- (3) Subject to Article 6, none of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a Director from receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity; and/or
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.

Benefits and payments to Charity Directors and connected persons

- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Charity; or
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Charity, unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this Article, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.

In this Article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

Scope and powers permitting Directors' or connected persons' benefits

- (2) (a) A Director or connected person may receive a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity provided that a majority of the Directors do not benefit in this way.
- (b) A Director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this Article a Director or connected person may provide the Charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Charity by the Director or connected person.

The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The Director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A Director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Charity on the same terms as members of the public.
- (g) A Director or connected person may be employed by and receive reasonable and proper remuneration from the Charity only if all of the following conditions are met:
 - (i) the payment is made to any such Director in accordance with a written agreement between the Director and the Charity;

Payment for supply of goods only – controls

- (3) The Charity and its Directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this Article if all of the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the Charity or its Directors (as the case may be) and the Director or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier'), under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Charity;
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question;
 - (c) The other Directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Director or connected person. In reaching that decision the Directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a Director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so;
 - (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Charity;
 - (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting; and

A Director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Charity Directors, in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

8. (1) If a conflict of interests arises for a Director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles, the unconflicted Directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
- (a) the conflicted Director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
 - (b) the conflicted Director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting; and
 - (c) the unconflicted Directors consider it is in the interests of the Charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.
