3 Details of variation of rights

Please give details of the variation of rights attached to shares.

Variation

The A Ordinary Shares (previously designated as Ordinary shares) have had their rights varied so that a dividend may be declared on this class of shares independently of any dividend declared on any other class of shares.

The B Ordinary Shares have had their rights varied so that they have full rights in the company with regards to voting, dividend and capital distribution. A dividend may be declared on this class of shares to the exclusion of the other classes but where a dividend is declared on more than one class of shares the dividend for each class may be fixed individually.
