 - (ii) must state when and how any call to which it relates is to be paid; and
 - (iii) may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments.
- (c) A member must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no member is obliged to pay any call before 14 days have passed since the call notice was sent.
- (d) Before the Company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may:-
 - (i) revoke it wholly or in part; or
 - (ii) specify a later time for payment than is specified in the call notice, by a further notice in writing to the member in respect of whose shares the call was made.
- 10.2 (a) Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which the call is required to be paid.
- (b) Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share.
- (c) Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, make arrangements for a difference between the holders in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.

- 10.3 (a) A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is allotted, as being payable to the Company in respect of that share (whether in respect of nominal value or premium):-
- (i) on allotment;
 - (ii) on the occurrence of a particular event; or
 - (iii) on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue.
- (b) But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture.
- 10.4 (a) If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date:-
- (i) the directors may send a notice of forfeiture (a "forfeiture notice") to that person; and

- (b) For the purposes of this Article:-
- (i) the "call payment date" is the date on which the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the "call payment date" is that later date; and
 - (ii) the "relevant rate" is the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted or, if no such rate was fixed when the share was allotted, five per cent per annum.
- (c) The relevant rate must not exceed by more than five percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998.
- (d) The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part.

- (a) may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice;
 - (b) must be sent to the holder of that share or to a person entitled to it by reason of the holder's death, bankruptcy or otherwise;
 - (c) must require payment of a call and any accrued interest by a date which is not less than 14 days after the date of the forfeiture notice;
 - (d) must state how the payment is to be made; and
 - (e) must state that if the forfeiture notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
- 10.6 If a forfeiture notice is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the forfeiture notice, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

- 10.7 (a) Subject to the following provisions of this Article 10.7, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes:-

- (b) Any share which is forfeited:-

- (i) the Company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members;
 - (ii) that person ceases to be a member in respect of those shares;
 - (iii) that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the Company for cancellation;
 - (iv) that person remains liable to the Company for all sums due and payable by that person at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture); and
 - (v) the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- (d) At any time before the Company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on such terms as they think fit.
- 10.8 (a) If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the Company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer.
- (b) A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that the declarant is a director or the secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date:-
- (i) is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and
 - (ii) subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by these Articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

- (c) A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.
- (d) If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the Company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which:-
 - (i) was, or would have become, payable; and

23. SHARE TRANSFERS

- 23.1 Model Article 26(1) is modified by the addition of the words "and, if any of the shares is nil or partly paid, the transferee" after the word "transferor".
- 23.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 23, the directors may refuse to register a transfer or, as the case may be, transmission of a share:
 - (a) where the share is not fully paid and the transfer or transmission is to a person of whom they do not approve;
 - (b) on which the Company has a lien; or
 - (c) if they suspect that the proposed transfer or transmission may be fraudulent.
- 23.3 (a) Any person (the "proposing transferor") proposing to transfer any shares (the "sale shares") shall give notice in writing (the "transfer notice") to the Company that he wishes to transfer the sale shares and specifying the price per share which in his opinion constitutes the fair value of the sale shares.
- (b) The transfer notice shall constitute the Company the agent of the proposing transferor for the sale of all (but not some of) the sale shares to any member or members willing to purchase the sale shares (the "purchasing member") at the price specified in the transfer notice or at the fair value certified in accordance with Article 23.5 (whichever shall be the lower).
- (c) A transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the approval of the directors.
- 23.4 (a) The sale shares shall be offered to the members (other than the proposing transferor) as nearly as may be in proportion to the number of shares held by them respectively. Such offer shall be made by notice in writing (the "offer notice") within 7 days after the receipt by the Company of the transfer notice. The offer notice shall state the price per share specified in the transfer notice and shall limit the time in which the offer may be accepted, not being less than 21 days nor more than 42 days after the date of the offer notice, provided that if a certificate of fair value is requested under Article 23.5 the offer shall remain open for acceptance for a period of 14 days after the date on which notice of the fair value certified in accordance with that Article shall have been given by the Company to the members or until the expiry of the period specified in the offer notice (whichever is the later).
- (b) For the purposes of this Article 23.4 an offer shall be deemed to be accepted on the day on which the acceptance is received by the Company.
- (c) The offer notice shall further invite each member to state in his reply the number of additional sale shares (if any) in excess of his proportion which he wishes to purchase and if all the members do not accept the offer in respect of their respective proportions in full the sale shares not so accepted shall be used to satisfy the claims for additional sale shares as nearly as may be in proportion to the number of shares already held by them respectively, provided that no member shall be obliged to take more sale shares than he shall have applied for. If any sale shares shall not be capable without fractions of being offered to the members in proportion to their existing holdings, the same shall be offered to the members, or some of them, in such proportions or in such manner as may be determined by lots drawn, and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the directors may think fit.

- 23.5 (a) Any member may, not later than 8 days after the date of the offer notice, serve on the Company a notice in writing requesting that the accountants for the time being of the Company (or at the discretion of the accountants such person who the member serving the notice and the directors of the Company shall have agreed to appoint in writing or, in default of such agreement, a person nominated by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales or of Scotland in the case of a company registered in Scotland) certify in writing the sum which in his opinion represents the fair value of the sale shares as at the date of the transfer notice and for the purpose of this Article 23.5 reference to the accountants shall include any person so nominated.
- (b) Upon receipt of such notice the Company shall instruct the accountants to certify as aforesaid and the costs of such valuation shall be apportioned among the proposing transferor and the purchasing members or borne by any one or more of them as the accountants in their absolute discretion shall decide.
- (c) In certifying the fair value of the sale shares the accountants shall be considered to be acting as experts and not as arbiters and accordingly any provisions of law or statute relating to arbitration shall not apply.
- (d) Upon receipt of the certificate of the accountants, the Company shall by notice in writing inform all members of the fair value of each sale share and of the price per sale share (being the lower of the price specified in the transfer notice and the fair value of each sale share) at which the sale shares are offered for sale.
- (e) For the purpose of this Article 23.5 the fair value of each sale share shall be its value as a rateable proportion of the total value of all the issued shares of the Company and shall not be discounted or enhanced by reference to the number of sale shares.
- 23.6 If purchasing members shall be found for all the sale shares within the appropriate period specified in Article 23.4, the Company shall not later than 7 days after the expiry of such appropriate period give notice in writing (the "sale notice") to the proposing transferor specifying the purchasing members and the proposing transferor shall be bound upon payment of the price due in respect of all the sale shares to transfer the sale shares to the purchasing members.
- 23.7 If in any case the proposing transferor after having become bound to transfer the sale shares makes default in transferring any sale shares the Company may receive the purchase money on his behalf, and may authorise some person to execute a transfer of the sale shares in favour of the purchasing members. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing members. The Company shall pay the purchase money into a separate bank account.

- 23.8 If the Company shall not give a sale notice to the proposing transferor within the time specified in Article 23.6, he shall, during the period of 30 days following the expiry of the time so specified, be at liberty to transfer all or any of the sale shares to any person or persons but in that event the directors may refuse to register the transfer of the sale shares and, if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee together with a notice of refusal giving reasons for such refusal as soon as practicable and in any event within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged for registration.
- 23.9 (a) Any transmittee shall give a transfer notice before he chooses to become either the holder of shares or to have them transferred to another person in accordance with Model Article 27(2)(a).
- (b) If a transmittee has not given a transfer notice in respect of any share within 3 months of producing evidence of entitlement to such shares to the directors, the directors may at any time thereafter give notice requiring such transmittee within 30 days of such notice to give a transfer notice in respect of all the shares to which he has become entitled and for which he has not previously given a transfer notice and if he does not do so he shall at the end of such 30 day period be deemed to have given a transfer notice pursuant to Article 23.3 relating to those shares in respect of which he has still not done so.
- (c) Where a transfer notice is given or deemed to be given under this Article 23.9 and no price per share is specified in it, the transfer notice shall be deemed to specify the sum which shall, on the application of the directors, be certified in writing by the accountants in accordance with Article 23.5 as the fair value of the shares.

24. COMPULSORY TRANSFERS

- 24.1 Any transmittee shall give a transfer notice before he chooses to become either the holder of shares or to have them transferred to another person in accordance with Model Article 27(2)(a).
- 24.2 If a transmittee has not given a transfer notice in respect of any share within 3 months of producing evidence of entitlement to such shares to the directors, the directors may at any time thereafter give notice requiring such transmittee within 30 days of such notice to give a transfer notice in respect of all the shares to which he has become entitled and for which he has not previously given a transfer notice and if he does not do so he shall at the end of such 30 day period be deemed to have given a transfer notice pursuant to Article 23.3 relating to those shares in respect of which he has still not done so.
- 24.3 Where a transfer notice is given or deemed to be given under this Article 24.3 and no price per share is specified in it, the transfer notice shall be deemed to specify the sum which shall, on the application of the directors, be certified in writing by the accountants in accordance with Article 23.5 as the fair value of the shares.
- 24.4 In the event of the bankruptcy of any member or in the event of any member employed by the Company ceasing to be so employed (other than by reason of death, in which case Articles 24.1 to 24.3 shall apply) the Directors shall be entitled at any time within one year after the date of such bankruptcy, liquidation or cessation of employment as the case may be by notice in writing to require such member or the trustee in bankruptcy of such member as the case may be to grant a transfer of all or any of the shares registered in name of such member in favour of such person or persons (including the Directors themselves) as the Directors shall nominate and in the event of such transfer not being received by the Company within the period of fourteen days after such notice is given by the Directors the Directors shall be entitled to receive the purchase money and authorise one of their number or some other person to execute a transfer in favour of the purchaser and, on that being done, the Directors shall cause such transfer to be registered and the name of the purchaser to be entered in the Register of Members as the holder of the shares transferred and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the member whose shares have been sold, The receipt of the Directors or any of them for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchaser and after his name has been entered in the Register of Members in purported exercise of the aforesaid power the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

24.5 The price payable for any shares transferred pursuant to Article 24.4 shall, in the event of the member or the trustee in bankruptcy of such member, as the case may be, and the Directors being unable to agree a price, be:

- (a) if the transfer is by a member the fair value of such shares as fixed by a chartered accountant experienced in share valuation to be nominated, failing agreement between the member or the trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator of such member, as the case may be, by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland and the certificate of such chartered accountant as to such value shall be final and binding on all concerned; and
- (b) if the transfer is by the trustee in bankruptcy of a member the sum of £1 per share.

25. SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital of the Company may, from time to time, be divided into shares of different classes. Unless expressly stated otherwise in these Articles, the rights attaching to the different classes of shares shall be the same.
