5. APPLICATION OF INCOME AND PROPERTY

5.1 The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

5.1.1 A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity;

5.1.2 A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to, the conditions in Section 189 of the Charities Act 2011;

5.1.3 A director may receive an indemnity from the Charity in the circumstances specified in Article 32;

5.1.4 A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by Article 6.

5.2 Subject to Article 6, none of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to the Sole Member. This does not prevent the Sole Member receiving:

5.2.1 a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity;

5.2.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.

6. BENEFITS AND PAYMENTS TO CHARITY DIRECTORS AND CONNECTED PERSONS

6.1 General Provisions

No director or connected person may:

6.1.1 buy any goods or services from the Charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

6.1.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Charity;

6.1.3 be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Charity;

6.1.4 receive any other financial benefit from the Charity;

unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause 6.2 of this article, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.

In this article a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

6.2 Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

6.2.1 A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity, provided that a majority of the directors do not benefit in this way.

6.2.2 A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to, the condition in Sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011.

6.2.3 Subject to sub-clause 6.3 of this Article, a director or connected person may provide the Charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Charity by the director or connected person.

6.2.4 A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

6.2.5 A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the Charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

- 6.2.6 A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Charity on the same terms as members of the public.
- 6.3 Payment for supply of goods only - controls
- 6.3.1 The Charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 6.2.3 of this Article 6 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:
- 6.3.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the Charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods ("the Supplier") under which the Supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Charity.
- 6.3.3 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- 6.3.4 The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- 6.3.5 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Charity.
- 6.3.6 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.
- 6.3.7 The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.
- 6.3.8 A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by Article 6.
- 6.4 In sub-clauses 6.2 and 6.3 of this article:
- 6.4.1 "Charity" includes any company in which the Charity:
- 6.4.1.1 holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - 6.4.1.2 controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - 6.4.1.3 has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company.

6.4.2 "Connected Person" includes any person within the definition in Article 36 "Interpretation".

7. DECLARATION OF DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Charity directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including, but not limited to, any personal financial interest).

8. CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS AND CONFLICTS OF LOYALTIES

8.1 If a conflict of interest arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

8.1.1 the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

8.1.2 the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and

8.1.3 the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the Charity to authorise the conflict of interest in the circumstances applying.

8.2 In this Article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.

12.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by the Sole Member.

12.3 The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under Section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and Article 14.

12.4 The notice must be given to the Sole Member and to the directors and auditors.

A quorum is 1 (one) person entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted (being the Sole Member, a proxy or a duly authorised representative of the Sole Member) shall constitute a quorum.

13.2 If:

- 13.4 General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors.
- 13.5 If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, a director nominated by the directors shall chair the meeting.
- 13.6 If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.
- 13.7 If no director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the Sole Member must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 13.8 The Sole Member may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- 13.9 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.
- 13.10 No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- 13.11 If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the Sole Member for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
- 13.12 Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:

- 13.12.3

- 13.13.4 if the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

13.14

13.14.1 a poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.

13.14.2 the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

13.15

13.15.1 a poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

13.15.2 a poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.

13.15.3 the poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded.

13.15.4 if the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

14.2 The Charity may require proxy notice to be delivered in a particular form and may specify different forms for different purposes.

14.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

14.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

14.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

14.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

15. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

15.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Charity by or on behalf of that person.

15.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of a person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

15.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of a meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

15.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

16. WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

17. VOTES FOR MEMBERS

17.1 The Sole Member may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Charity.

17.2 The Sole Member must give written notice to the Charity of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the Charity. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Charity.

17.3 Any notice given to the Charity will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Charity shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation.

18. DIRECTORS

18.1 A director must be a natural person aged 16 (sixteen) years or older.

18.2 No one may be appointed a director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provision of Article 21 (Appointment of Directors).

21.4 The directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director.

21.5 A director appointed by a resolution of the other directors must retire at the next annual general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation.

21.6 The appointment of a director, whether by the Charity in general meeting or by the other directors, must not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of directors.
