Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare, for each financial year, financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,

Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,

Follow applicable accounting standards

Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

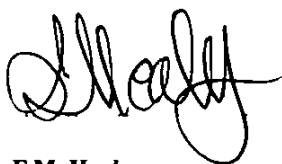

The director's are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company, and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 relating to the preparation of accounts

24 Montpelier Road Management Ltd.

Reports of the Director for the Period Ended 30 June 2011

They are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

Signed on behalf of the Board of Directors

Mr. F.M. Healy
