COMPANIES HOUSE

Warning to all interested parties

This is an important notice and should not be ignored. The company named has applied to the Registrar to be struck off the Register and dissolved. Please note that on dissolution any remaining assets will be passed to the Crown. The Registrar will strike the company off the register unless there is reasonable cause not to do so. Guidance is available on grounds for objection. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

The application

Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

It is an offence to apply for strike-off under this section if the company has bearer shares in issue. ①

You are advised to read Section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s) / the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company. ②

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

→ Go to Section 3 'Name(s) and Signature(s) of the directors'

① Bearer shares are shares represented by a warrant and which have no registered holder.

② Please read the guidance on our website or see section 1003 or 1004 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

Further guidance

Guidance on striking off is available from our website.

What to do next

Notify all parties

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made.

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance notes which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website: www.gov.uk/companieshouse

STATUTORY NOTICE - OVERDUE ACCOUNTS

The following statutory document(s) is/are overdue and must be delivered to Companies House even if your company has not traded.

ACCOUNTS FOR PERIOD(S) ENDING 31/10/2014

- Since we sent our previous notice of 14/08/2015 to your registered office the overdue document(s) has/have not been delivered. We stated that we would begin the statutory process (as set out in the 2006 Companies Act) which could lead to the company being removed from the register, if the documents were not delivered within 28 days or we were not notified in writing that the company was still required.
- If you want to keep your company registered you must deliver the overdue document(s) to Companies House within 28 days of this notice.
- If you are unable to meet this deadline you must confirm in writing that your company is required (via letter to the above address or e-mail to enquiries@companieshouse.gov.uk). Failure to comply may result in the directors being prosecuted, receiving a criminal record and a potential unlimited fine.
- All accounts delivered late will incur an automatic financial penalty which increases with the length of the delay. Failure to comply with the filing requirements of the 2006 Companies Act in consecutive years will result in the penalty being doubled for the current year's accounts.
- If you are content for your company to be removed from the register there is no need to respond to this notice. In this case a notice of intention to remove the company will be published in the London Gazette. A further notice will be published approximately 3 months later at which time the company will be struck-off and dissolved. Please be aware that if we do remove the company your personal obligations as directors would remain and any company bank accounts would be frozen.
- You can deliver certain types of accounts online via our Web Filing service, which has built in checks to ensure that you get it right first time. In order to use the service you need to register for an authentication code which can only be sent by post to the registered office and may take up to five days to arrive. Our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk gives information on this along with a full range of guidance booklets and forms.

TOTAL AMOUNT NOW DUE			£375.00

The company must pay the amount shown immediately as the accounts were delivered late under the Companies Act.

If the payment is not made we may take further action to recover the money. You may appeal but you will need to show that the reasons for late filing were exceptional (see enclosed booklet).

If the company is no longer trading and you wish to have it removed from the register, please contact Companies House immediately.

Please note that any information provided to Companies House as part of your late filing penalty appeal may be passed to our debt recovery agents for use in court proceedings to enforce collection of the penalty.

Please detach along this line and return with your payment
