This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

We have been working at Foxborough Junior School, Cippenham Junior School, Iqra junior School, Wexham School, Godolphin Junior School and Priory Junior School and working with students to enable them to be positive role-model citizens within society who give back to their community.

50-50 SYNC has mentored young people of all ages and all levels of learning, behaviour and social development.

At those schools we specialised in providing targeted support via learning programmes including intensive 1:1 and group programmes for those with SEN using intervention and prevention systems to promote emotional and social development with clear achievable goals.

We have been working in line with government agenda regarding health, anti-social behaviour and crime.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached")

PART 1 – GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES

We have references and testimonials from teachers and head teachers of these schools to show the positive impact that we have had on these young people

- ☐ We have worked with Mencap to enable equal educational opportunities for young people, including the disadvantaged and vulnerable and those with SEN through intensive mentoring and monitoring systems that meet young people's specific learning and behaviour development needs, thus enabling them to sustain a place in mainstream education
- ☐ We have delivered high quality services based on early intervention principles, tackling problems early on in order to avoid their escalation and thus reduce the burden on the public purse over the longer term
- ☐ We have significantly reduce the need for short and long term pupil exclusion from schools by providing inclusive mentoring programmes for all, intensive group mentoring for smaller groups, and rapid response Intensive 1 1 Mentoring which is bespoke to the individual
- ☐ We have networked communities and improve school - parent/carers communication by empowering mothers, fathers and carers to play a part in their child's development via our innovative monitoring and feedback communication systems
