Report of the management

Management herewith presents to the members the annual accounts of 5 11 International Cooperatiof U.A., (bereinaRer "the Cooperative") for the year coding 31 December 2013

General

The Cooperative is incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands and acts as an intermediate holding company for 5-11 lnc, and 5-11 Acquisition Corp.

The principal activity of the Cooperative is to act as the head office for several branches facilitating the distribution of products through Europe, Africa, the Middle East and Australia.

Overview of activities

During the year under review, the Cooperative did not start up new activities.

Results

The net asset value of the Cooperative as at 31 December 2013 amounts to a deficit of 3,503,197 (2012, EUR 2,342,819 deficit). The result for the year 2013 amounts to a loss of 1,293,973 (2012: EUR 1,532,360 loss).

Liquidity and capital resources

Liquidity has increased and members' equity has decreased by the loss for the year. Both are considered sufficient in view of the nature of the Cooperatives' business

The Cooperative received confirmation from its majority member that the member will support the Cooperative should it not be able to bear its own debts.

Financial instruments

The risks the Cooperative runs in relation to financial instruments are limited to credit risk and currency exchange risk.

Staff numbers and employment costs

The Cooperative has 24 employees (previous year; 28) and hence incurred wages, salaries and related social security charges during the reporting period.

Fature outlook

Management is of the opinion that the present level of activities will be maintained during the next financial year

General

The Cooperative was incorporated as a specific type of association under the laws of The Neiberlands on July 7, 2009 and has its statutory seat in Amsterdam. The members of the Cooperative are 5.11 inc. and 5.11 Acquisition corp. The members and former members shall not be liable for the Cooperative's debta and they shall be under no obligation to contribute to a deficit existing at the time of dissolution of the Cooperative, if any

The ultimate holding company is 5 11 Acquisition Corporation, United States of America.

The principal activity of the Cooperative is to act as the head office for several branches facilitating the distribution of products through Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Australia and has its place of business is at Prins Bernhardplein 200, 1097 JB Amsterdam.

It is registered with the Dutch Chamber of Commerce under registration number 34347735

Basis of presentation

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the Netherlands and comply with the financial reporting requirements included in Part 9 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code. The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and presented in curus (EUR).

Income and expenses are accounted for on secretal basis. Profit is only included when realized on balance sheet date.

Liabilities and any losses originating before the end of the financial year are taken into account if they have become known before preparation of the financial statements.

The Cooperative qualifies as a small sized entity. Therefore, in accordance with article 396 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code, exemptions apply to the presentation and disclosures in the Cooperatives' financial statements.

a. Fixed assets

Fixed assets are valued at amortized costs and then at face value

Provisions for unpairment are deducted, based on a lifetime of 3 years and a remaining value of 10% of the mitial purchase value.

b. Foreign currencies

Other assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into curos at their exchange rates prevniling on the balance sheet date.

Transactions in foreign currences are translated into curos at a weighed average exchange rate, applied to all transactions during the year

The resulting currency exchange rate differences are taken to the profit and loss accounts

Results from the translation of branch floures into EUR, using the above conversion enteria, are taken to the translation reserves

The exchange rates used in the annual accounts are	12.31 2013	12.31,2012
I EUR = GBP	0.63	0 82
1 EUR - USD	1 38	1.33
I EUR - SEK	8.92	8 62
I EUR - AUD	1.35	1.28

c. Assets and liabilities

All other assets and liabilities are shown at face value, unless stated otherwise in the aotes

d. Pinancial instruments

Financial instruments include primary financial instruments, such as accounts receivable and liabilities.

Financial instruments are valued at amortized cost unless explained otherwise in the notes. Due to the abort-term nature of the financial instruments included in these financial statements, the estimated fair value for these approximates the book value.

e. Receivables

Upon initial recognition the receivables are valued at fair value and then valued at amerrized cost. The fair value and amerrized costs equal the face value.

Provisions deemed accessary for possible bad debt losses are deducted, which are determined based on the period of which the receivables are outstanding (see note 4).

£ Estimate:

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that influence the application of principles and the reported values of assets and liabilities and of income and expenditure. The actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are constantly assessed. Revisions of estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and in future periods for which the revision has consequences.

g. Recognition of income

Other income and expenses, including taxation, are recognized and reported on accrual basis.

h. Corporate income tax

Provisions for taxation have been made in accordance with Dutch corporate income tax law

i. Coing concer

These financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which basis for valuation and determination of results assumes the Cooperative will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business

The Cooperative receives a letter of support from its majority member, 5 11 Inc.

j. Comparison previous year

The accounting principles used remained unchanged compared to the previous year.
