- 1.4 References to any statutory provision or statute include all modifications thereto and all re-enactments (with or without modification) thereof and all subordinate legislation made thereunder in each case for the time being in force, unless expressly stated otherwise. This article 1.4 does not affect the interpretation of article 1.2.
- 1.5 A member is “present” at a meeting if the member (being an individual) attends (otherwise than by his duly appointed proxy) or if the member (being a corporation) attends by its duly authorised corporate representative or if the member attends by his duly appointed proxy.
- 1.6 The ejusdem generis principle of construction shall not apply. Accordingly, general words shall not be given a restrictive meaning by reason of their being preceded or followed by words indicating a particular class of acts, matters or things or by examples falling within the general words.
- 1.7 The headings in the articles do not affect their interpretation or construction.
- 1.8 In the articles, words importing one gender shall include each gender and a reference to a “spouse” shall include a reference to a civil partner under the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

- 1.9 No regulations or model articles contained in any statute or subordinate legislation, including those contained in the Model Articles, apply as the articles of association of the Company.

2. Private company status and liability of members

- 2.1 The Company is a private company limited by shares and accordingly any offer to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the Company is prohibited.
- 2.2 The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Act and the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

4. Members' reserve power and effect of altering articles

- 4.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.
- 4.3 No alteration of the articles invalidates anything which the directors have done prior to the alteration.

5. Directors may delegate

- 5.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

5.1.1 to such person or committee consisting of one or more directors;

5.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney or otherwise);

5.1.3 to such an extent;

5.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

5.1.5 on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

- 5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3 Where a provision in the articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the directors and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the directors to a committee or a member of a committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee or a member of a committee.
- 5.4 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.
- 6. Committees
- 6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 7.1 Subject to article 7.2, decisions of the directors must be taken:
- 7.1.1 at a directors' meeting; or
- 7.1.2 in the form of a directors' written resolution in accordance with article 15.
- 7.2 If:
- 7.2.1 the Company only has one director for the time being; and
- 7.2.2 the provisions of article 19 do not require it to have more than one director, the director may (for so long as he remains the sole director) exercise all the powers conferred on the directors by the articles by any means permitted under the Act. For the purpose of article 10, the quorum for the transaction of business by a sole director is one, and all other provisions of the articles apply with any necessary modification (unless a provision expressly provides otherwise).

8. Calling a directors' meeting

- 8.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 8.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
  - 8.2.1 its proposed date and time;
  - 8.2.2 where it is to take place; and
  - 8.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 8.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director and may (but need not) be in writing.
- 8.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to a director who waives his entitlement to receive notice of that meeting by giving notice to that effect to the Company at any time prior to or after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

9. Participation in directors' meetings

- 9.1 Subject to the articles, directors "participate" in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
  - 9.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
  - 9.1.2 each director can communicate to the others any information or opinions he has on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 9.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how the directors communicate with each other.
- 9.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

10. Quorum for directors' meetings

- 10.1 Subject to article 10.3, at a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 10.2 Subject always to article 7.2, the quorum for the transaction of business at a directors' meeting may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors and unless otherwise fixed it is two.
- 10.3 Subject always to article 7.2, if the total number of directors for the time being in office is less than the quorum required for directors' meetings, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:
  - 10.3.1 to appoint further directors; or
  - 10.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

11. Chairing directors' meetings

- 11.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 11.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the "chairman".
- 11.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 11.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors may appoint one of themselves to chair it.

12. Voting by directors

- 12.1 Subject to the articles, a decision is taken at a directors' meeting by a majority of votes of participating directors.
- 12.2 Subject to the articles, each director participating at a directors' meeting has one vote.
- 12.3 Without prejudice to the obligation of a director to disclose his interest in accordance with article 16, a director may vote at any directors' meeting or meeting of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in relation to which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty, subject always to article 16 and the terms on which such authorisation is given. Subject to the foregoing, the relevant director shall be counted in the quorum present at a meeting when any such resolution is under consideration and if he votes his vote shall be counted.

12.4 Subject to article 12.5, if a question arises at a directors' meeting or meeting of a committee of directors as to the right of any director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

12.5 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

13. Chairman's casting vote at directors' meetings

13.1 If the numbers of votes at a directors' meeting for and against a proposal are equal (ignoring any votes which are to be discounted in accordance with the articles, section 175(6) of the Act or pursuant to the terms of any authorisation given under section 175 of the Act), the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

13.2 Article 13.1 shall not apply in respect of a particular meeting (or part of a meeting) if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

14. Proposing a directors' written resolution

14.1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution.

14.2 The company secretary (if any) must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests.

14.3 A directors' written resolution is proposed by giving notice of the resolution to the directors.

15. Adoption of directors' written resolutions

15.1 A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when all the directors who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution at a directors' meeting have signed one or more copies of it or have otherwise indicated their agreement in writing to it, provided that those directors would have formed a quorum at such a meeting. A director indicates his agreement in writing to a proposed directors' written resolution when the Company receives from him an authenticated document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating the director's agreement to the resolution, in accordance with section 1146 of the Act. Once a director has so indicated his agreement, it may not be revoked.

- 15.2 A written resolution signed by an alternate director (or to which an alternate director otherwise indicates his agreement in writing) need not also be signed by his appointor and, if it is signed by his appointor (or his appointor otherwise indicates his agreement to it in writing), it need not be signed by the alternate director in that capacity.
- 15.3 A director may sign or otherwise indicate his agreement to the written resolution before or after the time by which the notice proposed that it should be adopted.
- 15.4 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the articles.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

16. Directors' interests

16.1 Group companies

A director shall be authorised for the purposes of section 175 of the Act to act or continue to act as a director of the Company notwithstanding that at the time of his appointment or subsequently he also:

- 16.1.1 holds office as a director of any other group company;
- 16.1.2 holds any other office or employment with any other group company;
- 16.1.3 participates in any scheme, transaction or arrangement for the benefit of the employees or former employees of the Company or any other group company (including any pension fund or retirement, death or disability scheme or other bonus or employee benefit scheme); or
- 16.1.4 is interested directly or indirectly in any shares or debentures (or any rights to acquire shares or debentures) in the Company or any other group company.

16.2 Directors' interests other than in relation to transactions or arrangements with the Company - authorisation under section 175 of the Act

16.2.1 The directors may authorise any matter proposed to them which would, if not so authorised, involve a breach of duty by a director under section 175 of the Act.

16.2.2 Any authorisation under article 16.2.1 will be effective only if:

- (a) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other director interested in the matter under consideration; and
- (b) the matter was agreed to without such directors voting or would have been agreed to if such directors' votes had not been counted.

16.2.3 The directors may give any authorisation under article 16.2.1 upon such terms as they think fit. The directors may vary or terminate any such authorisation at any time.

16.2.4 For the purposes of this article 16, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and interest includes both direct and indirect interests.

16.3 Confidential information and attendance at directors' meetings

16.3.1 A director shall be under no duty to the Company with respect to any information which he obtains or has obtained otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person. In particular the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act if he:

- (a) fails to disclose any such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of, or consultant to, the Company; or
- (b) does not use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director of the Company.

However, to the extent that his relationship with that other person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, this article 16.3.1 applies only if the existence of that relationship has been authorised pursuant to article 16.1, authorised by the directors pursuant to article 16.2 or authorised by the members (subject, in any such case, to any terms upon which such authorisation was given).

16.3.2 Where the existence of a director's relationship with another person has been authorised pursuant to article 16.1, authorised by the directors pursuant to article 16.2 or authorised by the members and his relationship with that person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to

177 of the Act if at his discretion or at the request or direction of the directors or any committee of directors he:

- (a) absents himself from a directors' meeting or a meeting of a committee of directors at which any matter relating to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest will or may be discussed or from the discussion of any such matter at a directors' meeting or otherwise; or
- (b) makes arrangements not to receive documents and information relating to any matter which gives rise to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest sent or supplied by or on behalf of the Company or for such documents and information to be received and read by a professional adviser on his behalf, for so long as he reasonably believes such conflict of interest (or possible conflict of interest) subsists.

16.3.3 The provisions of articles 16.3.1 and 16.3.2 are without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse the director from:

- (a) disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required under the articles; or
- (b) attending meetings or discussions or receiving documents and information as referred to in article 16.3.2, in circumstances where such attendance or receiving such documents and information would otherwise be required under the articles.

16.4 Declaration of interests in proposed or existing transactions or arrangements with the Company

16.4.1 A director who is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature and extent of his interest to the other directors before the Company enters into the transaction or arrangement.

16.4.2 A director who is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or arrangement that has been entered into by the Company shall declare the nature and extent of his interest to the other directors as soon as is reasonably practicable, unless the interest has already been declared under article 16.4.1.

16.4.3 Any declaration required by article 16.4.1 may (but need not) be made:

- (a) at a directors' meeting;

- (b) by notice in writing in accordance with section 184 of the Act;
or
- (c) by general notice in accordance with section 185 of the Act.

16.4.4 Any declaration required by article 16.4.2 must be made:

- (a) at a directors' meeting;
- (b) by notice in writing in accordance with section 184 of the Act;
or
- (c) by general notice in accordance with section 185 of the Act.

16.4.5 If a declaration made under article 16.4.1 or 16.4.2 proves to be, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, a further declaration must be made under article 16.4.1 or 16.4.2 as appropriate.

16.4.6 A director need not declare an interest under this article 16:

- (a) if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
- (b) if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware);
- (c) if, or to the extent that, it concerns terms of his service contract that have been or are to be considered by a directors' meeting or by a committee of the directors appointed for the purpose under the articles; or
- (d) if the director is not aware of his interest or is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question (and for this purpose a director is treated as being aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware).

16.5 Ability to enter into transactions and arrangements with the Company notwithstanding interest

16.5.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act and provided that he has declared the nature and extent of any direct or indirect interest of his in accordance with this article 16 or where article 16.4.6 applies and no declaration of interest is required or where article 16.1 applies, a director notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may be a party to, or otherwise be interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is directly or indirectly interested;
- (b) may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor), and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the directors may decide; or
- (c) may be a director or other officer of, or employed or engaged by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise be interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is directly or indirectly interested.

16.6 Remuneration and benefits

A director shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefit which he derives from any office or employment or engagement or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate:

16.6.1 the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been authorised pursuant to article 16.1, authorised by the directors pursuant to article 16.2 or authorised by the members pursuant to article 16.5.1 (subject, in any such case, to any terms upon which such authorisation was given); or

16.6.2 which he is permitted to hold or enter into pursuant to article 16.5.1 or otherwise pursuant to the articles, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Act. No transaction or arrangement authorised or permitted pursuant to article 16.1, 16.2, or 16.5.1 or otherwise pursuant to the articles shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.

17. Interests of alternate directors

For the purposes of articles 12 and 16, in relation to an alternate director, the interest of his appointor is treated as the interest of the alternate director in addition to any interest which the alternate director otherwise has. Articles 12 and 16 apply to an alternate director as if he were a director of the Company.

in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

39. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a member in respect of shares and a transmittee (or any person nominated by the transmittee under article 37.2) is entitled to those shares, the transmittee (and any person nominated by the transmittee under article 37.2) is bound by the notice if it was given to the member before the transmittee's name, or the name of any person nominated under article 37.2, has been entered in the register of members.

- 42.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with members' respective rights.
- 42.4 Unless the members' resolution to declare or the directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each member's holding of shares in the class in respect of which the dividend is paid on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 42.5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- 42.6 Subject to the Act, the directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

43. Calculation of dividends

- 43.1 Subject to article 44.1, and except as otherwise provided by the articles or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be:
- 43.1.1 declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; and
- 43.1.2 apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid.
- 43.2 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.

- 43.3 For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.

44. Payment of dividends and other distributions

Subject to the Act, the directors' general and fiduciary duties owed to the Company and all other applicable law and regulation, any amounts that are distributed to the Company from a subsidiary of the Company that the Board of Managers of Hopmeadow Holdings GP LLC intends to be distributed to members of the Company shall be distributed promptly to the members of the Company in the proportion to the number of outstanding shares held by each member. 46.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

46.3 If:

46.3.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and

46.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

47. Non-cash distributions

47.1 Subject to article 44.1, and subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including shares or other securities in any company).

47.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

47.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;

47.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and

48. Waiver of distributions

48.1 Subject to article 44.1, a distribution recipient may waive his entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if:

48.1.1 the share has more than one holder; or

48.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

49. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

49.1 Subject to the articles and the Act, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

49.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

49.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:

49.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled; and

49.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

49.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

49.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

49.5 Subject to the articles, the directors may:

49.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 49.3 and 49.4 partly in one way and partly in another;

- 59.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:
  - 59.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors; and
  - 59.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 59.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it:
  - 59.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given; and
  - 59.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 59.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

60. Voting

- 60.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.
- 60.2 Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, whether or not such rights or restrictions are set out in the articles, on a vote on a resolution:

60.2.1 on a show of hands at a meeting:

- (a) every member present (but not being present by proxy) and entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote; and
- (b) every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a member entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote, except where:
  - (i) that proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution; and
  - (ii) the proxy has been instructed:
    - (A) by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more of those members to vote against the resolution; or
    - (B) by one or more of those members to vote in the same way on the resolution (whether for or against) and one or more of those members has given the proxy discretion as to how to vote, in which case, the proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution; and 60.2.2 on a poll taken at a meeting, every member present and entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote in respect of each share held by the relevant member or members.

- 60.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, only the vote of the senior holder who votes (and any proxy or corporate representative duly authorised by the relevant member) may be counted by the Company.
- 60.4 In the case of an equality of votes on a show of hands or a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote.
- 60.5 The Company is not obliged to verify that a proxy or corporate representative of a member has acted in accordance with the terms of his appointment and any failure to so act shall not affect the validity of any proceedings at a meeting of the Company.

61. Errors and disputes

- 61.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

- 61.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

62. Chairman's declaration

Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has or has not been passed or has or has not been passed by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution. An entry in respect of such a declaration in minutes of the meeting recorded in accordance with section 355 of the Act is also conclusive evidence of that fact without such proof.

63. Demanding a poll

- 63.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

63.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or 63.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

- 63.2 Subject to the Act, a poll may be demanded at any general meeting by:

63.2.1 the chairman of the meeting;

63.2.2 the directors; or

63.2.3 any member present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

- 63.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

63.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken; and

63.3.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

64. Procedure on a poll

- 64.1 Subject to the articles, polls at general meetings must be taken when, where and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

- 64.2 The chairman of the meeting may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and decide how and when the result of the poll is to be declared.

- 64.3 The result of a poll shall be the decision of the meeting in respect of the resolution on which the poll was demanded.
- 64.4 A poll on:
- 64.4.1 the election of the chairman of the meeting; or
  - 64.4.2 a question of adjournment,
- must be taken immediately.
- 64.5 A poll on any other question must be taken within 30 days of the poll being demanded.
- 64.6 A demand for a poll does not prevent a general meeting from continuing, except as regards the question on which the poll was demanded.
- 64.7 No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded.
- 64.8 In any other case, at least 7 clear days' notice must be given specifying the time, date and place at which the poll is to be taken.

65. Appointment of proxy

A member may appoint another person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and to vote (both on a show of hands and on a poll) on a resolution or amendment of a resolution, or on other business arising, at a meeting or meetings of the Company. A member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by the member.

66. Content of proxy notices

- 66.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
- 66.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
  - 66.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
  - 66.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

- 66.1.4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which they relate.
- 66.2 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 66.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 66.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
  - 66.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
  - 66.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- 67. Delivery of proxy notices
  - 67.1 Any notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (“proxy notification address”) at which the Company or its agents will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or electronic form.
  - 67.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.
  - 67.3 Subject to articles 67.4 and 67.5, a proxy notice must be delivered to a proxy notification address at any time before the start of the general meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
  - 67.4 In the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, the notice must be delivered to a proxy notification address at any time before the time appointed for the taking of the poll.
  - 67.5 In the case of a poll not taken during the meeting but taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, the proxy notice must be delivered:
    - 67.5.1 to a proxy notification address at any time before the time appointed for the taking of the poll to which it relates; or
    - 67.5.2 at the meeting at which the poll was demanded, to the chairman of the meeting, the company secretary (if any) or any director.

- 67.6 A proxy notice which is not delivered in accordance with this article 67 shall be invalid.
- 67.7 The directors may require the production of any evidence which they consider necessary to determine the validity of any proxy notice.

68. Corporate representatives

In accordance with the Act, a corporation which is a member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise a person or persons to act as its representative or representatives at any meeting of the Company (a “corporate representative”). A director, the company secretary (if any) or other person authorised for the purpose by the company secretary (if any) may require a corporate representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting him to exercise his powers.

69. Termination of authority

The termination of the authority of a person to act as proxy or as the duly authorised corporate representative of a member does not affect whether he counts in deciding whether there is a quorum at a meeting, the validity of anything he does as chairman of a meeting, the validity of a poll demanded by him at a meeting, or the validity of a vote given by that person unless notice of the termination is given in writing by or on behalf of the member by whom or on whose behalf the corporate representative was appointed or the proxy notice was given and is received by the Company at the office or, in the case of a proxy, the proxy notification address:

- 69.1.1 at any time before the start of the general meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates;
- 69.1.2 (in the case of a poll not taken during the meeting but taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded) at any time before the start of the general meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates, or at the meeting at which the poll was demanded; or
- 69.1.3 (in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded) at any time before the time appointed for taking the poll.

70. Amendments to resolutions

- 70.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 70.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine); and 70.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

70.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

70.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and

70.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

70.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman of the meeting's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

71. Resolutions in writing

A resolution of the members (or of a class of members) of the Company may be passed as a written resolution in accordance with the Act and article 27. A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

72.1 Save where the articles expressly require otherwise, any notice, document or information to be sent or supplied by or to the Company pursuant to the Act, the articles or otherwise may be sent or supplied in accordance with the Act. Nothing in this article 72 affects any provision of the Act or any other legislation or any other provision of the articles requiring notices, documents or information to be delivered in a particular way.

A printed copy of a notice, document or information sent or supplied by electronic means indicates that it was properly addressed and sent (and showing the time of sending or transmission) is conclusive evidence that the notice, document or information was so sent or supplied.
- 72.9 In the case of joint holders of a share, a notice, document or information shall be validly sent or supplied to all joint holders if sent or supplied to the senior holder. Anything to be agreed or specified in relation to a notice, document or information to be sent or supplied to joint holders, may be agreed or specified by the senior holder in respect of the joint holding.
- 72.10 A member present at a meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.
- 72.11 A notice may be given by the Company to the transmittee of a member by sending or delivering it, in any manner authorised by the articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt or by any like description, at the address, if any, supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

73. Company secretary

Subject to the Act, the company secretary (if any) shall be appointed by the directors for such term at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any company secretary so appointed may be removed by the directors.

74. Company seal

74.1 Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the directors.

74.2 The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.

74.3 Unless otherwise decided by the directors, if the Company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

74.4 For the purposes of this article 74, an authorised person is:

75.1.1 of all appointments of officers made by the directors;

75.1.2 of every decision taken by the directors, including by written resolution, and any committee of the directors; and

75.1.3 of all proceedings of general meetings of the Company and of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

75.2 The Company shall also keep records comprising copies of all resolutions of members passed otherwise than at general meetings and of details provided to the Company of decisions taken by a sole member. All such records must be kept for at least 10 years from the date of the meeting or resolution or decision (as appropriate).

76. No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member.

77. Provision for employees on cessation of business

The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or that subsidiary undertaking.

78. Winding up of the Company

- 78.1 If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Act, and subject to these articles, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the members as he with the like sanction determines, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.
- 78.2 The directors shall not resolve to voluntarily dissolve or liquidate the Company unless and until Hopmeadow Holdings II, LP is dissolved or liquidated, provided that this article 78.2 shall cease to apply in the event that Hopmeadow Holdings II, LP ceases to be a group company.

79. Indemnity of officers and funding directors' defence costs

- 79.1 To the extent permitted by the Act and without prejudice to any indemnity to which he may otherwise be entitled, every person who is or was a director or other officer of the Company or an associated company (other than any person (whether or not an officer of the Company or an associated company) engaged by the Company or an associated company as auditor) shall be and shall be kept indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all costs, charges, losses and liabilities incurred by him (whether in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him or otherwise as a director or such other officer of the Company or an associated company) in relation to the Company or an associated company or their affairs provided that such indemnity shall not apply in respect of any liability incurred by him:

79.1.1 to pay a fine imposed in criminal proceedings;

- 79.1.2 to pay a sum payable to a regulatory authority by way of a penalty in respect of non-compliance with any requirement of a regulatory nature (howsoever arising);
- 79.1.3 in defending any criminal proceedings in which he is convicted; or

  - (b) section 1157 of the Act (general power to grant relief in case of honest and reasonable conduct).
- 79.2 In article 79.1.3 or 79.1.4 the reference to a conviction or refusal of relief is a reference to one that has become final. A conviction or refusal of relief becomes final:
  - 79.2.1 if not appealed against, at the end of the period for bringing an appeal; or
  - 79.2.2 if appealed against, at the time when the appeal (or any further appeal) is disposed of.

An appeal is disposed of if:

  - (a) it is determined and the period for bringing any further appeal has ended; or
  - (b) it is abandoned or otherwise ceases to have effect.
- 79.3 To the extent permitted by the Act and without prejudice to any indemnity to which he may otherwise be entitled, every person who is or was a director of the Company acting in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme shall be and shall be kept indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all costs, charges, losses and liabilities incurred by him in connection with the Company's activities as trustee of the scheme provided that such indemnity shall not apply in respect of any liability incurred by him:

  - 79.3.3 in defending criminal proceedings in which he is convicted.

For the purposes of this article 79.3, a reference to a conviction is to the final decision in the proceedings. The provisions of article 79.2 shall apply in determining when a conviction becomes final.

- 79.4 Without prejudice to article 79.1 or to any indemnity to which a director may otherwise be entitled, and to the extent permitted by the Act and otherwise upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the directors may in their absolute discretion think fit, the directors shall have the power to make arrangements to provide a director or other officer of the Company with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending any criminal or civil proceedings or in connection with an application under section 661(3) or (4) of the Act (acquisition of shares by innocent nominee) or section 1157 of the Act (general power to grant relief in case of honest and reasonable conduct) or in defending himself in an investigation by a regulatory authority or against action proposed to be taken by a regulatory authority or to enable a director or other officer of the Company to avoid incurring any such expenditure.

To the extent permitted by the Act, the directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a person who is or was:

80.1.1 a director, alternate director or a secretary (if any) of the Company or of a company which is or was a subsidiary undertaking of the Company or in which the Company has or had an interest (whether direct or indirect), or an officer of the Company or the Company's subsidiaries; or

80.1.2 trustee of a retirement benefits scheme or other trust in which a person referred to in article 80.1.1 is or has been interested, indemnifying him and keeping him indemnified against liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust or other liability which may lawfully be insured against by the Company.
