DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' GENERAL POWERS, DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4 Directors' general powers

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company

5 Shareholders' reserve power and effect of altering the articles

- (a) The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action
- (b) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution
- (c) No alteration of the articles invalidates anything which the directors have done before the alteration

6. Directors' duties

- (a) The purpose of the Company
 - (i) may, if and to the extent that the directors consider it appropriate, and
 - (ii) shall, if directed by the holders of the majority of the ordinary shares of the Company by notice in writing to the Company, include promoting the success of the group as a whole or of any one or more members of the group (and in this context group means the Company, any other body corporate which is its holding company or subsidiary and any other body corporate which is a subsidiary of that holding company)

- (b) In the exercise of his duties, a director who is also a director of any holding company of the Company shall owe a strict duty of confidentiality to that holding company in relation to confidential information of the holding company but, subject to this, a director shall not be restricted by any duty of confidentiality to the Company from providing information regarding the Company to a holding company of the Company

7 Directors may delegate

- (a) Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles

- (v) on such terms and conditions,
as they think fit
- (b) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated
- (c) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole, or part, or alter its terms and conditions

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8 Directors to take decisions collectively

- (a) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 9
- (b) If
 - (i) the Company only has one director, and
 - (ii) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director,

the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making

9 Unanimous decisions

- (a) A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter
- (b) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, at least one copy of which has been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing
- (c) A resolution in writing signed by an alternate director need not also be signed by or agreed to by his appointor
- (d) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting
- (e) In this article something being signed includes it being approved by letter, facsimile, telegram, telex or electronic signature (as defined in section 7 of the Electronic Communications Act 2000) provided that, in the case of an electronic signature, the Company has no reason to doubt the authenticity of the electronic signature

10 Calling a directors' meeting

- (a) Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the secretary (if any) to give such notice
- (b) Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate
 - (i) its proposed date and time,
 - (ii) where it is to take place, and

- (iii) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting
- (c) Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director but need not be in writing
- (d) Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

11. Participation in directors' meetings

- (a) Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when
 - (i) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - (ii) they can each communicate to each other any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting
- (b) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other
- (c) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

12. Quorum for directors' meetings

- (a) At a directors' meeting unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on except a proposal to call another meeting
- (b) The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must, unless only one eligible director is in the office, never be less than two eligible directors, and, unless otherwise fixed, it is two eligible directors

13. Chairing of directors' meetings

- (a) The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- (b) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- (c) The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- (d) If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors may appoint one of themselves to chair it

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

14. Directors' interests in relation to transactions or arrangements with the Company

The relevant provisions of the Act (including without limitation sections 177 and 182 of the Act) shall apply in relation to declarations of interests in proposed and existing transactions or arrangements with the Company

15. Directors' interests other than in relation to transactions or arrangements with the Company

- (a) If a situation (a relevant situation) arises in which a director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the Company could take advantage of it but excluding any situation which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest) the following provisions shall apply if the conflict of interest does not arise in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Company
- (i) if the relevant situation arises from the appointment or proposed appointment of a person as a director of the Company
- (A) the directors (other than the director, and any other director with a similar interest, who shall not be counted in the quorum at the meeting and shall not vote on the resolution), or
- (B) the shareholders (by ordinary resolution or by notice in writing given to the Company by the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares of the Company),
- may resolve to authorise the appointment of the director and the relevant situation on such terms as they may determine,
- (ii) if the relevant situation arises in circumstances other than in paragraph (i)
- (A) the directors (other than the director and any other director with a similar interest who shall not be counted in the quorum at the meeting and shall not vote on the resolution), or
- (B) the shareholders (by ordinary resolution or by notice in writing given to the Company by the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares of the Company),
- may resolve to authorise the relevant situation and the continuing performance by the director of his duties on such terms as they may determine
- (b) Any reference in paragraph (a) to a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties
- (c) Any terms determined by the directors or the shareholders under paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) may be imposed at the time of the authorisation or may be imposed or varied subsequently by either the directors or the shareholders and may include (without limitation)
- (i) whether the interested directors may vote (and be counted in the quorum at any meeting) in relation to any decision relating to the relevant situation,
- (ii) the exclusion of the interested directors from all information and discussion by the Company of the relevant situation, and
- (iii) (without prejudice to the general obligations of confidentiality) the application to the interested directors of a strict duty of confidentiality to the Company for any confidential information of the Company in relation to the relevant situation
- (d) Any authorisation given under paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) may be withdrawn by either the directors or the shareholders by giving notice to the director concerned

- (e) An interested director must act in accordance with any terms determined by the directors or the shareholders under paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii)
- (f) Except as specified in paragraph (a), any proposal made to the directors and any authorisation by the directors in relation to a relevant situation shall be dealt with in the same way as any other matter may be proposed to and decided by the directors in accordance with the articles
- (g) Any authorisation of a relevant situation given by the directors or the shareholders under paragraph (a) may provide that, where the interested director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the Company or to use it in relation to the Company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence
- (h) If the directors make an authorisation under paragraph (a), impose or vary the terms of an authorisation under paragraph (c), or withdraw an authorisation under paragraph (d), they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the shareholders of this fact and provide, where applicable, any relevant particulars regarding the authorisation or its terms
- (i) If the shareholders make an authorisation under paragraph (a), impose or vary the terms of an authorisation under paragraph (c), or withdraw an authorisation under paragraph (d), they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the directors of this fact and provide, where applicable, any relevant particulars regarding the authorisation or its terms
- (j) A director shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, declare the nature and extent of his interest in a relevant situation within paragraph (a)(i) or (a)(ii) to the other directors and the shareholders. Failure to comply with this requirement does not affect the underlying duty to make the declaration of interest
- (k) If a declaration of interest in relation to a relevant situation proves to be, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, a further declaration must be made

16. Directors' interests generally and voting

- (a) Subject to the Act and to articles 14 and 15, a director notwithstanding his office
 - (i) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested,
 - (ii) may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (except as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration as if he were not a director,
 - (iii) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to, any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested, and
 - (iv) shall not, by reason of his office (or of the fiduciary relationship established by holding that office), be accountable to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit resulting from any relevant situation authorised under article 15 or any interest permitted under paragraphs (a)(i), (a)(ii), or (a)(iii), and no contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any director having an interest authorised under article 15 or permitted under paragraphs (a)(i), (a)(ii), or (a)(iii)
- (b) Subject to articles 14 and 15 and to any contrary direction from the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares in the Company, a director shall be entitled to vote on any decision concerning any matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or a duty

- (c) In the case of an alternate director, an interest of his appointor shall be treated as an interest of the alternate in addition to any interest which the alternate otherwise has
- (d) Subject to the Act, the Company may, by ordinary resolution or by notice in writing given to the Company by the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares of the Company, suspend or relax the provisions of this article to any extent or ratify any contract, transaction or arrangement not duly authorised by reason of a contravention of this article
- (e) Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to offices or employments with the Company or to any body corporate in which the Company is interested, the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately and (provided he is not otherwise precluded from voting) each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote in respect of each proposal except that concerning his own appointment
- (f) Subject to paragraph (g), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting and quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman, whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive
- (g) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting and quorum purposes

17. Casting vote

- (a) If at a directors' meeting the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote
- (b) But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not an eligible director for the purpose of that meeting (or part of the meeting)

18. Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least ten years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors

- (g) notice of his removal is given, in accordance with article 22

22. Appointment and termination of appointments of directors by majority shareholders

The holders of the majority of the ordinary shares in the Company may appoint any person as a director and may remove any director. No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes
