If the Mortgagor is an individual the Mortgagor grants to such Receiver an irrevocable licence and power to use in connection with any business carried on at the Property all property of the Mortgagor at the Property when the Receiver is appointed and to remove, store, sell and/or dispose of any such property. The Receiver will account to the Lender for the proceeds of any sale of such property after deducting all costs and expenses incurred in the sale and that amount shall be a debt due from the Lender to the Mortgagor.
20. A Receiver shall apply all money he receives first in repayment of all money borrowed by him and his expenses and liabilities and in payment of his fees and secondly towards the remaining matters specified in section 109(8) of the Law of Property Act 1925.
21. The Mortgagor by way of security irrevocably and jointly and severally appoints the Lender and any Receiver(s) appointed by the Lender to be his attorney to take any action which the Mortgagor is obliged or authorised to take under this Legal Charge or any Credit Agreement including signing and executing such instruments and documents or issue or defend any proceedings which may be required by the Lender pursuant to this Legal Charge or the exercise of its powers and the Mortgagor ratifies and confirms whatever any attorney does or purports to do as a result of this appointment in good faith.

26. This security shall not be considered satisfied or discharged by any intermediate payment or the satisfaction of the whole or any part of the Liabilities but shall constitute a continuing security to the Lender (notwithstanding any settlement of account or other matter or action whatsoever) in respect of the Liabilities.
27. The powers conferred upon the Lender by this Legal Charge are in addition to all statutory and other powers conferred upon mortgagees.
28. The Lender may from time to time waive any breach of this Legal Charge or grant any time or indulgence to the Mortgagor without affecting the Lender's rights, powers or remedies.
