- 5.1 The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall have a first lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all money payable by him or his estate to the company The company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon

7 Calls on shares

7.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the shares:

- (a) the board may make calls upon the members in respect of any money unpaid on the shares held by the members and each member shall pay to the company as required by the notice the amount called upon his shares,
- (b) a call is only valid if the board gives the members at least 14 clear days notice specifying when and where payment is to be made,
- (c) at the absolute discretion of the board a call may be postponed in whole or in part, and
- (d) a member on whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him regardless of any subsequent transfer of his shares

7.2 A call is deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising the call was passed

7.3 The board may on an issue of shares differentiate between holders as to the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares

7.4 Joint holders of shares are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of those shares

7.5 The company may charge interest on any amount that remains unpaid from the day the call became due and payable until such time as the call is paid. That interest may be fixed by the terms of the issue of the share but if no amount is fixed then it shall be 10% per annum. The company may also charge the person obliged to pay the call any costs or expenses that have been incurred by the company due to that non-payment. The board may, at their absolute discretion, waive payment of any interest or charges under this article 7.5.

8 3 If the member does not comply with the forfeiture notice the board may, by resolution, declare that the share is forfeit That forfeiture shall include all dividends, distributions or other money payable in respect of the forfeited share (including any interest which may have accrued and any expenses which may have been incurred by the company in respect thereof) The forfeiture takes effect at the time of the declaration ("the date of forfeiture")

8 4 Subject to the requirements of the Law a forfeited share may be

- (a) sold, re-allotted, or transferred to such person and on such terms and in such manner as the board may determine,
- (b) cancelled, or
- (c) held as a treasury share.

8 5 The holder of a share that has been forfeited ceases to be a member in respect of that share and the member's name is deemed to have been removed from the register on the date of forfeiture The holder of the share remains liable to the company for any calls made or payable on such shares on the date of forfeiture and associated interest and expenses.

8 6 A declaration in writing by a director or the secretary that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered on the date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and the declaration shall (subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer if necessary) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share

9 Transfers and registration of shares

9.1 A transfer of shares shall be made in any form which the board may approve and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee

9 2 Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the registered office of the company, or such other place as the board may prescribe, with the certificate (if any) of every share to be transferred and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares.

- 9 3 The board may refuse to register a transfer of shares or may refuse to register a transfer until such information as the board may require has been provided. The board is not obliged to provide any reasons for a refusal under this article.
- 9.4 If the board refuses to register a transfer of shares they shall, within a period of 2 months after the date on which the board resolved to refuse the transfer, send to the transferor a written notice of the refusal and return the instrument of transfer to the transferor.
- 9 5 The person transferring the shares remains the holder of the shares until the transfer is registered and the name of the person to whom they are being transferred is entered in the register in respect of the shares.
- 9 6 These articles are subject to, and do not limit or restrict the company's powers to transfer shares in accordance with, the Uncertificated Securities (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2005.

10 Suspension of share transfers by the board

- 10 1 The registration of transfers of shares may be suspended at such times and for such a period (not exceeding in aggregate 30 days in any calendar year) as the board may determine.

11 Share certificates

- 11 1 If the board elects to issue share certificates, within 2 months after allotment or lodgement of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide), every member shall be entitled to receive one certificate for all of his shares or, if the member so requests, several certificates each for one or more of his shares.
- 11 2 Every such certificate shall be signed in accordance with the common signature, shall specify the shares to which it relates, and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares jointly held by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
- 11 3 If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of the expenses of the company in connection with the matter and generally upon such terms as the board shall think fit.

12 Transmission of shares

- 12 1 Subject to the provisions of section 290 of the Law, where a member dies and that member does not own shares jointly, then the company will recognise only the personal representative of the deceased shareholder as being entitled to the deceased member's interest in the shares. Where a member dies and that member owned shares jointly, the company will recognise only the surviving joint holder or holders as being entitled to the deceased members' interest in the shares.

- 12.2 Where a member becomes insolvent has his affairs declared en désastre or has a preliminary vesting order made against his Guernsey realty, becomes bankrupt, suspends payments or compounds with creditors, or is adjudged insolvent the board shall not be obliged to register the transfer of the share to the person entitled to the shares until that person provides to the board such information as the board may reasonably require to establish that person's entitlement to the shares. The person so entitled may:
- (a) elect to be registered as the holder of the shares, or
  - (b) subject to the Law and these articles, choose to transfer the shares to another person by giving a completed transfer form to the company

13 Dividends and distributions

- 13.1 Subject to the rights attaching to each share, the company is not liable to pay interest or any other penalty on any dividends or distributions paid by the company
- 13.2 The board may deduct from any dividend or distribution any sum of money which may be due from that member as a result of any unpaid call on the share, or any other debt due and owing from the member to the company.
- 13.3 Any dividend or distribution which has remained unclaimed for 10 years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the directors so resolve, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the company
