu of a published level for that Index, the level for that Index on such date as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating that Index last in effect prior to the change, failure or cancellation, but using only those securities that comprised such Index immediately prior to that Index Adjustment Event and (B) in the case of an Index Cancellation, the Company may, at any time thereafter, determine that all but not some only of the Preference Shares shall be redeemed in accordance with Condition 3 (Early Redemption if there is an Early Preference Share Redemption Event).

(c) Consequences of an Administrator/Benchmark Event

(i) If the Calculation Agent determines that an Administrator/Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to a relevant Index, then the Calculation Agent shall do any of the following:

(A) determine that references to such Index shall be deemed to be replaced by references to such index, benchmark or price source as the Calculation Agent determines would have the effect of placing the Company and/or the issuer of any Related Financial Product in an economically equivalent position to that which it would have been in had the Administrator/Benchmark Event not occurred (the Replacement Index) (and in making such determination the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to take into account such facts and circumstances as it considers relevant including, without limitation, (i) any index, benchmark or other price source which measures the same market or economic reality as the Index and which is formally designated, nominated or recommended by the administrator or sponsor of the Index or (ii) any index, benchmark or other price source which is formally designated, nominated or recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body, in each case to replace the Index), in which case:

I. references to such Index shall be deemed to be replaced with references to such Replacement Index with effect from the Administrator/Benchmark Event Determination Date; and

II. the Calculation Agent shall make such other adjustments to the Conditions as it determines are necessary to account for the effect on the Preference Shares of referencing the Replacement Index in place of such Index including, without limitation, to any variable, margin, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms of the Preference Shares; or

(B) follow the steps for determining the relevant level of the Affected Index set out in Condition 13(b) (Index Adjustment Events) as if the Administrator/Benchmark Event were an Index Cancellation;

(C) determine that the Preference Shares shall be redeemed in accordance with Condition 3 (Early Redemption if there is an Early Preference Share Redemption Event);

provided, however, that if (x) it is or would be unlawful at any time under applicable law or regulation or (y) it would contravene any applicable licensing requirements, in each case, for any of the above provisions or determinations to apply to the Preference Shares, then such provision shall not apply and the Calculation Agent shall not make such determination (as the case may be) and the Calculation Agent shall instead take any of the above actions that complies with the applicable law, regulation or licensing requirements.

(ii) In making any determination under this Condition 13(c), the Calculation Agent shall take account of such facts and circumstances as it considers relevant, including, without limitation, any determinations made in respect of any hedging arrangements in relation to any Related Financial Product (including in respect of any termination or re-establishment of hedging arrangements) and the funding costs of the issuer of any Related Financial Product.

- (iii) If the Calculation Agent is not able to determine the Index in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 13(c) on any Index Determination Date, then the Index Determination Date shall be postponed to such date as it is able to make such determination and any Index Related Payment Date will also be postponed, if needed, such that the Index Related Payment Date shall fall at least three (3) Business Days following the postponed Index Determination Date.
- (iv) No further payment on account of interest or otherwise shall be due in respect of any payment postponed pursuant to this Condition 13(c).
- (v) The Calculation Agent shall promptly following the determination of any replacement for an Index pursuant to this Condition 13(c) give notice thereof and of any changes pursuant to paragraph (i)(B) and (ii)(A)(II) (as applicable) to the Company and the holders of the Preference Shares.
- (vi) Without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 13(b) (Index Adjustment Events) in relation to an Index Modification, if the definition, methodology or formula for an Index, or other means of calculating the Index, is changed, then references to such Index shall be to such Index as so changed.

14. ADDITIONAL DISRUPTION EVENTS

- (a) Following the occurrence of an Additional Disruption Event, the Company will determine whether or not the Preference Shares shall continue or be redeemed early.
- (b) If the Company determines that the Preference Shares shall continue, the Calculation Agent may make such adjustment as the Calculation Agent considers appropriate, if any, to any one or more of the Conditions to account for the Additional Disruption Event and determine the effective date of that adjustment.
- (c) If the Company determines that the Preference Shares shall be redeemed early, then the Company shall redeem all but not some only of the Preference Shares in accordance with Condition 3 (Early Redemption if there is an Early Preference Share Redemption Event).
- (d) Upon the occurrence of an Additional Disruption Event, the Company, or the Calculation Agent on behalf of the Company, shall give notice as soon as practicable to the Shareholders stating the occurrence of the Additional Disruption Event, giving details thereof and the action proposed to be taken in relation thereto provided that any failure to give, or non-receipt of, such notice will not affect the validity of the Additional Disruption Event.

Additional Disruption Event means any of Change in Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Cost of Hedging.

Change in Law means that on or after the Issue Date, (i) due to the adoption of or any change in any applicable law or regulation (including, without limitation, any tax law), or (ii) due to the promulgation of or any change in the interpretation by any court, tribunal or regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of any applicable law or regulation (including any action taken by a taxing authority), the Company determines that (A) it has become illegal for the Company or the Hedging Counterparty to hold, acquire or dispose of any securities comprising any Index or it has become illegal for the Company or the Hedging Counterparty to hold, acquire, purchase, sell or maintain one or more (x) positions or contracts in respect of any securities, options, futures, derivatives or foreign exchange in relation to the Preference Shares, any Related Financial Product, or in relation to the Company's or the Hedging Counterparty's hedging activities in connection with the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product (y) stock loan transactions in relation to the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product or (z) other instruments or arrangements (howsoever described) held by the Company or the Hedging Company in order to hedge, individually or on a portfolio basis, the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product relating to any Index or (B) the Company or any Hedging Counterparty will incur a materially increased cost in performing its obligations in relation to the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product (including, without limitation, due to any increase in tax liability, decrease in tax benefit or other adverse effect on the tax position of the Company and/or any Hedging Counterparty).

Hedging Disruption means that the Company and/or any Hedging Counterparty is unable, after using commercially reasonable efforts, to (i) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any transaction(s) or asset(s) it deems necessary to hedge the equity or other price risk of the Company issuing and performing its obligations with respect to the Preference Shares or of any obligor of a Related Financial Product issuing and performing its obligations with respect to a Related Financial Product, or (ii) realise, recover or remit the proceeds of any such transaction(s) or asset(s).

Increased Cost of Hedging means that the Company and/or any Hedging Counterparty would incur a materially increased (as compared with circumstances existing on the Issue Date) amount of tax, duty, expense or fee (other than brokerage commissions) to (i) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any transaction(s) or asset(s) it deems necessary to hedge the equity or other price risk of the Company issuing and performing its obligations with respect to the Preference Shares or of any obligor of a Related Financial Product issuing and performing its obligations with respect to a Related Financial Product, or (ii) realise, recover or remit the proceeds of any such transaction(s) or asset(s), provided that any such materially increased amount that is incurred solely due to the deterioration of the creditworthiness of the Company and/or any Related Financial Product obligor shall not be deemed an Increased Cost of Hedging.

15. CORRECTION OF INDEX LEVELS

If the level of an Index published by the Index Sponsor at any time and used or to be used by the Calculation Agent for any calculation or determination under the Preference Shares is subsequently corrected and the correction is published by such Index Sponsor within one Settlement Cycle after the original publication, the Calculation Agent will make such adjustment as it determines to be appropriate, if any, to the settlement or payment terms of the Preference Shares to account for such correction provided that if any amount has been paid in an amount which exceeds the amount that would have been payable if the correction had been taken into account, no further amount in an amount at least equal to the excess is payable in respect of the Preference Shares and the Calculation Agent determines that it is not practicable to make such an adjustment to account fully for such correction, the Company shall be entitled to reimbursement of the relevant excess payment (or, as the case may be, the proportion thereof not accounted for by an adjustment made by the Calculation Agent) by the relevant Shareholder, together with interest on that amount for the period from and including the day on which payment was originally made to (but excluding) the day of payment of reimbursement by the Shareholder (all as calculated by the Calculation Agent). Any such reimbursement shall be effected in such manner as the Company shall determine

CALCULATION AGENT DISCLAIMERS

The Calculation Agent makes no express or implied representations or warranties as to (a) the advisability of investing in or obtaining exposure to the Preference Shares, (b) the value of the Preference Shares at any particular time on any particular date, or (c) any amounts that may become payable in respect of the Preference Shares. The Calculation Agent shall not act as agent or trustee for the holders of the Preference Shares or any Related Financial Product.

Without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall the Calculation Agent have any liability (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any Shareholders or Related Financial Product investors for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including loss of profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

In addition, to providing calculation agency services to the Company, the Calculation Agent or any of its Affiliates, may perform further or alternative roles relating to the Company and any series of Preference Shares. Furthermore, the Calculation Agent or any of its Affiliates may contract with the Company and/or enter into transactions which relate to the Company, the Preference Shares or the Indices and as a result the Calculation Agent may face a conflict between its obligations as Calculation Agent and its and/or its Affiliates' interests in other capacities. Subject to all regulatory obligations, neither the Company nor the Calculation Agent in respect of the Preference Shares owes any duty or responsibility to any Shareholder or Related Financial Product investor to avoid any conflict or to act in the interest of any Shareholder or Related Financial Product investor.

The following rights, which are set out in articles 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49 and 50 of the articles of association of the company attach to each of the Redeemable Preference Shares in issue.

PREFERENCE SHARES

44. General

- (a) Subject to such rights and limitations being permitted by the Statutes, the Preference Shares will have such rights and be subject to such limitations:
 - (i) that the directors or the members may decide to attach to a Relevant Preference Series prior to its allotment; or
 - (ii) are specified in these articles in relation to a Relevant Preference Series,(the Specific Terms and Conditions). The Specific Terms and Conditions shall normally comprise or include the matters set out in article 50 below, but their validity shall not be affected by any failure so to do).
- (b) To the extent not inconsistent with the Specific Terms and Conditions applicable to them, the Preference Shares will have the rights and be subject to the limitations set out in articles 45 to 49 inclusive. The Specific Terms and Conditions shall override the provisions of these articles unless the Specific Terms and Conditions expressly provide that they shall not so override these articles in respect of the Relevant Preference Series.
- (c) The Specific Terms and Conditions of any Relevant Preference Series need not be the same as the Specific Terms and Conditions of any Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued. The Preference Shares, including any class of Preference Shares, can be issued in one or more series and each series will be identified in such manner as the directors decide without any such decision or identification requiring any alteration to these articles.

45. Income

Preference Shares will carry no right to participate in the profits and reserves of the Company.

46. Capital

- (a) If the Company is wound up or a return of capital takes place (other than on a redemption or purchase by the Company of any of its share capital), holders of Preference Shares will be entitled to receive, in respect of their Preference Shares, out of the surplus assets remaining after payment of the Company's liabilities, an amount equal to the amount paid up or credited as paid up on the Preference Shares together with such premium (if any) as the directors may decide before they allot the Preference Shares (and so that the directors may decide that such premium is payable only in specified circumstances). Unless the directors decide differently before they allot the Preference Shares, such amount will be payable in respect of a Preference Share in the currency in which that Preference Share is denominated.
- (b) With respect to the amounts to be paid or repaid under article 46(a) above in the event of a winding-up of the Company or return of capital, unless the directors decide otherwise in respect of any series of Preference Shares, Preference Shares will rank equally among themselves and with any other shares or obligations that are expressed to rank equally with them as regards participation in assets and otherwise in priority to any other share capital of the Company. Unless the directors decide differently before the issue of any particular series of Preference Shares, the holders of Preference Shares will not be entitled in respect of those Preference Shares to any further or other right of participation in the assets of the Company upon a winding-up or return of capital.

47. Voting

- (a) The holders of any series of Preference Shares will only be entitled to receive notice of and to attend any general meeting:
 - (i) if a resolution is proposed at the general meeting:
 - (A) for, or in relation to, the winding-up of the Company; or
 - (B) varying, altering or abrogating any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Preference Shares of such series, in which case the holders of the Preference Shares of such series will be entitled to speak and/or vote only upon such resolution; or

 - (ii) in such other circumstances, and upon and subject to such terms, as the directors may decide before allotting the Preference Shares.
- (b) At any general meeting that holders of Preference Shares are entitled to receive notice of and attend in accordance with article 47(a), on a show of hands every holder of Preference Shares who is present in person and entitled to vote will have one vote. On a poll each holder of Preference Shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote will have one vote in respect of each Preference Share.

48. Redemption of Redeemable Preference Shares

- (a) Except as otherwise provided in the Specific Terms and Conditions of a Relevant Preference Series, Redeemable Preference Shares will, subject to the provisions of article 48(f) below, be redeemable at the option of the Company in whole or in part on any day by the Company giving Notice of Redemption to each of the holders of the Redeemable Preference Shares to be redeemed (a Notice of Redemption) and by the Company complying with the other requirements of articles 48(a) to 48(g) inclusive.
- (b) In the case of a partial redemption under article 48(a), the Company will, in order to decide which Redeemable Preference Shares will be redeemed, arrange for lots to be drawn.
- (c) A Notice of Redemption will specify the particular Redeemable Preference Shares to be redeemed, the Redemption Date, the amount payable in respect of each Redeemable Preference Share on redemption and the place in the United Kingdom at which documents of title in respect of such Redeemable Preference Shares should be presented and surrendered for redemption and payment of redemption moneys is to be effected. Upon such presentation and surrender and against the receipt of such holder for the redemption moneys paid in respect of such Redeemable Preference Shares, the Company will pay to such holder the amount due to him in respect of such redemption and will cancel the delivered documents of title. No defect in the Notice of Redemption or in the giving of the Notice of Redemption will affect the validity of the redemption procedure.
- (d) Except as otherwise provided in the Specific Terms and Conditions of a Relevant Preference Series, each Redeemable Preference Share redeemed will have paid on it the amount paid up or credited as paid up thereon, together (to the extent permitted by the Statutes) with any premium paid on issue and such amount will be payable in respect of a Preference Share in the currency in which that Preference Share is denominated.

- (e) Payment of the Redemption Amount on a Redeemable Preference Share will, be against presentation and surrender of the relative share certificate at the place or at one of the places specified in the Notice of Redemption and, if any share certificate so surrendered includes Redeemable Preference Shares not to be redeemed on the relevant Redemption Date, the Company will within 14 days issue to the holder, free of charge, a fresh share certificate in respect of such Redeemable Preference Shares. All payments in respect of redemption moneys will in all respects be subject to any applicable fiscal or other laws.
- (f) If the Redemption Date for any Preference Share is not a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in such places as are designated by the directors or the members before allotment of the Relevant Preference Series, or in such places as are as otherwise provided in these articles in relation to a Relevant Preference Series, then the amount payable will be paid on the next such day without any interest or other payment in respect of the delay.
- (g) The receipt of the holder for the time being of any Redeemable Preference Share (or, in the case of joint registered holders, the receipt of any one of them) of the Redemption Amount, will constitute an absolute discharge to the Company in respect of such Redeemable Preference Share.

49. Further Shares

- (a) Except as provided by the terms of issue of any particular Preference Shares, the Company will not create or issue any further shares ranking as regards participation in the assets of the Company in priority to the Preference Shares.
- (b) Any Relevant Preference Series or other shares ranking equally in some or all respects with the Preference Shares then in issue can (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Preference Shares then in issue), without their creation or issue being deemed to vary the special rights attached to any Preference Shares then in issue, either carry rights identical in all respects with such Preference Shares or any of them or carry rights differing therefrom in any respect. For the purposes of this article 49(b), a new share shall be deemed to rank equally with an existing share in respect of a right attaching to it to participate in the assets of the Company (a New Share Participation Right), if the priority of the New Share Participation Right is equal to the priority of any equivalent right attaching to the existing share (an Existing Share Participation Right), notwithstanding that the quantum of the New Share Participation Right exceeds (or may exceed) the quantum of the Existing Share Participation Right, or that the Redemption Date in respect of the New Share Participation Right precedes (or may precede) the Redemption Date in respect of the Existing Share Participation Right. If no Existing Share Participation Right exists in relation to a New Share Participation Right, the new share shall not, for that reason, be prevented from ranking equally with the existing share. Unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue, the rights attaching to any Preference Shares will not be deemed to be varied or abrogated by the purchase, redemption or cancellation by the Company of any of its shares ranking as regards participation in the assets of the Company equally with or after such Preference Shares.

50. Specific Terms and Conditions

- (a) The Specific Terms and Conditions in respect of Preference Shares allotted may, subject to the Statutes, comprise or include, as applicable:

- (i) the series to which each Preference Share shall belong, such series to be designated with a series number and title;
 - (ii) the nominal value and currency of the Preference Shares in the Relevant Preference Series;
 - (iii) whether or not the Preference Shares in the Relevant Preference Series are Redeemable Preference Shares;
