6.3.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

6.4 No director or connected person may:

6.5.2 A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 of the Charities Act 2011.

6.5.7 A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

6.6 The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by article 6.5.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

6.6.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between:

6.6.1.1 the charity or its directors (as the case may be); and

6.6.1.2 the director or connected person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity

6.6.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

6.6.3 The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

6.6.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.

6.6.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.

6.6.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.

6.6.7 A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 6.4.

6.7.1 In articles 6.2 to 6.4 "charity" shall include any company in which the charity: holds more than 50% of the shares; or controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or has the right to appoint one or more directors to the directors of the company;

14.3 The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 16.

14.4 The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors.

15.2 A quorum is:

15.2.1 5 members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting; or 15.2.2 one tenth of the total membership at the time whichever is the greater.

15.5 The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

15.6 If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

15.7 General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors.

15.8 If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a director nominated by the directors shall chair the meeting.

15.9 If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

15.11 The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.

15.12 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.

15.13 No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.

15.14 If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

15.15 Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:

15.15.1 by the person chairing the meeting; or

15.15.2 by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or 15.15.3 by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.

15.16 The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded. The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded.

15.17 The following articles deal with a call for a poll.

15.17.1 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.

15.17.2 If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

15.17.3 A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.

15.17.4 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

15.17.5 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

15.17.6 A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.

15.17.7 The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded.

15.17.8 If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

15.17.9 If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

16.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which–

16.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

16.1.4 is delivered to the charity in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

16.2 The charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes

16.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

16.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as –

16.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and 16.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

17. Delivery of proxy notices

17.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.

17.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

17.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

17.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointer's behalf.

18. Written resolutions

18.1 Other than in the case of a resolution to remove a director or auditor before the expiry of their office, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:

18.1.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member;

18.1.2 a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75% of members) has signified its agreement to the resolution; and

18.1.3 it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

18.2 A written resolution is passed as soon as the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it. The document indicating a member's approval of a written resolution must be sent to the charity in hard copy form or in electronic form. A member's agreement to a written resolution, once signified, may not be revoked.

18.3 A written resolution lapses if the necessary number of approvals has not been received 28 days after the first day on which copies of the resolution were circulated to members.

18.4 A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement.

18.5 In the case of a member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement.

19. Votes of members

19.1 Subject to article 8, every full member, every authorised representative of an affiliated member and statutory authority member, and every authorised representative of associate members present in person shall have one vote.

19.2 No full member or, in the case of an affiliated member or statutory authority member, their authorised representative, shall be entitled to vote in any specific capacity at any general meeting unless all moneys then payable by reference to such capacity by him or her or by his or her appointing affiliated member or statutory authority member to the charity have been paid.

19.3 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection shall be referred to the chair whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

19.4 A vote given by an authorised representative of an affiliated and a statutory authority member shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting unless notice of the determination was received by the charity at the registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given. The charity shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation.

The directors are both the directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Acts and charity trustees for the purposes of the Charities Act 2011. The directors must act reasonably and prudently in all matters relating to the charity and must always bear in mind the interests of the charity to the exclusion of personal prejudices and interests.

20.7 The first directors of the charity shall be deemed to have been appointed under the articles. The first directors shall have power to appoint further directors who shall hold office until the end of the first annual general meeting. Such directors shall have power to elect a Chairman and Vice-Chairman. Subject to this, the Board shall consist of the following directors:

20.7.1 up to 12 individuals elected by full members and by the authorised representatives of affiliated members and statutory authority members;

20.7.2 up to 3 individuals co-opted by the Board who shall serve on the Board until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting;

20.8 Full members and authorised representatives of associate members, affiliated members and of statutory authority members shall be entitled by ordinary resolution at a general meeting of the charity to elect any full member, associate member or any authorised representative of affiliated members and of statutory authority members (in each case) willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director PROVIDED THAT the number of persons in office at any one time who have been so appointed by the members shall not exceed 12 (or such other maximum number as may be determined by the charity in general meeting).

20.9 Any election of directors made under article 20.8 shall be minuted and the minutes shall be signed by the chair of the meeting and submitted to the secretary.

20.10 Every director shall upon election or appointment receive a copy of the charity's articles.

20.11 In order to be eligible to vote at any meeting of the directors, every director must-

20.11.1 be or become a full or associate member of the charity (save for any authorised representative of affiliated members and of statutory authority members) and 20.11.2 sign a declaration of willingness to act as a charity trustee of the charity.

20.12 Subject as aforesaid, the charity may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director and may also determine the rotation (if applicable) in which any additional directors are to retire.

20.13 The directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill vacancy or as an additional director PROVIDED THAT the appointment does not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the articles as the maximum number of directors. A director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation (if applicable) at the meeting. If not reappointed at such annual general meeting, he or she shall vacate office at the conclusion thereof.

20.14 A technical defect in the appointment of a director of which the directors are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

20.15 An employee of the charity shall not be eligible to be a director, or member of any section committee or any sub-committee of the charity, but may be invited to attend such committees as a non-voting adviser.

21. Powers of directors

21.1 The directors shall manage the business of the charity and may exercise all the powers of the charity unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, the articles or any special resolution.

21.2 No alteration of the articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the directors.

21.3 Any meeting of directors at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the directors.

21.4 The directors have power to do anything which is calculated to further the charity's Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the directors have power-

21.4.1 to permit individual members of the charity to establish sections and to regulate their functions and activities; and to order the dissolution of any section in breach of the requirements of Article 11.2 or of any requirements of the directors

21.4.2 to exercise the charity's power to borrow money and, subject always to the Charities Act 2011, to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof, and to issue any securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the charity or of any third party subject to such consents as may be required by law.

22. Appointment of directors

22.1 The charity may by ordinary resolution:

22.1 appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director; and 22.2 determine the rotation in which any additional directors are to retire.

22.2 No person other than a director retiring by rotation may be appointed a director at any general meeting unless:

22.2.1 he or she is recommended for re-election by the directors; or

22.2.2 not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date of the meeting, the charity is given a notice that:

22.2.2.1 is signed by a member entitled to vote at the meeting;

22.2.2.2 states the member's intention to propose the appointment of a person as a director;

22.2.2.3 contains the details that, if the person were to be appointed, the charity would have to file at Companies House; and 22.2.2.4 is signed by the person who is to be proposed to show his or her willingness to be appointed.

22.3 All members who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting must be given not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a director other than a director who is to retire by rotation.

22.4 The directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director.

22.5 A director appointed by a resolution of the other directors must retire at the next annual general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation.

22.6 The appointment of a director, whether by the charity in general meeting or by the other directors, must not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of directors.

23. Retirement of directors

At the first and at each subsequent annual general meeting all the directors shall retire from office unless by the close of the meeting the members have failed to elect sufficient directors to hold a quorate meeting of the directors.

23.2 A director who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be re-elected. If the charity does not fill the vacancy created by his or her resignation, he or she shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-elected unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the re-election of the director has been put to a meeting and lost. If he or she is not re-elected he or she shall retain office until the meeting elects someone in his or her place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

23.3 If a director is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of the articles the retirement shall take effect upon the conclusion of the meeting.

24. Disqualification and removal of directors

24.1 A director shall cease to hold office if he or she:

24.1.1 ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision in the Companies Acts or is prohibited by law from being a director;

24.1.2 is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of section 178 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);

24.1.3 ceases to be a member of the charity;

24.1.4 becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs;

24.1.5 resigns as a director by notice to the charity (but only if at least two directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect);

24.1.6 is absent without the permission of the directors from all their meetings held within a period of six consecutive months and the directors resolve that his or her office be vacated; or

24.1.7 is removed by ordinary resolution of the members of the charity present and voting at a general meeting after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views.

24.2 Where a director is an authorised representative of an affiliated member or of a statutory authority member his or her term of office automatically terminates if:

24.2.1 his or her membership of or employment by such affiliated member or statutory authority member ceases

24.2.2 the affiliated member or statutory authority member of which he or she is a member or employee ceases to be a member.

25. Remuneration of directors

The directors must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by article 6.

26. Proceedings of directors

26.1 The directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the articles.

26.2 Any director may call a meeting of the directors.

26.3 The secretary (if any) must call a meeting of the directors if requested to do so by a director.

26.4 Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

26.5 A meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the directors in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.

26.6 A procedural defect of which the directors are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

26.7 No decision may be made by a meeting of the directors unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made. 'Present' includes being present by suitable electronic means agreed by the directors in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants.

26.8 The quorum shall be three or the number nearest to one-third of the total number of directors, whichever is the greater, or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the directors.

26.9 A director shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that director is not entitled to vote.

26.10 If the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

26.11 The directors shall appoint a director to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment.

26.12 If no-one has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.

26.13 The person appointed to chair meetings of the directors shall have no functions or powers except those conferred by the articles or delegated to him or her by the directors.

26.14 A resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by a simple majority of all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held provided that:

26.14.1 a copy of the resolution is sent or submitted to all the directors eligible to vote; and

26.14.2 a simple majority of directors has signified its agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document or documents which are received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

26.15 The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more directors has signified their agreement.

27. Delegation

27.1 The directors may delegate any of their functions to sub-committees and to define the terms of reference of any sub-committee and determine its composition and the duration of its activities but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book.

27.2 The directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:

27.2.1 the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;

27.2.2 no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the directors.

27.3 The directors may revoke or alter a delegation.

27.4 All acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the directors.

28. Declaration of directors' interests

A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

29. Conflicts of interests

29.1 If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

29.1.1 the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person

29.1.2 the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and

29.1.3 the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

29.2 In this article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.

30. Validity of directors' decisions

30.1 Subject to article 30.2, all acts done by a meeting of directors, or of a committee of directors, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a director:

30.1.1 who was disqualified from holding office;

30.1.2 who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;

30.1.3 who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interests or otherwise;

if without:

30.1.4 the vote of that director; and

30.1.5 that director being counted in the quorum; the decision has been made by a majority of the directors at a quorate meeting.

30.2 Article 30.1 does not permit a director or a connected person to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the directors or of a committee of directors if, but for article 30.1, the resolution would have been void, or if the director has not complied with article 28.

31. Advisers to the directors

31.1 There are two types of advisers to the directors: advisers elected by junior members and advisers appointed by the directors. Junior members are given the special right to elect advisers as provided hereunder because they are not entitled to vote at general meetings of the charity.

31.2 Junior members shall be entitled from time to time and at any time to elect any person who is willing to act to be an adviser to the directors (without the right to vote), and to remove a person appointed by them as an adviser to the directors from office provided always that the number of advisers to the directors appointed by them and in office at any one time shall not exceed two. Any such election or removal shall take place in accordance with the standing orders.

31.3 Every such election or removal shall be by notice in writing, signed by a majority of the members under 18 years of age and given to the secretary and shall take effect upon receipt.

31.4 The directors may at any time and from time to time appoint any person of any age to the position of adviser to the directors.

31.5 An adviser to the directors shall advise and assist the directors but shall not attend meetings of the directors except at the invitation of the directors, and when present at meetings of the directors he or she shall not be entitled to vote, nor be counted in the quorum, but subject to this he or she shall as adviser to the directors have such powers, authorities and duties as the directors may in the particular case from time to time determine.

31.6 An adviser to the directors shall not be deemed a trustee, nor shall he or she be a director for any of the purposes of the articles or (so far as provision may lawfully be made in this behalf) for any of the purposes of the Companies Acts.

31.7 Without prejudice to any rights or claims the adviser to the directors may have under any contract with the charity, any appointment as an adviser may be terminated by the directors at any time.

31.8 An adviser may receive such remuneration (if any) in addition to the remuneration received as an employee of the charity as the directors shall from time to time determine.

32. Minutes

34.2 The directors must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the charity's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

35. Means of communication to be used

35.1 Subject to the articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the charity under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the charity.

35.2 Subject to the articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

35.3 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the articles: must be in writing or must be given in electronic form.

35.4 The charity may give any notice to a member either:

35.4.1 personally; or

35.4.2 by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his or her address; or

35.4.3 by leaving it at the address of the member; or 35.4.4 by giving it in electronic form to the member's address.

35.5 A member who does not register an address with the charity or who registers only a postal address that is not within the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the charity.

35.6 A member present in person at any meeting of the charity shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and of the purposes for which it was called.

35.7 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

35.8 Proof that an electronic form of notice was given shall be conclusive where the company can demonstrate that it was properly addressed and sent, in accordance with section 1147 of the Companies Act 2006.

35.9 In accordance with section 1147 of the Companies Act 2006 notice shall be deemed to be given:

35.9.1 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted; or

35.9.2 in the case of an electronic form of communication, 48 hours after it was sent

36. Indemnity

36.1 In the execution of their duties no director shall be liable:

36.1.1 for any loss to the property of the charity by reason of any Improper investment made in good faith (so long as he or she shall have sought professional advice before making such investment); or

36.1.2 for the negligence or fraud of any agent employed by him or her or by any other director in good faith (provided reasonable supervision shall have been exercised); and no director shall be liable by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any Trustee other than wilful and individual fraud, wrongdoing or wrongful omission on the part of the member who is sought to be made liable.

36.2 The charity shall indemnify every director against any liability incurred in successfully defending legal proceedings in that capacity, or in connection with any application in which relief is granted by the Court from liability for negligence, default, or breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the charity.

36.3 In this article a "relevant director" means any director or former director of the charity.

37. Standing orders

37.1 The directors may from time to time make such reasonable and proper standing orders as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the charity.

37.2 The bye laws may regulate the following matters but are not restricted to them:

37.2.1 the admission of members of the charity (including the admission of organisations to membership) and the rights and privileges of such members, and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;

37.2.2 the conduct of members of the charity in relation to one another, and to the charity's employees and volunteers;

37.2.5 generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.

37.3 The charity in general meeting has the power to alter, add to or repeal the standing orders.

37.4 The directors must adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring the standing orders to the notice of members of the charity.

37.5 The standing orders shall be binding on all members of the charity. No standing order shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the
