5 MEMBERS' RESERVE POWER

5.1 Members' directions

The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

6 DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

6.1 Scope of delegation

Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles

- (a) to such person or to such committee (consisting of one or more directors),
- (b) by such means (including by power of attorney),

- (c) to such an extent,
  - (d) in relation to such matters or territories, and

7.2 Directors' power to make procedural rules

The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

Decisions of the directors may be taken

- (a) at a directors' meeting, or
- (b) in the form of a directors' written resolution,

9 CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

9.1 Power to call directors' meetings

Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give that notice

9.3 Notice to each director

Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing

9.4 Waiver of entitlement to notice

Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company before, on or after the date on which the meeting is held. ### 10 PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

10.1 Participation conditions

Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when

- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

10.2 Irrelevant matters

In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other

10.3 Deciding on place of meeting

If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

11 QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting

11 2 Fixing of quorum

The quorum for directors' meetings shall, while there are two Independent Directors, be two Independent Directors. If at any time there is only one Independent Director, pending the appointment of a second Independent Director, the quorum for directors' meetings shall be one Independent Director and the Class E Note Director, and in such circumstances the Independent Director shall have a casting vote. If there are no Independent Directors, an Independent Director must be appointed. The quorum for a directors' meeting at which a vote is held on a matter that requires the vote of all directors shall be all the directors.

12 MEETINGS WHERE TOTAL NUMBER OF DIRECTORS LESS THAN QUORUM

12 1 Application

This article applies where the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum for directors' meetings.

12 2 Action if one director

If there is only one director, that director may appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or call a general meeting to do so.

12 3 Action if more than one director

If there is more than one director

- (a) a directors' meeting may take place, if it is called in accordance with the articles and at least two directors participate in it, with a view to appointing sufficient directors to make up a quorum or calling a general meeting to do so, and
- (b) if a directors' meeting is called but only one director attends at the appointed date and time to participate in it, that director may appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or call a general meeting to do so.

13 CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

13 1 Appointment of chairman

The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings, provided that only an Independent Director may be chairman.

13 2 Appointed person called chairman

The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

13 3 Termination of chairman's appointment

The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time, and appointment shall terminate if at any time the chairman ceases to qualify as an Independent Director.

13 4 Alternative chairman

If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within 10 minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it, provided that only an Independent Director may be chairman

14 1 Decisions at directors' meetings

Subject to the articles, a decision is taken at a directors' meeting by a majority of the votes of the participating directors

15 CASTING VOTE

If the quorum consists of a single Independent Director and Class E Note Director, then the Independent Director shall have a casting vote

A director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointor who is

- (a) not participating in a directors' meeting, and
- (b) would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it

17 AUTHORISING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

17 1 Directors' power to authorise conflicts of interest

The directors may, in accordance with this article, authorise a matter proposed to them which would, if not authorised, involve a breach by a director of his or her duty under s175 Companies Act 2006 to avoid a situation in which he or she has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the company's interests

17 2 Interpretation

A reference in the articles to a "conflict of interest" includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties

17 3 Authorisation in accordance with Companies Act 2006

An authorisation referred to in article 17 1 is effective only if it is given in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006

17 4 Authorisation by written resolution

In the case of an authorisation given by resolution in writing

- (a) the resolution must be signed by all the directors, and
- (b) the number of directors that sign the resolution (disregarding the director in question and any other director who has a direct or indirect interest in the matter being authorised) must be not less than the number required to form a quorum

17 5 Directors may prescribe terms of authorisation

The directors may

- (a) authorise a matter pursuant to article 17 1 on such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions on it, as they may decide, and
- (b) vary the terms or duration of such an authorisation (including any limits or conditions imposed on it) or revoke it

17 6 Examples of terms of authorisation

Any terms, limits or conditions imposed by the directors in respect of their authorisation of a director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest (whether given pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise) may provide that

- (a) if the relevant director has (other than through his or her position as director) information in relation to the relevant matter in respect of which he or she owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, he or she is not obliged to disclose that information to the company or to use or apply it in performing his or her duties as a director,
- (b) the director is to be excluded from discussions in relation to the relevant matter whether at a meeting of the directors or any committee of directors or otherwise,
- (c) the director is not to be given any documents or other information in relation to the relevant matter, and
- (d) the director may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at a meeting of the directors or any committee of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the relevant matter.

17 7 No infringement of duty

A director does not infringe any duty which he or she owes to the company by virtue of ss171 to 177 Companies Act 2006 if that director acts in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of their authorisation of that director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest (whether given pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise)

18 ACCOUNTABILITY OF REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

18 1 Directors permitted to retain benefits from situational conflicts

A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest which has been authorised by the directors (whether pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise) or by the company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation)

18 2 Directors permitted to retain benefits from transactional conflicts

If a director has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of his or her interest (to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006) he or she is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from or in connection with

- (a) being a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is interested or a body corporate in which the company is interested,
- (b) acting (otherwise than as auditor) alone or through his or her organisation in a professional capacity for the company (and that director or his or her organisation is entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director), or
- (c) being a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested in, the company's subsidiaries or any other body corporate in which the company is interested

18 3 No breach of statutory duty not to accept benefits from third parties

A director's receipt of any remuneration or other benefit referred to in articles 18 1 or 18 2 does not constitute an infringement of his or her duty under s176 Companies Act 2006

18 4 Transaction not liable to be avoided

A transaction or arrangement referred to in articles 18 1 or 18 2 is not liable to be avoided on the ground of any remuneration, benefit or interest referred to those articles

19 MEETINGS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

19 1 Participation of interested directors

If a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested then

- (a) provided the director has declared the nature and extent of his or her interest to the other directors to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006, and
- (b) subject to the terms imposed by any authorisation given by the directors (whether pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise) or by the company in general meeting that director is to be counted as participating in that meeting, or part of a meeting, for quorum purposes and he or she may vote at that meeting or part of a meeting

19 2 Interpretation

For the purposes of this article

- (a) an interest of a person who is, for any purpose of the Companies Act 2006, "connected with" (within the meaning of s252 Companies Act 2006) a director is to be treated as an interest of the director, and
- (b) in relation to an alternate director, an interest of his or her appointor is to be treated as an interest of the alternate director without prejudice to any interest which the alternate director has otherwise and without prejudice to his or her ability to vote in relation to that transaction or arrangement on behalf of another appointor who does not have such an interest

19 3 Chairman's rulings

Subject to article 19 4, if a question arises at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

19 4 Questions regarding the chairman

If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) arises in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

19 5 Directors voting on appointments

If it is proposed to appoint two or more directors to offices or employments with the company or with any body corporate in which the company is interested or to fix or vary the terms of those appointments, the proposals must be divided and considered in relation to each director separately. In that case, each of those directors (if not precluded from voting for another reason) may vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except the resolution which relates to that director. Only an Independent Director may be appointed to or hold offices or employments with the company or with any body corporate in which the company is interested

20 PROPOSING DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

20.1 Proposal by a director

Any director may propose a directors' written resolution

20.2 Proposal by the company secretary

The company secretary (if any) must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests

20.3 Method of proposing

A directors' written resolution is proposed by giving notice of the proposed resolution to the directors

20.4 Content of notice

- (a) Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must include the proposed resolution, and
- (b) the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it

20.5 Written notice to each director

Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must be given in writing to each director

20.6 Adoption process

Any decision which a person giving notice of a proposed directors' written resolution takes regarding the process of adopting that resolution must be taken reasonably in good faith

21 ADOPTION OF DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

21.1 When written resolution adopted

A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when all the directors who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution at a directors' meeting have signed one or more copies of it, but only if those directors would have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

21.2 Immateriality of signing time

It is immaterial whether any director signs the resolution before or after the time by which the notice proposed that it should be adopted

21.3 How resolution to be treated

Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the articles

21.4 Record of directors' written resolutions

The directors or the company secretary (if any) must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, of all directors' written resolutions for at least 10 years from the date of their adoption

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

23 METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

23.1 Number and type of directors

At all times there shall be three directors, including two Independent Directors and one Class E Note Director.

Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director

- (a) by ordinary resolution, or
- (b) by a decision of the directors, provided that

(i) No person shall be appointed as an Independent Director unless that person has been approved as having sufficient knowledge and experience within the business conducted at the company, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. If, at the time such approval is sought, there are two Independent Directors holding office, such approval shall be required from a majority of the directors, which shall include both Independent Directors if no Class E Note Director holds office at such time. If, at the time, there is one Independent Director holding office, such approval shall be required from the sole Independent Director. If, at the time, there are no Independent Directors holding office, such approval shall be required from ALS Limited

(ii) No person shall be appointed as an Independent Director unless that person has been approved by the Policy Provider, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. The Policy Provider shall provide the company a written response confirming its approval or rejection of any proposed appointee submitted to it as promptly as practicable and in any event within 14 days after receipt of such proposal. If the Policy Provider fails to provide the company with a written response within such time period the Policy Provider shall be deemed to have approved such proposal. ###### 55 7 Interpretation

But articles 55 2 to 55 6 are subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares

55 8 A proxy's obligations to vote

The company is entitled to assume without enquiry that a proxy has complied with any obligation to vote in accordance with instructions given by the member by whom the proxy is appointed. The validity of anything done at a meeting is not affected by any failure by a proxy to comply with such an obligation.

56 ERRORS AND DISPUTES

56 1 Voting objections

No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

The chairman of the meeting may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and decide how and when the result of the poll is to be declared

No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time, date and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded

59 3 Proxy voting

Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions

59 4 Ancillary rights of proxies

Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

60 DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

60 1 Proxy notification address

A notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (each a "proxy notification address") at which the company will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or (unless the directors decide otherwise in relation to a specific general meeting) electronic form

60 2 Rights of appointor

An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given to a proxy notification address

60 8 When revocation takes effect

A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before

- (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution

61 2 Special resolutions

A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if

- (a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
- (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution

61 3 Chairman's decisions

If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution
