for the year ended 31 October 2017

The director presents their report and the unaudited financial statements for the year ended 31 October 2017.

Principal Activity

The principal activity of the company is that of the provision of consultancy services.

Principal Risks and Uncertainties

The company operates solely in the United Kingdom, and therefore is not subject to currency risks. The company's objective in relation to interest rate management is to minimise the impact of interest rate volatility on interest costs in order to protect profitability. In terms of liquidity and cash flow risk, the company's policy is to ensure that sufficient resources are available either from cash balances or cash flows to ensure all obligations can be met when they fall due.

Results and Dividends

The profit for the year after providing for taxation amounted to £399,082 (2016 - £267,157).

The director proposes a dividend of £120,000.

Director

The director who served during the year is as follows:

Mark Howell

There were no changes in shareholdings between 31 October 2017 and the date of signing the financial statements.

In accordance with the Constitution, the director retire by rotation and, being eligible, offer themselves for re-election.

Political Contributions

The company did not make any disclosable political donations in the current year.

Indemnity Insurance

In accordance with our articles of association and to the extent permitted by the laws of England and Wales, directors are granted an indemnity from the Company in respect of liabilities incurred as a result of their office. In addition, we maintained a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy throughout the period. Neither our indemnity nor the insurance provides cover in the event that a director is proven to have acted dishonestly or fraudulently.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

for the year ended 31 October 2017

Statement of director's Responsibilities and Declaration on Unaudited Financial Statements

The director made the following statement in respect of the unaudited financial statements:

"General responsibilities

The director is responsible for preparing the Director's Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law) including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" Section 1A (Small Entities). Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Director's declaration on unaudited financial statements

In relation to the financial statements comprising the Income Statement, the Statement of Financial Position, the Accounting Policies and the related notes:

The director approves these financial statements and confirms that they are responsible for them, including selecting the appropriate accounting policies, applying them consistently and making, on a reasonable and prudent basis, the judgements underlying them. They have been prepared on the going concern basis on the grounds that the company will continue in business.

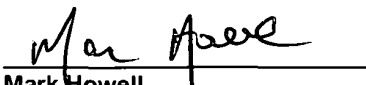

The director confirms that they have made available to Hugh McCarthy & Associates Chartered Certified Accountants, all the company's accounting records and provided all the information, books and documents necessary for the compilation of the financial statements.

The director confirms that to the best of their knowledge and belief, the accounting records reflect all the transactions of the company for the year ended 31 October 2017."

Special provisions relating to small companies

The above report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

On behalf of the board

Mark Howell
Director
