2. LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

PART 2 DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

4. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

- 4.1. The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2. No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

5. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 5.1. Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:
- 5.1.1. to such person or committee;
 - 5.1.2. by such means (including by power of attorney);
 - 5.1.3. to such an extent;
 - 5.1.4. in relation to such matters or territories; and
 - 5.1.5. on such terms and conditions;
- as they think fit.
- 5.2. If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3. The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. COMMITTEES

- 6.1. Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 6.2. The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 7.1. The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.
- 7.2. If:-
- 7.2.1. the company only has one director, and
 - 7.2.2. no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director,
- the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

8. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 8.1. A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they agree with a decision or a proposed decision on a matter.

- 8.2. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 8.3. References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- 8.4. A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

- 9.1. Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 9.2. Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:-
 - 9.2.1. its proposed date and time;
 - 9.2.2. where it is to take place; and
 - 9.2.3. if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 9.3. Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director as nearly as practicable at the same time, but need not be in writing.
- 9.4. Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 10.1. Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:-
 - 10.1.1. the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - 10.1.2. they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 10.2. In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 10.3. If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

11. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 11.1. At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

11.2. The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than four, and unless otherwise fixed it is four.

11.3. If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:-

11.3.1. to appoint further directors, or

11.3.2. to call a general meeting or propose a resolution so as to enable the shareholders to alter the quorum required or appoint further directors.

12. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

12.1. If there is more than one director in office the directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

12.2. The person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chairman.

12.3. The directors may terminate the Chairman's appointment at any time.

12.4. If the Chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. CASTING VOTE

13.1. If there is more than one director and the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a directors meeting are equal, the Chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

13.2. But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the Chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

14. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

14.1. If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

14.2. But if paragraph 14.3 applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.

14.3. This paragraph applies when:-

14.3.1. the director has declared the nature and extent of his interest to the directors;

14.3.2. the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;

14.3.3. the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or 14.3.4. the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

14.4. For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes:-

- 14.4.1. a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiaries;
- 14.4.2. subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities; and
- 14.4.3. arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors.

14.5. For the purposes of this Article 14:-

- 14.5.1. a general notice to the directors that a director is a member of a specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction or arrangement which is made with the company or firm after the date of the notice shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of the nature and extent his interest in relation to the transaction or arrangement;
- 14.5.2. a general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any transaction or arrangement with the persons specified in the notice; and
- 14.5.3. an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

14.6. For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.

14.7. Subject to paragraph 14.8, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the Chairman is to be final and conclusive.

14.8. If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the Chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the Chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

14.9. Provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of his interest, a director notwithstanding his office:-

- 14.9.1. may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested;
 - 14.9.2. may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is otherwise interested; and
 - 14.9.3. may act himself, or by a firm or company in which he is interested (as a partner, member, director or otherwise) in a professional capacity for the Company if was not a director,
 - 14.9.4. shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate or from acting in such a professional capacity and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.
- 14.10. Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Article 14 the directors shall be empowered for the purposes of section 175 of the Act to authorise any director to be in a situation where that director has or can have a direct or indirect interest or duty that conflicts or may possibly conflict with the interests of the company. The authorisation may be on such terms as are determined by the directors and may be subject to conditions. A director seeking such authorisation shall not be entitled to vote or be counted in the quorum in relation to any meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered.
- 14.11. Provided either the provisions of this Article 14 apply or the directors have authorised any conflict arising in relation to the matter in accordance with the Act a director shall be entitled to vote and to be counted in the quorum at a meeting of the directors or of any committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter on which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company.

15. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

16. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

17. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

- 17.1. The Board shall consist of no more than seven directors at least one of whom shall be a person nominated by the Pars Supporters Trust.
- 17.2. Any person, including any person nominated by the Pars Supporters Trust, who is willing to act as a director, is a Fit and Proper Person and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director by ordinary resolution provided that:

17.2.1. not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five days before the date appointed for the general meeting, notice executed by Pars Supporters Trust or a member qualified to vote at the general meeting (as the case may be) has been given to the company of the intention to propose that person for appointment, together with notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed; and 17.2.2. the total number of directors shall not exceed the maximum number set out in Article 17.1.

17.3. The directors shall also be entitled from time to time, to appoint a Fit and Proper Person who is willing to act as a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director provided that the total number of directors shall not exceed the maximum number set out in Article 17.1.

18. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

A person ceases to be a director as soon as:-

- 18.1. that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- 18.2. a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- 18.3. a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- 18.4. a registered medical practitioner gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- 18.5. by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- 18.6. notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- 18.7. a relevant Football Governing Body has formally advised the Company in writing that, after proper consideration of a complaint against a director, they have concluded that the person concerned is not a Fit and Proper Person.

19. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 19.1. Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.
- 19.2. Directors shall not be entitled to receive remuneration in respect of their service as the directors of the Company, but may be remunerated for any other service which they undertake for the Company in their own professional or business capacity (or as an employee of the Company) provided that any interest of that director has been disclosed in accordance with Article 14 and such remuneration has been approved in writing by all directors other than the director in question.
- 19.3. Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

20. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:-

- 20.1. meetings of directors or committees of directors,
- 20.2. general meetings, or
- 20.3. separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

PART 3 SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

21. ALL SHARES TO BE FULLY PAID UP

- 21.1. No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.
- 21.2. This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum.

22. POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

- 22.1. Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.
- 22.2. The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

23. ISSUE OF SHARES

- 23.1 Subject to the remaining provisions of this Article 23, the Directors are generally and unconditionally authorised, for the purposes of section 551 of the Act and generally, to exercise any power of the company to:

- (a) offer or allot;
- (b) grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into;
- (c) otherwise deal in, or dispose of, any Ordinary Shares in the company to the company's parent company Pars United Community Interest Company ('PUCIC') or to any person approved in writing by PUCIC, at any time and subject to any terms and conditions as the directors think proper.

- 23.2 The authority referred to in Article 23.1:

- (a) shall be limited to a maximum nominal amount of £500,000;
- (b) shall only apply insofar as the company has not renewed, waived or revoked it by ordinary resolution; and

- (c) may only be exercised for a period of five years commencing on 1 January 2017, save that the directors may make an offer or agreement which would, or might, require Ordinary Shares to be allotted after the expiry of such authority (and the directors may allot Ordinary Shares in pursuance of an offer or agreement as if such authority had not expired).

23.3 Pursuant to the Act, all statutory rights of pre-emption shall be excluded from applying to the company. In accordance with section 567(1) of the Act, sections 561 and 562 of the Act shall not apply to an allotment of equity securities (as defined in section 560(1) of the Act) made by the company.

24. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

25. SHARE CERTIFICATES

25.1. The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.

25.2. Every certificate must specify:-

- 25.2.1. in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
- 25.2.2. the nominal value of those shares;
- 25.2.3. that the shares are fully paid; and
- 25.2.4. any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

25.3. No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

25.4. If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

25.5. Certificates must:-

- 25.5.1. have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
- 25.5.2. be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

26. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

26.1. If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is:-

- 26.1.1. damaged or defaced, or
- 26.1.2. said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

26.2. A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:-

26.2.1. may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;

26.2.2. must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and

26.2.3. must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

27. SHARE TRANSFERS

27.1. Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.

27.2. No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

27.3. The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

27.4. The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.

27.5. The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

28. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

28.1. If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

28.2. A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:-

28.2.1. may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

28.2.2. subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

28.3. But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

29. EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

29.1. Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

29.2. If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

29.3. Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

30. TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

31. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 31.1. The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 31.2. A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 31.3. No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
- 31.4. Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 31.5. If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- 31.6. The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 31.7. If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

32. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

- 32.1. Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:-
 - 32.1.1. transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors may otherwise permit;
