2. Liability of members

The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART 2 DIRECTORS DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

4. Shareholders' reserve power

- 4.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

5. Directors may delegate

- 5.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:-

- 5.1.1 to such person or committee;
- 5.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
- 5.1.3 to such an extent;
- 5.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
- 5.1.5 on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

- 5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. Committees

- 6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. Directors to take decisions collectively

7.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 8.

7.2 If:-

7.2.1 the company only has one director for the time being, and

7.2.2 no provision of the Articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may (for so long as he remains the sole director) take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the Articles relating to directors' decision-making.

8. Unanimous decisions

8.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this Article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

8.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, where each eligible director has signed one or more copies of it, or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

8.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. Calling a directors' meeting

9.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving not less than one business day's notice of the meeting (or such lesser notice as all the directors may agree) to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

9.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:-

9.2.1 its proposed date and time;

9.2.2 where it is to take place; and

9.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

9.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

9.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held.

Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. Participation in directors' meetings

10.1 Subject to the Articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when—

10.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and

10.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

10.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

10.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

11. Quorum for directors' meetings

11.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

11.2 Subject to Article 11.3, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors is any two directors, or if there is only one director in office, that director (and in such case the provisions of Article 7.2 shall apply).

11.3 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 15 to authorise a director's conflict, if there is only one director in office besides the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one eligible director.

12. Chairing of directors' meetings

12.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

12.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

12.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.

12.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. Casting vote

If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of directors are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting shall not have a casting vote.

14. Transactions or other arrangements with the company

- 14.1 Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) and sections 182(5) and 182(6) of the Act and provided he has declared the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company:-
- 14.1.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;
 - 14.1.2 shall be an eligible director for the purposes of any proposed decision of the directors (or committee of directors) in respect of such contract or proposed contract in which he is interested;
 - 14.1.3 shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of directors or of a committee of the directors, or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such contract or proposed contract in which he is interested;
 - 14.1.4 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;
 - 14.1.5 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and
 - 14.1.6 shall not, save as he may otherwise agree, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him (as defined in section 252 of the Act)) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Act.
- 14.2 For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.
- 14.3 Subject to Article 14.4, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.
- 14.4 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

15. Directors' conflicts of interest

15.1 The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this Article, authorise any matter or situation proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 of the Act to avoid conflicts of interest (a "Conflict").

15.2 Any authorisation under this Article will be effective only if:-

15.2.1 the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration at a meeting of directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine;

15.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question; and

15.2.3 the matter was agreed to without his voting or would have been agreed to if his vote had not been counted.

15.3 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):-

15.3.1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised;

15.3.2 be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine, and 15.3.3 be terminated or varied by the directors at any time.

This will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

15.4 In authorising a Conflict the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, the director is under no obligation to:-

15.4.1 disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the company, or where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

15.4.2 use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director,

15.5 Where the directors authorise a Conflict they may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) provide, without limitation, that the director:-

15.5.1 is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;

15.5.2 is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict, and 15.5.3 may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

15.6 Where the directors authorise a Conflict:-

15.6.1 the director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict, and

15.6.2 the director will not infringe any duty he owes to the company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act provided he acts in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of its authorisation.

15.7 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.

16. Records of decisions to be kept

16.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

16.2 Where decisions of the directors are taken by electronic means, such decisions shall be recorded by the directors in permanent form, so that they may be read with the naked eye.

17. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

18. Number of directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall not be subject to any maximum.

19. Methods of appointing director

19.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:-

19.1.1 by ordinary resolution, or

19.1.2 by a decision of the directors.

19.2 In any case where, as a result of death or bankruptcy, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the transmittee(s) of the last shareholder to have died or to have a bankruptcy order made against him (as the case may be) have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a natural person (including a transmittee who is a natural person), who is willing to act and is permitted to do so, to be a director.

19.3 For the purposes of Article 19.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

20. Termination of director's appointment

20.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:-

20.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a director by law;

20.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

20.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

20.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

20.1.5 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.

21. Directors' remuneration

21.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.

21.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine:-

21.2.1 for their services to the company as directors, and 21.2.2 for any other service which they undertake for the company.

21.3 Subject to the Articles, a director's remuneration may:-

- 21.3.1 take any form, and
 - 21.3.2 include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.
- 21.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.
- 21.5 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

22. Directors' expenses

- 22.1 The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors (including alternate directors) and the secretary properly incur in connection with their attendance at:-

- 22.1.1 meetings of directors or committees of directors,
 - 22.1.2 general meetings, or
 - 22.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

23. Appointment and removal of alternate directors

- 23.1 Any director (the "appointor") may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors, to:-

- 23.1.1 exercise that director's powers, and
 - 23.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the alternate's appointor.

- 23.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by the appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.

- 23.3 The notice must:-

- 23.3.1 identify the proposed alternate, and

- 23.3.2 in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

24. Rights and responsibilities of alternate directors

- 24.1 An alternate director may act as alternate director to more than one director and has the same rights in relation to any decision of the directors as the alternate's appointor.

- 24.2 Except as the Articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:-

- 24.2.1 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;
- 24.2.2 are liable for their own acts and omissions;
- 24.2.3 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
- 24.2.4 are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors

and, in particular (without limitation), each alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and of all meetings of committees of directors of which his appointor is a member.

- 24.3 A person who is an alternate director but not a director:-

- 24.3.1 may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present (but only if that person's appointor is not participating);
- 24.3.2 may participate in a unanimous decision of the directors (but only if his appointor is an eligible director in relation to that decision, but does not participate); and
- 24.3.3 shall not be counted as more than one director for the purposes of Articles 24.3.1 and 24.3.2.

- 24.4 A director who is also an alternate director is entitled, in the absence of his appointor, to a separate vote on behalf of his appointor, in addition to his own vote on any decision of the directors (provided that his appointor is an eligible director in relation to that decision), but shall not count as more than one director for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

- 24.5 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

25. Termination of alternate directorship

- 25.1 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:-

- 25.1.1 when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
- 25.1.2 on the occurrence, in relation to the alternate, of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- 25.1.3 on the death of the alternate's appointor; or
- 25.1.4 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates.

26. Secretary

The directors may appoint any person who is willing to act as the secretary for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and from time to time remove such person and, if the directors so decide, appoint a replacement, in each case by a decision of the directors.

PART 3 SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS SHARES

27. Company's Lien over Shares

27.1 The company has a lien (the company's lien) over every share, whether or not fully paid, which is registered in the name of any person indebted or under any liability to the company, whether he is the sole registered holder of the share or one of several joint holders, for all monies payable by him (either alone or jointly with any other person) to the company, whether payable immediately or at some time in the future.

27.2 The company's lien over a share:

- 27.2.1 takes priority over any third party's interest in that share; and
- 27.2.2 extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share.

27.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

28. Enforcement of the Company's Lien

28.1 Subject to the provisions of this Article, if:

- 28.1.1 a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share; and

- 28.1.2 the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it, the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide.

28.2 A lien enforcement notice:

- 28.2.1 may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed;
- 28.2.2 must specify the share concerned;
- 28.2.3 must require payment of the sum within 14 clear days of the notice (that is, excluding the date on which the notice is given and the date on which that 14 day period expires);
- 28.2.4 must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a transferee of that holder; and
- 28.2.5 must state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.

28.3 Where shares are sold under this Article:

- 28.3.1 the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or to a person nominated by the purchaser; and
- 28.3.2 the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale.

28.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied:

- 28.4.1 first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice; and
- 28.4.2 second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation, or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the company's lien for any money payable (whether payable immediately or at some time in the future) as existed upon the shares before the sale in respect of all shares registered in the name of such person (whether as the sole registered holder or as one of several joint holders) after the date of the lien enforcement notice.

28.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the company secretary (if any) and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date:

28.5.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and

28.5.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the Articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

29. Call Notices

29.1 Subject to the Articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a call notice) to a shareholder requiring the shareholder to pay the company a specified sum of money (a call) which is payable to the company at the date when the directors decide to send the call notice.

29.2 A call notice:

29.2.1 may not require a shareholder to pay a call which exceeds the total amount of his indebtedness or liability to the company;

29.2.2 must state when and how any call to which it relates is to be paid; and

29.2.3 may permit or require the call to be made in instalments.

29.3 A shareholder must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no shareholder is obliged to pay any call before 14 clear days (that is, excluding the date on which the notice is given and the date on which that 14 day period expires) have passed since the notice was sent.

29.4 Before the company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may:

29.4.1 revoke it wholly or in part; or

29.4.2 specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice, by a further notice in writing to the shareholder in respect of whose shares the call is made.

30. Liability to Pay Calls

30.1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid.

30.2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share.

30.3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them:

30.3.1 to pay calls which are not the same; or 30.3.2 to pay calls at different times.

31. When Call Notice Need Not Be Issued

31.1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the company in respect of that share:

31.1.1 on allotment;

31.1.2 on the occurrence of a particular event; or

31.1.3 on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue.

31.2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture.

32. Failure to Comply With Call Notice: Automatic Consequences

32.1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date:

32.1.1 the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person; and 32.1.2 until the call is paid, that person must pay the company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate.

32.2 For the purposes of this Article:

32.2.1 the "call payment date" is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the "call payment date" is that later date; and

32.2.2 the "relevant rate" is

32.2.2.1 the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted;

32.2.2.2 such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors; or

32.2.2.3 if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 5 per cent per annum.

32.3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 5 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998.

32.4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part.

33. Notice of Intended Forfeiture

33.1 A notice of intended forfeiture:

- 33.1.1 may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice;
- 33.1.2 must be sent to the holder of that share (or all the joint holders of that share) or to a transmittee of that holder;
- 33.1.3 must require payment of the call and any accrued interest and all expenses that may have been incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment by a date which is not less than 14 clear days after the date of the notice (that is, excluding the date on which the notice is given and the date on which that 14 day period expires);
- 33.1.4 must state how the payment is to be made; and
- 33.1.5 must state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

34. Directors' Power to Forfeit Shares

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

35. Effect of Forfeiture

35.1 Subject to the Articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes:

- 35.1.1 all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it; and
- 35.1.2 all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company.

35.2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the Articles:

- 35.2.1 is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited;
- 35.2.2 is deemed to be the property of the company; and
- 35.2.3 may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit.

35.3 If a person's shares have been forfeited:

- 35.3.1 the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of shareholders;
 - 35.3.2 that person ceases to be a shareholder in respect of those shares;
 - 35.3.3 that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation;
 - 35.3.4 that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the Articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture); and
 - 35.3.5 the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 35.4 At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls interest and expenses due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit.

36. Procedure Following Forfeiture

- 36.1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer.
- 36.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date:
- 36.2.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and
 - 36.2.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the Articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.
- 36.3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.
- 36.4 If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which:
- 36.4.1 was, or would have become, payable; and
 - 36.4.2 had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the company is not required to account for any money earned on them.

37. Surrender of Shares

37.1 A shareholder may surrender any share:

37.1.1 in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture;

37.1.2 which the directors may forfeit; or

37.1.3 which has been forfeited.

37.2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share.

37.3 The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share.

37.4 A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited.

38. Further Issues of Shares: Authority

38.1 Save to the extent authorised by these Articles, or authorised from time to time by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders, the directors shall not exercise any power to allot shares or to grant rights to subscribe for, or to convert any security into, any shares in the company.

38.2 Subject to the remaining provisions of this Article 38 and to Article 39, the directors are generally and unconditionally authorised, for the purposes of section 551 of the Act and generally, to exercise any power of the company to:

38.2.1 offer or allot;

38.2.2 grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into;

38.2.3 otherwise deal in, or dispose of, any shares to any person, at any time and subject to any terms and conditions as the directors think proper.

38.3 The authority referred to in Article 38.2:

38.3.1 shall be limited to a maximum nominal amount of £[1,000];

38.3.2 shall only apply insofar as the company has not renewed, waived or revoked it by ordinary resolution; and

38.3.3 may only be exercised for a period of five years commencing on the date on which these Articles are adopted, save that the directors may make an offer or agreement which would, or might, require shares to be allotted after the expiry of such authority (and the directors may allot shares in pursuance of an offer or agreement as if such authority had not expired).

39. Further Issues of Shares: Pre-Emption Rights

39.1 In accordance with section 570 of the Act, the directors are generally and unconditionally authorised to allot equity securities (as defined in section 560 of the Act) pursuant to the authority conferred by Article 38, as if section 561 of the Act did not apply to any such allotment, provided that this power shall:

39.1.1 be limited to the allotment of equity securities up to an aggregate nominal amount of £[1,000]; and

39.1.2 expire when the authority conferred by Article 38 is revoked or would expire (unless renewed, varied or revoked by the company prior to or on that date) save that the company may, before expiry of the authority conferred by Article 38, make an offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be allotted after such expiry and the directors may allot equity securities in pursuance of any such offer or agreement notwithstanding that the authority conferred by this Article 39 has expired.

39.2 No shares shall be allotted to any employee, director, prospective employee or director unless such person has (if required by the directors) entered into a joint election with the company under section 431 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003.

40. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the Articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

41. Share certificates

41.1 The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.

41.2 Every certificate must specify:-

41.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;

41.2.2 the nominal value of those shares; and

41.2.3 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

41.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

41.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

41.5 Certificates must:-

41.5.1 have affixed to them the company's common seal, or 41.5.2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

42. Replacement share certificates

42.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is:-

42.1.1 damaged or defaced, or

42.1.2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

42.2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:-

42.2.1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;

42.2.2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and

42.2.3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

43. Share transfers

43.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, the transferee.

43.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

43.3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

43.4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.

43.5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

44. Transmission of shares

44.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

44.2 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:-

- 44.2.1 may, subject to the Articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
 - 44.2.2 subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- 44.3 But, subject to Article 19.2, transmittes do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

45. Exercise of transmittes' rights

- 45.1 Transmittes who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
- 45.2 If the transmittes wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittes must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 45.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittes has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

46. Transmittes bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittes is entitled to those shares, the transmittes is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittes's name, or the name of any person nominated under Article 67, has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

47. Procedure for declaring dividends

- 47.1 The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 47.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 47.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
- 47.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

- 47.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- 47.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 47.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

48. Calculation of dividends

- 48.1 The directors may declare different dividends as between the holders of the A Shares as a class, the holders of the B Shares as a class and the holders of the C Shares as a class but otherwise agreed by the directors, all dividends must be apportioned and paid proportionately to the number of shares in issue during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid.
- 48.2 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.
- 48.3 For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.

49. Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 49.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:-
- 49.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient in writing;
 - 49.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient in writing;
 - 49.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified in writing; or
 - 49.1.4 (any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient in writing.
- 49.2 In the Articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:-
- 49.2.1 the holder of the share; or
 - 49.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or

- 49.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

50. Deductions from distributions in respect of sums owed to the Company

50.1 If:-

50.1.1 a share is subject to the company's lien, and

50.1.2 the directors are entitled to issue a lien enforcement notice in respect of it, they may, instead of issuing a lien enforcement notice, deduct from any dividend or other sum payable in respect of the share any sum of money which is payable to the company in respect of that share to the extent that they are entitled to require payment under a lien enforcement notice.

50.2 Money so deducted must be used to pay any of the sums payable in respect of that share.

50.3 The company must notify the distribution recipient in writing of:-

50.3.1 the fact and amount of any such deduction;

50.3.2 any non-payment of a dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share resulting from any such deduction; and 50.3.3 how the money deducted has been applied.

51. No interest on distributions

51.1 The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:-

51.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued, or 51.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

52. Unclaimed distributions

52.1 All dividends or other sums which are:-

52.1.1 payable in respect of shares, and

52.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

52.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

52.3 If:-

52.3.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and

52.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

53. Non-cash distributions

53.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

53.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution—

53.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;

53.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and 53.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

54. Waiver of distributions

54.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:-

54.1.1 the share has more than one holder, or

54.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

55. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

55.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:-

55.1.1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and

55.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

55.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:-

55.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled, and

55.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

55.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

55.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied:-

55.4.1 in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled, or

55.4.2 in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

55.5 Subject to the Articles the directors may:-

55.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with Articles 55.3 and 55.4;

55.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and

55.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this Article.

PART 4 DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

56. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 56.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 56.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:-
- 56.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
 - 56.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 56.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 56.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 56.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

57. Quorum for general meetings

No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

58. Chairing general meetings

- 58.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.
- 58.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start—
- 58.2.1 the directors present, or
 - 58.2.2 (if no directors are present), the meeting,
- must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.
- 58.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as "the chairman of the meeting".

59. Attendance and speaking by directors and non-shareholders

59.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders.

59.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not—

59.2.1 shareholders of the company, or

59.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

60. Adjournment

60.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

60.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:-

60.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

60.2.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

60.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

60.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:-

60.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and

60.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

60.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):-

60.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and 60.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

- 60.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

61. Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.

62. Errors and disputes

- 62.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 62.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

63. Poll votes

- 63.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:-
- 63.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - 63.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 63.2 A poll may be demanded at any general meeting by any qualifying person (as defined in section 318 of the Act) present and entitled to vote at the meeting.
- 63.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:-
- 63.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and
 - 63.3.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.
- A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 63.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

64. Content of proxy notices

- 64.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:-

- 64.1.1 states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy;
- 64.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
- 64.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
- 64.1.4 is delivered to the company in accordance with the Articles not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised and in accordance with any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which they relate and a proxy notice which is not delivered in such manner shall be invalid, unless the directors, in their discretion, accept the notice at any time before the meeting.

- 64.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 64.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 64.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:-
 - 64.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 64.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

65. Delivery of proxy notices

- 65.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
- 65.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 65.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 65.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

66. Amendments to resolutions

66.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:-

66.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and 66.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

66.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:-

66.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

66.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

66.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

67. Members' Nomination Rights

67.1 Subject to the Act, any shareholder (or, where any share is held jointly, whichever of them is first named in the register) shall be entitled from time to time to nominate any other person or persons other than any person(s) whom the directors consider to be or to represent a competitor (or potential competitor) of the company or any person(s) or other entity connected with such a competitor to exercise some or all of such shareholder's rights as a shareholder of the company and at any time to revoke such nomination.

67.3 A notice of nomination given under Article 67.2 may:

67.3.1 specify which rights, in relation to which shares, of that shareholder are to be enjoyed, or may be exercised, by the relevant nominee(s) (and any limitations on such enjoyment or exercise) or, in the absence of such provision, such notice shall be deemed to grant each nominee the right to exercise all of the relevant shareholder's rights as a shareholder of the company, to the fullest extent, subject only to the provisions of the Companies Acts. In the absence of any limitation on any nominee's rights pursuant to a nomination under this Article 67.2, the Company shall accept any instruction or exercise of a right which is first received, in the event of an instruction or exercise being made by more than one nominee in respect of the same right; and

67.3.2 specify when the nomination is to cease to have effect.

67.4 Revocation of a nomination previously made under Article 67.1 shall be given by notice in writing addressed to the company and shall take effect upon receipt (or deemed receipt) of such notice by the company.

67.5 At all times from receipt (or deemed receipt) by the company of such a notice of nomination, until receipt (or deemed receipt) of a valid notice of revocation of such a nomination, the nominee appointed by a shareholder shall enjoy and be entitled to exercise the rights of that shareholder, to the extent, if any, specified in such notice of nomination, to the exclusion of that shareholder's rights (to that extent). The revocation of a nomination in accordance with Article 67.4 shall not invalidate anything done (or omitted to be done) by the relevant nominee at any time prior to the date such revocation takes effect in accordance with Article 67.4.

67.6 For the purposes of these Articles but subject to the provisions of the Act, references to any matter to be done by, or in relation to, a "shareholder" or "shareholders" shall be deemed to include reference to any person for the time being nominated in accordance with this Article 67 (and such references shall, until such nomination is revoked in accordance with Article 67.4, exclude the shareholder who made the nomination).
