Subject to and in default of any such determination, there shall be no maximum number of directors and the minimum number shall be one. Whenever the minimum number of directors is one, a sole director shall have authority to exercise all the powers and discretions vested in the directors generally, and the provisions of these Articles which relate to the quorum at board meetings are modified accordingly.

DIRECTORS

5. 1. Except for the persons who are deemed to have appointed as the first directors of the Company on incorporation, no person who is not a Member of the Company shall in any circumstances be eligible to hold office as a director and Article 17 (1) of the Model Articles shall be modified accordingly.

QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

6.1. Subject to article 6.2, and except at any time when the Company has just one director, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors is any two eligible directors.

6.2. For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held to authorise a director's conflict, if there is only one eligible director in office other than the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one eligible director.

6.3. If the total number of directors in office for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision to appoint further directors or to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

6.4. Articles 11(2) and 11(3) of the Model Articles shall not apply to the Company.

TRANSACTIONS OR OTHER ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE COMPANY

7. 1. Subject to sections 177(5), 177(6), 182(5) and 182(6) of the Act and provided he has declared the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the requirements of the Act, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company:

7.1.1. may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

7.1.2. shall be an eligible director for the purposes of any proposed decision of the directors (or committee of directors) in respect of any such transaction or arrangement in which he is interested;

7.1.3. shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of directors (or of a committee of the directors) or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such transaction or arrangement in which he is interested;

7.1.4. may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and

7.1.5. shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any such transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Act.

7.2. Articles 14(1) to 14(5) inclusive of the Model Articles shall not apply to the Company.

DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

8.1. For the purposes of section 175 of the Act, the directors may authorise any matter or situation proposed to them which would, if not so authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under that section.

8.2. Any authorisation under this article will be effective only if:

8.2.1. any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director; and

8.2.2. the matter was agreed to without the director in question or any other interested director voting or would have been agreed to if their vote(s) had not been counted.

8.3. Any authorisation under this article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):

8.3.1. extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised;

8.3.2. be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may decide; and

8.3.3. be terminated or varied by the directors at any time but this will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

8.4. In granting such authorisation the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in that matter otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, the director is under no obligation to:

8.4.1. disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company; or

8.4.2. use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

8.5. Where the directors grant an authorisation under this article they may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) decide that the director:

8.5.1. is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) relating to that matter;

8.5.2. is not to be given any documents or other information relating to that matter; and

8.5.3. may or may not vote and/or may or may not be counted in the quorum at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

8.6 Where the directors grant an authorisation under this article the director concerned will be obliged to act in accordance with any terms imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict.

SHARE CAPITAL

9. The share capital of the Company is £3 divided into 3 shares of £1 each, and no share shall be issued which would increase the capital of the Company beyond that amount.

SHAREHOLDERS

10. Subject to the provisions of article 11, no share shall be allotted or transferred to any person who is not a Unitholder. Each Unitholder shall be entitled to one share in respect of each Unit of which he is a Unitholder. A Unitholder shall not be entitled to dispose of his shareholding in the Company while he is the Unitholder of the Unit to which that share relates.

SUBSCRIBERS' SHARES

11.1. The Subscribers shall be duly registered as Members of the Company in respect of the shares for which they have subscribed.

11.2. A Subscriber may transfer any share subscribed by him and not held by him as a Unitholder to such person as he thinks fit, and any such person so nominated shall have the same power to transfer the share as if he had himself been a Subscriber. Personal representatives of a deceased Subscriber or of any successor so nominated by him shall have the same rights of transfer.

11.3. Each Subscriber and any person becoming a Member on transfer from a Subscriber under article 11(2) shall, if not himself a Unitholder, offer his shareholding in the Company to the Company as soon as there are Unitholders for all Units. On receipt of such offer, the Company shall direct the Member concerned to transfer his shareholding to such Unitholder or Unitholders as shall not already hold shares in respect of their Units, whereupon the Member concerned shall execute one or more share transfers in respect of his shares as appropriate and shall deliver the same to the Company.

SHARE ALLOTMENTS

12.1. Subject to Article 10, the directors may exercise the power to allot shares conferred by section 550 of the Act.

12.2. The rights of pre-emption conferred by section 561 of the Act shall not apply to the Company.

SHARE TRANSFERS

13.1. If any Member who is a Unitholder ceases to be the Unitholder of a Unit in respect of which he holds a share, he shall transfer that share to the person or persons who become the Unitholder of that Unit.

13.2. If any Member who is a Unitholder dies or becomes bankrupt, his legal personal representatives or trustee in bankruptcy (as appropriate) shall transfer his shareholding in the Company to the person or persons who become the Unitholder of his Unit or Units.

13.3. The price to be paid on the transfer of every share shall be its nominal value.

13.4. If the holder of a share (or his personal representatives or trustee in bankruptcy, as appropriate) cannot after reasonable enquiry be contacted or refuses or neglects to transfer the share in accordance with these articles, the directors may nominate one of their number to be the attorney of that holder, with full power on his behalf and in his name to execute, complete and deliver a transfer of that share to the person or persons to whom they ought to be transferred and the Company may give a good discharge for the purchase money and may enter the name of the transferee of the said share in the register of Members as the holder of it.

13.5. If a Member dies or is adjudged bankrupt, his personal representatives or trustee in his bankruptcy (as appropriate) shall be entitled to be registered as a Member of the Company, provided they or he are a Unitholder.

13.6 The directors shall refuse to register any transfer of a share or shares made in contravention of any of the foregoing provisions of these articles, but otherwise shall have no power to refuse to register a transfer.

13.7. Article 26(5) of the Model Articles shall not apply to the Company.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

14.1. Subject to article 14.2., each share shall confer on the holder thereof the right to one vote.

14.2. Where no Unitholder exists in respect of any Unit, those Members who are Subscribers or who become Members as a result of a transfer from a Subscriber under article 11.2. shall, either jointly (if there is more than one such Member) or alone (if there is only one such Member) have three votes in respect of every share in issue in addition to their own vote or votes as Members.

MEMBERS' CONTRIBUTIONS TO COSTS

15. The directors may from time to time determine that a charge shall be payable by the Members in order to meet the costs of the Company. In the absence of any agreement between the Company and all its Members, any such charge shall be made equally on each Member.
