The directors note that Epicurean Dairy Holdings Limited has a commercial incentive to continue supporting the company. Therefore, the directors are confident that for the foreseeable future, being twelve months from the approval of these financial statements, the company would be able to meet its liabilities as they fall due.

Based on the nature of the company's operations and the support offered by Epicurean Dairy Holdings Limited, the directors are of the opinion that, for the foreseeable future, being twelve months from the approval of these financial statements, the company will be able to meet its liabilities as they fall due. #### 2.2 Going concern

At the balance sheet date the company is in a net current liability position of $19,900 (2022: $19,900) and an overall net liability position of $19,900 (2022: $19,900). ### 2. Accounting policies (continued)

2.3 Intangible assets

Intangible assets include expenditure on patents, licenses, trademarks and intellectual property rights and are stated at the amount initially recognised, less accumulated amortisation and accumulated depreciation.

Intangible assets acquired separately from a business are carried initially at cost. The initial cost is the aggregate amount paid and the fair value of any other consideration given to acquire the asset.

Intangible assets with a finite life are amortised on a straight line basis over their expected useful lives. For patents, licences and trademarks, expected useful life is the shorter of the duration of the legal agreement and economic useful life, which is deemed to be ten years.

The carrying value of intangible assets is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable.

Intangible assets represent the purchase cost of Trademarks and Associated Intellectual Property relating to "The Collective Great Dairy". The expected useful life is considered to be ten years.

2.4 Debtors

Short term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment.

2.5 Creditors

Short-term creditors are measured at the transaction price.

2.6 Financial instruments

The company only enters into basic financial instrument transactions that result in the recognition of financial assets and liabilities like trade and other debtors and creditors, loans from banks and other third parties, loans to related parties and investments in ordinary shares.

Debt instruments (other than those wholly repayable or receivable within one year), including loans and other accounts receivable and payable, are initially measured at present value of the future cash flows and subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Debt instruments that are payable or receivable within one year, typically trade debtors and creditors, are measured, initially and subsequently, at the undiscounted amount of the cash or other consideration expected to be paid or received. However, if the arrangements of a short-term instrument constitute a financing transaction, like the payment of a trade debt deferred beyond normal business terms or in the case of an out-right short-term loan that is not at market rate, the financial asset or liability is measured, initially at the present value of future cash flows discounted at a market rate of interest for a similar debt instrument and subsequently at amortised cost, unless it qualifies as a loan from a director in the case of a small company, or a public benefit entity concessionary loan.

Financial assets that are measured at cost and amortised cost are assessed at the end of each reporting period for objective evidence of impairment. If objective evidence of impairment is found, an impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

For financial assets measured at amortised cost, the impairment loss is measured as the difference between an asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated cash flows discounted at the asset's original effective interest rate. If a financial asset has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract.

For financial assets measured at cost less impairment, the impairment loss is measured as the difference between an asset's carrying amount and best estimate of the recoverable amount, which is an approximation of the amount that the company would receive for the asset if it were to be sold at the reporting date.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the Statement of Financial Position when there is an enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

3. Judgements in applying accounting policies and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In preparing these financial statements the directors do not consider that they made any material judgements in applying accounting policies or that there are any key sources of estimation uncertainty.

4. Employees

The company has no employees other than the directors, who did not receive any remuneration (2022 - NZ$Nil).
