Business Review

The CIC has had a successful year following the Pandemic and recommenced its programme of activity to support challenged young people in May 2022.

The CIC has been successful in recruiting a range of new volunteer mentors from the local business community and has forged new relationships and collaborations with new supporters.

The year has been challenging at times, due to the fact that many young people have been used to a solitary existence during the Pandemic so the CIC has had to work hard to re-engage schools and find new ways of building confidence to take part in group sessions which has always been a fundamental part of Citizenship for Life, however the hard work has been worth it with young people reporting that the new programme is inspiring, motivating and stretching. The CIC has retained the freelance Co-Ordinator which is funded by the Fore (Bulldog Trust) grant.

Small companies provision statement

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to companies subject to the small companies regime within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Approved and authorised by the Board on 3.2.23 and signed on its behalf by:

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the surplus or deficit of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
