The board unanimously agreed to make the changes on the 12th of April 2016 at the special board meeting and with 75% of trustees in attendance, the Board have agreed the changes made to Paragraphs 4 F, G and H of the existing Articles of Association.

The clauses inserted for addition are:

G – Promoting activities to tackle and prevent poverty affecting people from diverse backgrounds

H – Undertaking activities to promote the rights of children and young people from diverse backgrounds

Race Council Cymru (RCC) has been asked to absorb the work of the Black History Month Wales - promoting artistic, cultural and heritage related activities for ethnic minority communities in Wales. The Board believe this falls within the remit of our organisations sphere of operations and will enhance our work hence suggested Clause F

Increasingly, RCC has been called upon by the National Assembly of Wales and Welsh Government to provide evidence of work and research on tackling poverty and links between poverty and ethnicity RCC would like to be able to deliver projects in this sphere - hence Clause G

Also our members inform us that the impact of low self esteem is adversely affecting our ethnic minority young people and they encourage us to support and deliver projects to further promote the well being of children from black and ethnic minority communities across Wales

Finally as an umbrella ethnic minority representative organisation across Wales, RCC listens to the feedback and views of its members and these three additional changes have been suggested by our members and agreed by the board subject to approval of Company House.

The clauses inserted for your kind attention and insertion into Race Council Cymru's Objects Clause 4 are:

F – Promoting arts, culture or heritage to foster understanding between people from diverse backgrounds

G – Promoting activities to tackle and prevent poverty affecting people from diverse backgrounds

H – Undertaking activities to promote the rights of children and young people from diverse backgrounds

Please kindly inform us when it has been accepted and amendments made.
