DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

9. Directors to take decisions collectively

(a) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 10

(b) If

(i) the company only has one director, and

- (b) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other
- (c) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is. In the absence of such a decision, the meeting is deemed to take place at the location from where the chairman participates

13. Quorum for directors' meetings

- (a) At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting
