PART 2 - DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

6. Directors general authority

- 6.1. Subject to restrictions imposed by the articles or any special resolution or the Companies Acts, the directors shall manage the charity's business, and may exercise all the powers of the charity.

7. Directors may delegate

- 7.1. The directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more directors but the terms of delegation must be recorded in the minute book.
- 7.2. The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

8. Committees

- 8.1. Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

- 8.2. The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

9. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 9.1. The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 10.

10. Unanimous decisions

- 10.1. A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 10.2. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing or may be in electronic form, but in either case be agreed by all of the eligible directors signifying their agreement.
- 10.3. References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- 10.4. A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

11. Calling a directors' meeting

- 11.1. Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the secretary (if any) to give such notice, and, if the secretary is so authorised, he must then do so.
- 11.2. Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
- 11.2.1. its proposed date and time;
 - 11.2.2. where it is to take place; and
 - 11.2.3. if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 11.3. Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- 11.4. Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the charity not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.
- 11.5. The directors shall hold at least four meetings in each year.

12. Participation in directors' meetings

- 12.1. Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
- 12.1.1. the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
 - 12.1.2. they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 12.2. In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 12.3. If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

13. Quorum for directors' meetings

- 13.1. At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 13.2. The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.
- 13.3. If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:
 - 13.3.1. to appoint further directors; or
 - 13.3.2. to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

14. Chairing of directors' meetings

- 14.1. The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 14.2. The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chair.
- 14.3. Subject to articles 14.4 and 14.5:
 - 14.3.1. each chair shall hold office as chair for a term of 3 years from the date of his appointment or re-appointment as chair; and
 - 14.3.2. upon expiry of a term, he shall automatically cease to hold office as chair but he may then offer himself for re-election as chair.
- 14.4. No person shall hold office as chair for a cumulative maximum period exceeding 6 years, whether or not that maximum period comprises one or more continuous periods.
- 14.5. The directors may terminate the chair's appointment as chair at any time.
- 14.6. The chair's appointment as chair shall automatically cease if his appointment as a director terminates.
- 14.7. If the chair is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

15. Casting vote

- 15.1. If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chair or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
- 15.2. Article 15.1 does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chair or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

16. Declaration of directors' interests

- 16.1. A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself from any discussions of the directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

17. Conflict of interests and conflict of loyalties

- 17.1. If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
 - 17.1.1. the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

- 17.1.2. the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and
 - 17.1.3. the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.
- 17.2. In this article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.
- 18. Records of decisions to be kept
- 18.1. The directors must ensure that the charity keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every decision taken by the directors.
- 19. Directors' discretion to make further rules
- 19.1. Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

- 22.1.4. by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- 22.1.5. notification is received by the charity from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms, but only if at least three directors will remain in office when the notification is to take effect;
- 22.1.6. he is absent without the permission of the directors from 3 consecutive meetings of the directors held within a period of six consecutive months and the directors resolve that his office be vacated;
- 22.1.7. he is removed from office under section 168 of the Companies Act 2006;

 - 25.1.2. the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question;
 - 25.1.3. the other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so;
 - 25.1.4. the supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him with regard to the supply of goods to the charity;
