- 33.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution will be proposed; and
 - 33.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

 - 34.1.2 A ordinary shares of £0.10 each; and
 - 34.1.3 B ordinary shares of £0.10 each;
- and are each unlimited in number.
- 34.2 The ordinary shares shall, as between themselves, rank pari passu in all respects. The A ordinary shares shall, as between themselves, rank pari passu in all respects. The B ordinary shares shall, as between themselves, rank pari passu in all respects.
- 34.3 The ordinary shares shall:

 - 34.3.4 be transferable in accordance with the terms of these Articles.
- 34.4 The A ordinary shares shall:

 - 34.4.3 be entitled, as a priority, on a return of capital (including on a winding up) to the aggregate subscription price of the A ordinary shares (or any predecessor class if redesignated) and thereafter shall participate in any capital distributions pari passu with the ordinary shares and B ordinary shares;

34.4.4 be transferable in accordance with the terms of these Articles.

34.5 The B ordinary shares shall:

34.5.1 be non-voting;

34.7 Unless the shareholders have by ordinary resolution otherwise resolved, all powers of the company to grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares are excluded, save that the directors may grant options or rights under an employees' share scheme, approved by ordinary resolution of the shareholders.

34.8 The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

35 ALL SHARES TO BE FULLY PAID UP

35.1 Unless the company otherwise resolves by ordinary resolution, no share will be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.

35.2 This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum.

36 POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

36.1 Subject to the Articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.

36.2 The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

37 COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law, no person will be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the Articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

38 SHARE CERTIFICATES

38.1 The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.

38.2 Every certificate must specify:

38.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;

38.2.2 the nominal value of those shares;

38.2.3 whether the shares are fully paid; and 38.2.4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

39 REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

39.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is:

39.1.1 damaged or defaced; or

39.1.2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed; that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

39.2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:

39.2.1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;

39.2.2 must return the certificate to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and 39.2.3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

40 SHARE TRANSFERS

- 40.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
- 40.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- 40.3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 40.4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- 40.5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.
- 40.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, shares shall not be transferred without the prior written consent of the Investor.

41 PRE-EMPTION PROVISIONS

- 41.1 If a shareholder wishes to transfer shares (a "seller") he must serve notice on the directors (a "transfer notice") specifying the number of shares he wishes to transfer (the "sale shares"), details of the proposed transferee (if any) and whether he is willing to sell some only of these shares. Once a transfer notice is served, the seller cannot withdraw it other than in the circumstances described in Article 41.6 below.
- 41.2 If the directors and the seller agree a price then either the directors must procure the company buys all the sale shares within 28 days of agreeing the price or that they are offered to the other shareholders either immediately on agreeing the price or at the end of the 28 day period available to the company to make the purchase.
- 41.3 If the sale shares are offered to the other shareholders they must be offered to them in proportion to their existing holdings and if a shareholder doesn't wish to buy all of the shares offered to him then any balance(s) must be offered proportionately to the holdings to those who do. The directors have 28 days to carry out this offer process and obtain commitments to buy from shareholders. At the end of it, the seller must sell the sale shares to those who have committed to buy, unless he stated in the transfer notice that he was only willing to sell all the sale shares and he only has commitments for some of them.
- 41.4 If the seller and the directors cannot agree a price within 14 days of the transfer notice then either the directors or the seller may refer the matter of the price to an independent expert (which can be the auditors) whose identity and terms of appointment shall either be agreed between the seller and the directors or, if the identity and/or terms of appointment are not agreed on within the 14 day period, as nominated and/or decided (as the case may require) by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales following a referral from either the seller or the directors.

- 41.5 The expert shall act as an expert, their decision shall be final and binding and their costs shall, subject as provided below, be borne as they determine. The expert shall value the shares on an open market basis between a willing buyer and seller with no discount or enhancement for the proportion the sale shares bear to the total share capital of the company. The directors and the seller shall provide the expert on request with such information as is available to them to enable the expert to value the shares and the directors and the seller shall take all other steps as are reasonably available to them to enable the expert to carry out his duties under this Article.
- 41.6 The seller must, within 7 days from receipt of the expert's determination, by notice to the directors either accept the price so determined (at which point the price for the sale shares is agreed) or reject it (whereupon the sale process shall be at an end and the seller shall be responsible for all the expert's costs).
- 41.7 If the company or the existing shareholders have not committed to buy all the sale shares under Article 41.2 or Article 41.3 above, then the seller may transfer the balance or, if the seller stated in the original notice that he was only willing to sell all the shares and the directors only have commitments for some of them from existing shareholders, all the sale shares to the third party named in the transfer notice for a price not less than the agreed price during a subsequent 90 day period. The directors may require to be satisfied that the sale shares are transferred pursuant to a bona fide third party offer without any deduction, rebate or allowance whatsoever and if they are not so satisfied they may refuse to register the transfer.
- 41.8 The directors must register a transfer properly effected in accordance with the provisions of this Article and if the seller fails to execute any purchase contract with the company or share transfer necessary to implement the provisions of this Article 41, then the directors may authorise the company secretary or some other person to execute such document and receive any consideration monies due in trust for the seller and their receipt shall be a good discharge to the company or any other purchaser.

42 PERMITTED TRANSFERS

- 42.1 Article 41 will not apply to a transfer by an individual shareholder to:

- 42.1.1 a family member (being a husband or wife, civil partner or widow or widower of that shareholder and all their and the transferor's lineal descendants and ascendants); or
- 42.1.2 trustees of a trust in which only the individual shareholder and/or family members are beneficiaries or potential beneficiaries and from such trustees to the beneficiaries of the trust or to new trustees of the trust; and the directors shall forthwith register such transfer.

- 42.2 Article 41 will not apply to a transfer by a corporate shareholder to its group company and the directors shall forthwith register such transfer.

43 FORCED TRANSFERS

- 43.1 Where as a result of death, insolvency, the operation of law or otherwise the directors reasonably believe that a person has become entitled to a legal or beneficial interest in a share or shares that they did not have at the date of adoption of these Articles, otherwise than as a result of a transfer effected or permitted under Article 41 or Article 42 or a subsequent allotment to them of such share or shares, then the directors may serve notice on such person requiring them to relinquish or transfer such interest to the person from whom such interest was derived or to a person to whom that person could transfer such share or shares under Article 42. If no such disposition takes place within the period reasonably specified in the circumstances by the directors in the notice (such period not exceeding six months) then, unless the directors otherwise agree, a notice under Article 41 will be deemed to have been served in respect of such share or shares, accepting whatever price shall be determined by an independent expert selected by the directors and with no right of transfer to a third party.
- 43.2 In the event that following a transfer or transfers permitted under Article 42.2, a transferee company holding the shares or any of them ceases to be a group company with the original corporate shareholder then the directors may serve notice on such company under Article 41.1.
- 43.3 If an employee or director of the company who holds shares or would do but for the operation of Article 42.1 ceases for any cause (other than death, permanent incapacity or having reached normal retirement age) to be such a director or employee without remaining or becoming a director or employee of the company or any other of its group companies, then unless the directors otherwise agree a notice will be deemed to have been served on such person (and any other person who has received shares directly or indirectly from them pursuant to Article 42.1) in accordance with the last sentence of Article 43.1.
- 43.4 The directors may at any time require any person who appears to them to hold an interest in shares or is named as a proposed transferee to provide them with information to enable them to satisfy themselves that the provisions of these Articles are being complied with. If such information is not provided to the satisfaction of the directors within any reasonable time stated by them then they shall be entitled to refuse to register any related transfer or serve a notice under Article 43.1.

44 TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 44.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
- 44.2 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:

44.2.1 may, subject to the Articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person; and 44.2.2 subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

44.3 But transmittes do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

45 EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

45.1 Transmittes who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

45.2 If the transmittes wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittes must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

45.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article will be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittes has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

46 TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittes is entitled to those shares, the transmittes is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittes's name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

47 PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

47.1 Unless the shareholders by ordinary resolution otherwise resolve, the directors may declare and pay dividends.

47.2 Any dividend resolved to be declared by the shareholders must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

47.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.

47.4 Unless a shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to declare and pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

47.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.

47.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

47.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

48 PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

48.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid or settled by one or more of the following means:

48.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

48.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

48.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or 48.1.4 any other means of payment or settlement as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.

48.2 In the Articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

48.2.1 the holder of the share; or

48.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or 48.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

49 UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

49.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

49.1.1 payable in respect of shares; and

49.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable;

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

49.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

49.3 If:

49.3.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and

49.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it;

the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

50 NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

50.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

50.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

50.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;

50.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and 50.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

51 WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

51.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:

51.1.1 the share has more than one holder; or

51.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

52 PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

52.1 The company is authorised under section 692(1ZA) of the Act in any financial year to purchase with cash its own shares out of capital up to an aggregate purchase price amount of £15,000, or, if lower, the nominal value of 5% of the company's fully paid share capital as at the beginning of the financial year.

52.2 The company shall immediately cancel any shares acquired under Part 18 of the Act.

53 LEAVERS

53.1 Where a shareholder is a Leaver (the "Outgoing Shareholder"), the Investor shall be entitled to purchase any shares (including ordinary shares or B ordinary shares) from the Outgoing Shareholder at market value. In the event that the Investor declines to exercise this right, the company (or its nominee) shall be entitled to purchase the B ordinary shares from the Outgoing Shareholder at market value.

53.2 Where the Investor or the company (or its nominee) (together the "Purchaser") intends to exercise their right pursuant to Article 53.1 they shall give a notice (the "Purchase Notice") in writing to the Outgoing Shareholder setting out the number (and class) of shares they intend to acquire, the identity of the acquiring party if a nominee is to acquire the shares, the proposed date of acquisition and the company's assessment of the market value of those shares to be acquired.

53.3 The Outgoing Shareholder shall have 10 business days to notify the Purchaser if it does not accept the market value in the Purchase Notice. If the Outgoing Shareholder does not respond, they shall be deemed to have accepted the market value as set out in the Purchase Notice. If the Outgoing Shareholder does not accept the market value, the Outgoing Shareholder and the Purchaser shall use reasonable endeavours to try to agree the market value within 5 business days of the date upon which the Outgoing Shareholder notifies the Purchaser that the market value is not accepted. If the parties cannot come to an agreement within the period the market value shall be calculated in accordance with Articles 41.4 and 41.5.

53.4 Within 20 business days of determination of the market value, the Outgoing Shareholder shall deliver to the Purchaser their original share certificate in respect of the shares being acquired (or a suitable indemnity in lieu thereof) and the Purchaser shall pay the Outgoing Shareholder the market value for the shares being purchased.

53.5 If the Outgoing Shareholder shall fail to deliver the share certificates (or suitable indemnity) for the shares to the Purchaser upon the expiration of the relevant 20 business day period, the board shall authorise any director to transfer the shares on the Outgoing Shareholders' behalf to the Purchaser to the extent the Purchaser has, at the expiration of that 20 business day period, the funds to pay the consideration for the shares. The board shall then authorise registration of the transfer once appropriate stamp duty (if any) has been paid. The Outgoing Shareholder shall surrender the share certificate(s) for the shares (or provide a suitable indemnity) to the Purchaser and on surrender, the Outgoing Shareholder shall be entitled to and shall receive the amount due to them under this Article. Any funds held by the company to purchase the shares shall be held by the company at all times in trust for the Outgoing Shareholder.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

54 AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

54.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

54.1.1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and 54.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

54.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:

54.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled; and 54.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

54.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares (or unpaid amounts on existing shares) of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

54.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

54.5 Subject to the Articles the directors may:

54.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs 54.3 and 54.4 partly in one way and partly in another;

54.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and 54.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this Article.

Part 5: ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

55 MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

55.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which Act provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company.

55.2 Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

55.3 A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

56 COMPANY SEALS

56.1 Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the directors.

56.2 The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal will be used.

56.3 Unless otherwise decided by the directors, if the company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

56.4 For the purposes of this Article, an authorised person is:

56.4.1 any director of the company;

56.4.2 the company secretary (if any); or 56.4.3 any person authorised by the directors for the purpose of signing documents to which the common seal is applied.

57 NO RIGHT TO INSPECT ACCOUNTS AND OTHER RECORDS

Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a shareholder.

58 PROVISION FOR EMPLOYEES ON CESSATION OF BUSINESS

The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary.

DIRECTORS' INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

59 INDEMNITY

59.1 Subject to paragraph 59.2, a relevant director of the company or an associated company may be indemnified out of the company's assets against:

59.1.1 any liability incurred by that director in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company or an associated company,

- 59.1.2 any liability incurred by that director in connection with the activities of the company or an associated company in his capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in section 235(6) of the Act); and
 - 59.1.3 any other liability incurred by that director as an officer of the company or an associated company.
- 59.2 This Article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Act or by any other provision of law.
- 59.3 In this Article:

- 60 INSURANCE
- 60.1 The directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the company, for the benefit of any relevant director in respect of any relevant loss.
- 60.2 In this Article:
