APPEAL AGAINST POTENTIAL LATE FILING FINE.

I did not receive your previous notice of dated 18/04/2020 to the registered office as I could not visit the registered address since the lock down to prevent spread of covid19. I have receive the final notice to my home address. However, my wife is on the COVID At Risk register and the Hospital Doctor recommended her to observe Strict (not to leave house) prolonged social isolation for at least 12 weeks (till end of June). I am a self-employed person and cannot go out for work. I have no income currently. Please consider my appeal under this corona virus situation and waive any potential late filing fine.

Best regards,
