F4 Statement of capital (Voting rights)

Please give the prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares for each class of share shown in the statement of capital share tables in Sections F1 and F2.

Class of share	Ordinary
Voting rights	8. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or classes of shares for the time being issued (which special rights may be varied or abrogated only in the manner provided by Article 10 hereof), any share in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights, or subject to such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution determine (or, failing any such determination, as the Directors may determine) and subject to the provisions of the Statutes the Company may issue shares which are, or at the option of the Company or the shareholder are to be liable, to be redeemed on such terms, conditions and in such manner as the Directors before the issue thereof may determine.
Class of share	13 ¾ Cumulative Preference
Voting rights	7(4)(a) The Preference Shares shall entitle the holders to receive the Annual Report and Accounts of the Company and notice of any General Meeting but not to attend or vote thereat unless either:- (i) at the date of the notice convening the Meeting the dividend on such shares is in arrear, and so that for this purpose the dividend shall be deemed to be payable half-yearly on the dates mentioned in Paragraph (1) (a) of this Article in respect of the periods mentioned in that Paragraph; or (ii) the business of the Meeting includes the consideration of a Resolution for the winding up of the Company or reducing its capital or any Resolution directly abrogating or varying any of the special rights or privileges attached to such shares and then only on such Resolution;
Class of share	13 ¾ 'A' Cumulative Preference
Voting rights	7(4) (b) the "A" Preference Shares shall entitle the holders to receive the Annual Report and Accounts of the Company and notice of any General Meeting but not to attend or vote thereat unless either:- (i) at the date of the notice convening the Meeting the dividend on such shares is in arrear, and so that for this purpose the dividend shall be deemed to be payable half-yearly on the dates mentioned in Paragraph (1) (a) of this Article in respect of the periods mentioned in that Paragraph; or (ii) the business of the Meeting includes the consideration of a Resolution for the winding up of the Company or reducing its capital or any Resolution directly abrogating or varying any of the special rights or privileges attached to such shares and then only on such Resolution;

F4	Statement of capital (Voting rights)
Voting rights	10. Whenever the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may, subject to the provisions of the Statutes, be varied or abrogated either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of the class or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the shares of the class (but not otherwise) and may be so varied or abrogated either whilst the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding up. To every such separate General Meeting all the provisions of these Articles relating to General Meetings of the Company and to the proceedings thereat shall mutatis mutandis apply, except that the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question (but so that if at any adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present any one holder of shares of the class in question present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum) and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll and that every such holder shall on a poll have one vote for every share of the class held by him. The foregoing provisions of this Article shall apply to the variation or abrogation of the rights attached to some only of the shares of any class as if the shares concerned and the remaining shares of such class formed separate classes. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by these Articles or by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith or the Company permitting, in accordance with the CREST Regulations, the holding of and transfer of title to shares of that or any other class in uncertificated form by means of a relevant system. 60. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by either:- (A) the Chairman of the meeting; or (B) not less than five members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote; or (C) a member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or (D) a member or members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right; and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member. 65. Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any shares may be issued or may at the relevant time be held and to any other provisions of these Articles, members shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting whether on a show of hands or on a poll as provided in the Act. For this purpose, where a proxy is given discretion as to how to vote on a show of hands, this shall be treated as an instruction by the relevant member to vote in the way that the proxy elects to exercise that discretion. 66. A member being a minor, pupil or otherwise under any legal disability may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his curator, guardian, committee, judicial factor, curator bonis or other legal curator provided that such evidence as the Directors may require of the authority of the person claiming to vote shall have been deposited at the Transfer Office not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or for the taking of the poll at which it is desired to vote. 67. No member shall, unless the Directors otherwise determine, be entitled to vote at a General Meeting either personally or by proxy or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company unless all calls or other sums presently due and payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.

68. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 67 no member shall, unless the Directors otherwise determine, be entitled in respect of shares held by him to vote at a General Meeting either personally or by proxy or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company if he or any person appearing to be interested in such shares ("Default Shares") has been duly served with a notice under Section 793 of the Act and is in default in supplying to the Company the information thereby required within the period of 28 days from the date of such notice. Where the Default Shares comprise at least 0.25 per cent of the class of shares of which they form part, any member holding Default Shares will not be entitled to receive payment of dividends in respect of such shares, nor, except in the case of a transfer relating to an arms-length sale of such shares, to have any instrument of transfer of such shares entered in the Register (but in the case of uncertificated shares, only to the extent permitted by the CREST Regulations) and, where the provisions of this Article apply, the Company may exercise any of its powers, as necessary, under Article 37 in respect of any Default Shares that are held in uncertificated form. For the purpose of this Article a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any shares if the member holding such shares has given to the Company a notification under the said Section 793 which fails to establish the identities of those interested in the shares and if (after taking into account the said notification and any other relevant Section 793 notification) the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the shares.

69. No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is or may be given or rendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

70. (A) A member of the Company is entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at a meeting of the Company. Delivery of an appointment of proxy shall not preclude a member of the Company from attending, speaking or voting at the meeting or at any adjournment of it. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. References in these Articles to an appointment of proxy includes references to an appointment of multiple proxies.

(B) Where two or more valid separate appointments of proxy are received in respect of the same share in relation to the same meeting, the one which is last sent shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others. If the Company is unable to determine which is last sent, the one which is last received shall be so treated. If the Company is unable to determine either which is last sent or which is last received, none of such appointments shall be treated as valid in respect of that share. If an appointment of proxy purports to appoint more than one person as proxy to exercise rights attached to the same share in relation to the same meeting, none of such appointments shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

74. A vote cast in accordance with the terms of the instrument of proxy shall not be invalidated by the previous death or insanity of the principal or by the revocation of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment was made provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity or revocation shall have been received by the Company at the Transfer Office at least one hour before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the time appointed for the taking of the poll at which the vote is cast.
