Unless the context otherwise requires words or expressions contained in the articles have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts but excluding any statutory modification not in force when this constitution becomes binding on the charity

Apart from the exception mentioned in the previous paragraph a reference to an Act of Parliament includes any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force

Liability of members

- 3 (1) The liability of the members is limited
- (2) Every member of the charity promises, if the charity is dissolved while he or she or it is a member or within twelve months after he or she or it ceases to be a member, to contribute such sum [not exceeding ten pounds (£10)] as may be demanded of him or her or it towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the charity incurred before he or she or it ceases to be a member, and of the costs charges and expenses of winding up, and the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves

Objects

- 4 The charity's objects ("Objects") are specifically restricted to the following
 - a) to relieve patients suffering from blood cancers, and their families and carers by the provision of funds for short breaks, holidays, and other such assistance
 - b) to provide financial assistance for research into the causes of, and possible cures for blood cancer diseases

Powers

5 The charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Object(s) or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the charity has power

(1) to raise funds. In doing so, the charity must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
(2) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use,
(3) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the charity In exercising this power, the power the charity must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 122 of the Charities Act 2011,
(4) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation. The charity must comply as appropriate with sections 124-126 of the Charities Act 2011, if it wishes to mortgage land,
(5) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and to exchange information and advice with them,
(6) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects,
(7) to acquire, merge with or to enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity,
(8) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves,
(9) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the charity. The charity may employ or remunerate a director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by article 6 and provided it complies with the conditions in that article,
(10) to
(a) deposit or invest funds,

(b) employ a professional fund-manager, and (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the charity to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000, (11) to provide indemnity insurance for the directors in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011, (12) to pay out of the funds of the charity the costs of forming and registering the charity both as a company and as a charity, Application of income and property The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects a) A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may be paid out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity b) A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expenses in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 1993 c) A director may receive an indemnity from the charity in the circumstances specified

in article 56

6(3)	None of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a director receiving
	a)	a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity,
	b)	reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity
Direct	ors' l	Benefits
6 4A	No	director or connected person may
	(a)	buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public,
	(b)	sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;
	(c)	be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity,
	(d)	receive any other financial benefit from the charity, unless:
		(1) the payment is permitted by article $6(4)(B)(a)$, or
		(11) the directors obtain the prior written approval of the Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes
		(iii) in the case of employment or remuneration as per 6(4)A (c) above the charity complies with the procedure set out in clause 6(5)
6 4B(a	a)
		(1) A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the directors do not benefit in this way

- (11) A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011
- (iii) Subject to article 6(4)(C) a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person
- (iv) A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be 2% (or more) per annum below the base rate of a clearing bank to be selected by the directors
- (v) A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper and provided that the director concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal of the rent of other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (vi) The directors may arrange for the purchase, out of the funds of the charity, of insurance designed to indemnify the directors in accordance with the terms of, and subject to the conditions in section 189 of the Charities Act 2011
- (vii) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public

Payment for supply of goods only - controls

- 6 4C The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by article 6 4B(a)(iii) if each of the following conditions is satisfied
 - (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between:
 - (1) The charity or its directors (as the case may be); and
 - (11) The director or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity

- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book
- (g) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 6 4A
- 6 5 The Charity and its Directors may only rely upon the authority provided by subclause 6(4)(A)(d)(111) if each of the following conditions is satisfied
 - (1) The remuneration or other sums paid to the Director do not exceed an amount that is reasonable in all the circumstances
 - (11) The Director is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of
 - his or her employment or remuneration, or any matter concerning the contract, or
 - his or her performance in the employment, or his or her performance of the contract, or
 - any proposal to enter into any other contract or arrangement with him or her or to confer any benefit upon him or her that would be permitted under sub-clause 6(4)(B)(a)(111), or
 - any other matter relating to a payment or the conferring of any benefit permitted by sub-clause 6(4)(B)(a)(m)
 - (III) The Director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting
 - (iv) The other Directors are satisfied that it is in the interests of the Charity to employ or to contract with that Director rather than with someone who is not a Director. In reaching that decision the Directors must balance the advantage of employing a Director against that disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the Director's services as a result of dealing with the Director's conflict of interest)

- (v) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Directors in the minute book
- (vi) A majority of the Directors then in office have received no such payments
- (b) The employment or remuneration of a Director includes the engagement or remuneration of any firm or company in which the Director is:
 - (1) a partner,
 - (11) an employee,
 - (111) a consultant;
 - (iv) a director; or
 - (v) a shareholder, unless the shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange and the Director holds less than 1% of the issued capital
- 6 6 (a) In sub-clauses 6 2-6 5 of this article 6 'charity' shall include any company in which the charity
 - holds more than 50% of the shares or
 - controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares, or
 - has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company,
 - (b) In sub-clauses 6 4, and 45 2 and 46 2,

'connected person'

means

(1) a child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister of the director,

- (11) the spouse or civil partner of the director or of any person falling within paragraph (1) above,
- (111) a person carrying on business in partnership with the director or with any person falling within paragraph (1) or (11) above,
- (iv) an institution which is controlled -

- (1) By the director or any connected person falling within paragraph (1), (11) or (111) above, or
- (II) By two or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (I), when taken together
- (v) a body corporate in which -
 - (I) the director or any connected person falling within paragraphs
 (i) to (iii) has a substantial interest, or
 - (II) two or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (I) who, when taken together, have a substantial interest.
- (c) In sub-clauses 6 2-6 5 of this article 6 "Director" shall include any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister or spouse of the Director or any person living with the Director as his or her partner

Members

- (2) Membership is open to other individuals or organisations who
 - (a) apply to the charity in the form required by the directors, and

- (b) are approved by the directors
- (3) (a) The directors may only refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the charity to refuse the application.
- (b) The directors must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one calendar days of the decision
- (c) The directors must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The directors' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final

(4) Membership is not transferable
(5) The directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the members
Classes of membership
8 (1) The directors may establish classes of membership with different rights and obligations and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of members
(2) The directors may not directly or indirectly alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership
(3) The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if
(a) three-quarters of the members of that class consent in writing to the variation, or
(b) a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class agreeing to the variation
(4) The provisions in the articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class of members
Termination of membership 9 Membership is terminated if
(1) the member dies or, if it is an organisation, ceases to exist,

- (2) the member resigns by written notice to the charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two members,
- (3) any sum due from the member to the charity is not paid in full within six months of it falling due,
- (4) the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the directors that it is in the best interests of the charity that his or her or its membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if
 - (a) the member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed,
 - (b) the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting

General meetings

- 10 (1) The charity must hold its first annual general meeting within eighteen months after the date of its incorporation
- (2) An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings

l l The directors may call a general meeting at any time.
Notice of general meetings 12 (1) The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the charity are (a) twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution,
(b) fourteen clear days for all other general meetings
(2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights
(3) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 19.
(4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors 13 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the charity Proceedings at general meetings
14 (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present

(2) A quorum is
(a) two members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting, or
(b) one tenth of the total membership at the time whichever is the greater
(3) The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum 15 (1) If
(a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or
(b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the directors shall determine.
(2) The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting
(3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting
16 (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors
(2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a director nominated by the directors shall chair the meeting

(3) If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting
(4) If no director is present or willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting
The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
(2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.
(3) No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place
(4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting
18 (1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded
(a) by the person chairing the meeting, or
(b) by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting, or
(c) by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting

	(a) The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded
	(b) The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded
	(a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting
	(b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made
	(a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.
	(b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
	(a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately
	(b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs
	(c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has be demanded

	If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be en specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken
	If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other iness that may be conducted at the meeting.

43 (1) The directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more directors but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book
(2) The directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that
(a) the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;
(b) no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the directors
(3) The directors may revoke or alter a delegation.

(4) All acts and proceedings	of any committees m	nust be fully and p	romptly reported to the directors

Declaration of directors' interests

44 A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest)

Conflicts of interests

- 45 (1) If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply
 - (a) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
 - (b) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting, and
 - (c) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying
- (2) In this article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person
