PART 2: DIRECTORS AND COMPANY SECRETARY

Directors' Powers and Responsibilities

4. Directors' general authority

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

5. Shareholders' reserve power

5.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

5.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. Delegation to Directors

6.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles –

- a) to such person or committee;
- b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
- c) to such an extent;
- d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
- e) on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

Decision-making by Directors

7. Directors to take decision collectively

7.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in writing in accordance with article 8.

7.2 If –

- a) the company only has one director;
- b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

8. Decisions in writing

8.1 A decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

- a) references in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- b) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. Calling a directors' meeting

9.1 The Company Secretary shall call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors.

Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate –

- a) its proposed date and time;
- b) where it is to take place; and
- c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

9.2 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

9.3 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. Participation in directors' meetings

10.1 Directors participating in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when

- a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

10.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is relevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

10.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place where any of them may be.

11. Quorum for directors' meeting

- 11.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 11.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.
- 11.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than one –
 - a) to appoint further directors; or
 - b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.
- 11.4 If and for so long as the Company only has a sole director the quorum for the transaction of the business of the director at a meeting of directors shall be one.

12. Change of name

The Company may change its name by resolution of the board.

- 13.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- 13.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 13.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

14. Casting vote

- 14.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
- 14.2 This does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. Alternative Directors

- 15.1 Any director (the "appointor") may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by a decision of the directors, to:-

 - iii) are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors;
 - iv) are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors;

 - i) may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointor is not participating); and
 - ii) may sign or otherwise signify his agreement in writing to such written resolution).
- No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.
- 15.4 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the remuneration payable to that alternate's appointor as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the Company.

- a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
 - b) general meetings, or
 - c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.
- 15.6 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates;-
- a) when his appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
 - b) on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor would result in the termination of the appointor's office as director;
 - c) on the death of his appointor; or
 - d) when his appointor's appointment as a director terminates.
- 15.7 Alternates voting at directors' meetings
- a) a director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointor who is;-

- i) not participating in a directors' meeting and
- ii) would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it.

15.8 Conflicts of interest

- a) If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.
- b) But if 15.3 applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.

This paragraph applies when –

- i) the Company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;

29.6 If a forfeiture notice is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the forfeiture notice, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

29.7 a) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes:

30. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

- 33.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

- 35.1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish.
- 35.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 35.3 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

36. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of share and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's one has been entered in the register of members.

Dividends and other Distributions

37. Procedure for declaring dividends

- 37.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

- b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

41. Non-cash distributions

41.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
