5. Members' reserve power

- 5 1 The Permanent Members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5 2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

6 Directors may delegate

- 6 1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles
- 6 1 1 to such person or committee,
- 6 1 2 by such means (including by a power of attorney),
- 6 1 3 to such an extent,
- 6 1 4 in relation to such matters or territories, and

- 6 1 5 on such terms and conditions; as they think fit
- 6 2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated
- 6 3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

7. Committees

- 7 1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors
- 7 2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.
- 7 3 Where a provision of the Articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the directors and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the directors to a committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 8 1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be taken as a majority decision at a meeting or as a directors' written resolution in accordance with Article 9 (Directors' written resolutions) or otherwise as a unanimous decision taken in accordance with Article 10 (Unanimous decisions)
- 8 2 If:
 - 8 1 1 the Company only has one director for the time being, and
 - 8 1 2 no provision of the Articles requires it to have more than one director,the general rule does not apply, and the director may (for so long as he remains the sole director) take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the Articles relating to directors' decision-making
- 8 3 Subject to the Articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

9. Directors' written resolutions

- 9 1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution by giving notice in writing of the proposed resolution to each of the other directors (including alternate directors)
- 9 2 If the company has appointed a company secretary, the company secretary must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests by giving notice in writing to each of the other directors (including alternate directors)
- 9 3 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate
 - 9 3 1 the proposed resolution, and
 - 9 3 2 the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it
- 9 4 A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when a majority of the non-conflicted directors (or their alternates) have signed one or more copies of it, provided that those directors (or their alternates) would have formed a quorum at a directors' meeting were the resolution to have been proposed at such meeting

- 9 5 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the Articles

10. Unanimous decisions

- 10 1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this Article when all non-conflicted directors indicate to each other by any means that they share on a common view on a matter
- 10 2 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article 10 if the non-conflicted directors would not have formed a quorum at a directors' meeting had the matter been proposed as a resolution at such a meeting
- 10 3 Once a directors' unanimous decision is taken in accordance with this Article 10 it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the Articles

11. Calling a directors' meeting

- 11 1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to each of the directors (including alternate directors), whether or not he is absent from the UK, or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice
- 11 2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate.
- 11 2 1 its proposed date and time,
- 11 2 2 where it is to take place, and
- 11 2 3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting
- 11 3 Subject to Article 11 4, notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director but need not be in writing.
- 11 4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company prior to or up to and including not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

12 Participation in directors' meetings

- 12 1 Subject to the Articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when
- 12 1 1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and
- 12 1 2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting
- 12 2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 12 3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

13 Chairing of directors' meetings

- 13 1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- 13 2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- 13 3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- 13 4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

14 Chairman's casting vote at directors' meetings

- 14 1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of directors are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote
- 14 2 Article 14 1 does not apply in respect of a particular meeting (or part of a meeting) if, in accordance with the Articles, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting is a conflicted director for the purposes of that meeting (or that part of that meeting at which the proposal is voted upon)

15 Quorum for directors' meetings

- 15 1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting
- 15 2 Subject to Article 15 3, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors but it must never be less than half of the then current number of directors of the Company. A person who holds office only as an alternate director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum. If and so long as there is a sole director, he may exercise all the powers and authorities vested in the directors by these Articles and accordingly the quorum for the transaction of business in these circumstances shall be one
- 15 3 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 16 (Directors' conflicts of interests) to authorise a director's Conflict, if there is only one non-conflicted director in office in addition to the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one non-conflicted director

16 Directors' conflicts of interests

- 16 1 For the purpose of this Article 16, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and interest includes both direct and indirect interests
- 16 2 The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this Article 16, authorise any matter proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 of CA 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest (such matter being hereinafter referred to as a Conflict)
- 16 3 A director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict shall declare to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as is reasonably practicable. The director shall provide the other directors with such details of the relevant matter as are necessary for the other directors to decide how to address the Conflict, together with such other information as may be requested by the other directors
- 16 4 Any authorisation under this Article 16 will be effective only if
 - 16 4 1 the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration at a meeting of directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine,

16 4 2 any requirement as to the quorum at any meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question and any other conflicted director(s), and

16 4 3 the matter was agreed to without the director and any other conflicted director(s) voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted

16 5 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article 16 may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently)

16.5 1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict so authorised,

16 5 2 be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine, or

16 5 3 be terminated or varied by the directors at any time

This will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation

16 6 In authorising a Conflict the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person the director is under no obligation to

16 6 1 disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company, or

16 6 2 use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence

16 7 Where the directors authorise a Conflict they may provide, without limitation (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that the director

16 7 1 is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict,

16 7 2 is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict,

16 7 3 may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict

16 8 Where the directors authorise a Conflict

16 8 1 the director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict,

16 8 2 the director will not infringe any duty he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of CA 2006 provided he acts in accordance with such terms, limits and/or conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of its authorisation

16 9 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he receives as director or other officer or employee of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested or which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006

- 16 10 Subject to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts and to any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in accordance with Article 16 5 2, and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any interest of his in accordance with the Companies Acts, a director notwithstanding his office

16 10 1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested,

16 10 2 shall be counted as participating for voting and quorum purposes in any decision in connection with any proposed or existing transaction or arrangement with the Company, in which he is in any way directly or indirectly interested,

16 10 3 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director,

16 10 4 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any contract, transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested, and

16 10 5 shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or anyone connected with him (as defined in section 252 of CA 2006) derives from any such office or employment or from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006

- 16 11 For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting

- 16 12 Subject to Article 16.13, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

- 16 13 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

17 Records of decisions to be kept

25 3 2 may participate in a unanimous decision of the directors (but only if his appointor does not participate), and

25 3 3 may sign a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed by that person's appointor)

25 4 A director who is also an alternate director is entitled, in the absence of any of his appointors, to a separate vote on behalf of that appointor, in addition to his own vote on any decision of the directors but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present

26 Termination of alternate directorship

An alternate director's appointment as an alternate for any appointor terminates

26 1 when that appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;

26 2 when notification is received by the Company from the alternate that the alternate is resigning as alternate for that appointor and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms,

- 26 3 on the occurrence, in relation to the alternate, of any event which, if it occurred in relation to that appointor, would result in the termination of that appointor's appointment as a director,

- 26 5 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates

The Company shall hold a general meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the directors and shall specify the meeting as such in notices calling it, provided that every Annual General Meeting except the first shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last proceeding Annual General Meeting and that so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months after its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.

34 Convening general meetings

The directors may call general meetings and, on the requisition of Permanent Members pursuant to the provisions of CA 2006, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting in accordance with CA 2006. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors to call a general meeting, any director or the Permanent Members requisitioning the meeting (or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of them all) may call a general meeting. If the Company has only a single member, such Permanent Member shall be entitled at any time to call a general meeting.

35 Notice of general meetings

- 35 1 General meetings (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be called by at least fourteen Clear Days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Permanent Members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority who together represent not less than ninety per cent (90%) of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Permanent Members.
- 35 2 The notice shall specify the time, date and place of the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and the terms of any resolution to be proposed at it.
- 35 3 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on Permanent Members, the notice shall be given to all Permanent Members and to the directors, alternate directors and the auditors for the time being of the Company.
- 35 4 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

36 Resolutions requiring special notice

- 36 1 If CA 2006 requires special notice to be given of a resolution, then the resolution will not be effective unless notice of the intention to propose it has been given to the Company at least twenty-eight Clear Days before the general meeting at which it is to be proposed.
- 36 2 Where practicable, the Company must give the Permanent Members notice of the resolution in the same manner and at the same time as it gives notice of the general meeting at which it is to be proposed. Where that is not practicable, the Company must give the Permanent Members at least fourteen Clear Days' before the relevant general meeting by advertisement in a newspaper with an appropriate circulation.
- 36 3 If, after notice to propose such a resolution has been given to the Company, a meeting is called for a date twenty-eight days or less after the notice has been given, the notice shall be deemed to have been properly given, even though it was not given within the time required by Article 36 1.

37 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 37 1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 37 2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when.
 - 37 2 1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

37 2 2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

37 3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

37 4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more Permanent Members attending it are in the same place as each other

37 5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

38 Quorum for general meetings

38 1 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Subject to section 318(2) of CA 2006, a number of qualifying persons (as defined in section 318(3) of CA 2006) being not less than half of the number of the then current Permanent Members of the Company, entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum, provided that if the Company has only a single member, the quorum shall be one such qualifying person

38 2 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum

39 Chairing general meetings

39 1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so

39 2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start

39 2 1 the directors present, or

39 2 2 (if no directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a director or Permanent Member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting

39 3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as the chairman of the meeting

40 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

40 1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are Permanent Members

40 2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not

40 2.1 Permanent Members of the Company, or 40 2 2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of Members in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting

41 Adjournment

41 1 If the person attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it. If, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

41.1.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or 41.1.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

41.2 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

41.3 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must 41.3.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and 41.3.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

41.4 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than fourteen days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least seven Clear Days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given).

41.4.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given, and 41.4.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

41.5 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

42 Voting general

42.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles. Subject to any rights or restrictions to which Permanent Members are subject, on a show of hands, every Permanent Member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative (unless the representative is himself a member, in which case he shall have more than one vote) shall have one vote. A proxy shall not be entitled to vote on a show of hands.

42.2 No Permanent Member shall vote at any general meeting, either in person or by proxy, unless all monies presently payable by him to the Company have been paid.

42.3 In the case of joint Permanent Members the vote of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint Permanent Members, and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the Permanent Members stand in the register of members.

42.4 Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

43 Objections and disputes

- 43 1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 43 2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final

44 Poll votes

- 44 1 On a poll every Permanent Member who (being an individual is present in person or by proxy) or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative or by proxy shall have one vote. On a poll, a Permanent Member entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way
- 44 2 A poll on a resolution may be demanded
 - 44 2 1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - 44 2 2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared
- 44.3 A poll may be demanded by
 - 44 3 1 the chairman of the meeting,
 - 44 3 2 the directors,
 - 44 3 3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution, or
 - 44 3 4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Permanent Members having the right to vote on the resolution
- 44 4 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if the poll has not yet been taken, and the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal. A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made
- 44 5 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made
- 44 6 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven Clear Days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken
- 44 7 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded

45 Content of proxy notices

- 45 1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, a Permanent Member is entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at a general meeting. A Permanent Member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise different voting rights held by that member

- 45 2 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (proxy notice) which
- 45 2 1 states the name and address of the Permanent Member appointing the proxy,
 - 45 2 2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
 - 45 2 3 is signed by or on behalf of the Permanent Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
 - 45 2 4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and in accordance with any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which they relate and received by the Company
 - 45 2 4 1 subject to Articles 45 2 4 2 and 45 2 4 3 in the case of a general meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised,
 - 45 2 4 2 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it is demanded, after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, or
 - 45 2 4 3 where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, at the time at which the poll was demanded or twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, whichever is the later,
- and a proxy notice which is not delivered and received in such manner shall be invalid
- 45 3 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes
- 45 4 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions and the proxy is obliged to vote or abstain from voting in accordance with the specified instructions. However, the Company is not obliged to check whether a proxy votes or abstains from voting as he has been instructed and shall incur no liability for failing to do so. Failure by a proxy to vote or abstain from voting as instructed at a meeting shall not invalidate proceedings at that meeting
- 45 5 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as
- 45 5 1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 45 5 2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

46 Delivery of proxy notices

- 46 1 Any notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (proxy notification address) at which the Company or its agents will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or electronic form

- 46 2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person to a proxy notification address
 - 46 3 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
 - 46 4 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is received by the Company
 - 46 4 1 in the case of a general or adjourned meeting, not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised,
 - 46 4 2 demanded, not less than twenty-four before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, or
 - 46 4 3 in the case of a poll not taken forthwith but not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, at the time at which it was demanded or twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, whichever is later,
- and a notice which is not delivered and received in such manner shall be valid
- 46 5 In calculating the periods referred to in Article 45 (Content of proxy notices) and this Article 46, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day
 - 46 6 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

47 Representation of corporations at meetings

Subject to CA 2006, a company or other corporate body which is a Permanent Member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise one or more persons to act as its representative or representatives at a meeting of the company (corporate representative) A director, secretary or other person authorised for the purpose by the directors may require a corporate representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting him to exercise his powers

48 Amendments to resolutions

- 48 1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if
 - 48 1 1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
 - 48 1 2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution
- 48 2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if
 - 48 2 1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

48 2 2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution

48 3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

49 A resolution of the Permanent Members may be passed as a written resolution in accordance with chapter 2 of part 13 of CA 2006
