This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

Celebrating and promoting the North-East of England through its traditional music, song, dance, heritage and the arts. We have promoted the region's culture through concerts, youth training schemes, establishing a web-based agency, participating in consultations, lobbying activities, commissioning new works and collaborations, tuition in schools and providing opportunities for local artists. This has benefited the community by raising awareness of our culture, creating a sense of belonging, adding to the repertoire of work, providing entertainment and providing work for local artists as well as raising the profile of our traditional heritage.

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

We continually consult with stakeholders, including artists, schools, those who wish to learn the region's traditions, those who wish to use and/or put on performances of those traditions and our heritage. Consultation takes place both by correspondence and face to face. The company has responded in the way it shapes and delivers its activities and prioritises its actions.

PART 3 – DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION – if you have provided full details in your accounts you need not reproduce it here. Please clearly identify the information within the accounts and confirm that, "There were no other transactions or arrangements in connection with the remuneration of directors, or compensation for director's loss of office, which require to be disclosed" (See example with full notes). If no remuneration was received, you must state that "no remuneration was received" below.

No remuneration was received by either director from the assets of the company.

PART 4 – TRANSFERS OF ASSETS OTHER THAN FOR FULL CONSIDERATION – Please insert full details of any transfers of assets other than for full consideration e.g. Donations to outside bodies. If this does not apply you must state that "no transfer of assets other than for full consideration has been made" below.

No transfer of assets other than for full consideration has been made
