7.1.3 Notice of a Directors' meeting must be given to each Director but need not be in writing.

7.1.4 Notice of a Directors' meeting need not be given to Directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company prior to the date of the meeting or not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. - a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with these Articles; and the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting

7.5 Chairman's casting vote

If the number of votes cast by Eligible Directors for and against a proposal at a Directors' meeting are equal, the Chairman or other Director chairing a Directors' meeting shall have an additional casting vote. This does not apply if, in accordance with these Articles, the Chairman or other Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisations) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law:

- a) any matter which would otherwise result in a Director infringing his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company and which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest (including conflict of interest and duty or conflict of duties);
- b) a Director to accept or continue in any office, employment or position in addition to his office as a Director and without prejudice to Article 8.2.2a) may authorise the manner in which a conflict of interest arising out of such office, employment or position may be dealt with, either before or at the time that such a conflict of interest arises,

8.2.4 A Director shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been approved by the Directors under Article 8.2.2 (subject always in any such case to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).

8.2.5 Article 8.2 is without prejudice to the operation of Article 8.1.

9.8 Directors' fees

Each of the Directors may be paid a fee at such a rate as may from time to time be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Shareholders. Any fees payable under this Article 9.8 shall be distinct from any salary, remuneration or other amounts payable to a Director under any other provisions of these Articles and shall accrue from day to day.

9.9 Additional remuneration

If by arrangement with the Board any Director shall perform or render any special duties or services outside the scope of his ordinary duties as a Director he may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration

10 APPOINTMENT OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

10.1 Each Director may appoint any person (including another Director) to be his alternate and may at his discretion remove an alternate Director so appointed. Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director must be by written notice delivered to the Office or at an address specified by the Company for the purposes of communication by electronic means or tendered at a Board meeting or in any other manner approved by the Board. The appointment requires the approval of the Board unless it has been previously approved or the appointee is another Director.

10.2 An alternate Director must provide the particulars, and sign any form for public filing required by the Act relating to his appointment.

11 ALTERNATE DIRECTORS' PARTICIPATION IN BOARD MEETINGS

11.1 Every alternate Director is (subject to his giving to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him (and, if applicable, an address in relation to which electronic communications may be received by him)) entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the Board and all committees of the Board of which his appointor is a member and, in his appointor's absence, to attend and vote at such meetings and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of his appointor. 12 ALTERNATE DIRECTOR RESPONSIBLE FOR OWN ACTS

Each person acting as an alternate Director will be an officer of the Company, will alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults and will not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.

13 INTERESTS OF ALTERNATE DIRECTOR

An alternate Director is entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements with the Company, to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent as if he were a Director. However, he is not entitled to receive from the Company any fees for his services as alternate, except such part (if any) of the fee payable to his appointor as such appointor may by written notice to the Company direct.

14 REVOCATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTOR

16.1.1 No Share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the Company in consideration for its issue.

16.1.2 This does not apply to Shares taken on the formation of the Company by the subscribers to the Company's memorandum.

16.2 Powers to issue different classes of share

16.2.1 Subject to these Articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the Company may issue Shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by the Directors. Such rights and restrictions may relate to participation in the profits and assets of the Company, receipt of notices, attendance and voting at meetings, conversion into other shares or redemption, and other rights and restrictions may also be attached.

16.2.2 The Company may issue Shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the Holder, and the Directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such Shares.

17.2 Trusts may be recognised

Except as required by law, or as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Company shall not be bound by or recognise any interest in a Share other than the Holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it. The Company shall however be entitled to register trustees as such in respect of any Shares.

17.3 Share certificates

17.3.1 The Company may issue each Shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the Shares which that Shareholder holds and upon transferring a part of his holding of Shares of any class the Company shall issue to such Shareholder, free of charge, a certificate in respect of the balance of the Shares held.

17.3.2 Every certificate must specify:

- a) in respect of how many Shares, of what class, it is issued;
- b) the nominal value of those Shares; and
- c) that the Shares are Fully Paid (with the exception of any Shares issued to the subscribers to the Company's memorandum as nil or partly paid).

17.3.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of Shares of more than one class.

17.3.4 If more than one person holds a Share, only one certificate shall be issued in respect of it.

that Shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same Shares.

17.4.2 A Shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:

- a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
- b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the Company if it is damaged or defaced; and
- c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the Directors decide.

18 TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

18.1 Share transfers

- 18.1.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the Directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor and when lodged for registration shall be accompanied by the relevant share certificate (if any) and such other evidence (if any) as the Directors may require to prove the title of the intending transferor.
- 18.1.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any Share.
- 18.1.3 The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 18.1.4 The transferor remains the Holder of a Share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as Holder of it.
- 18.1.5 The Directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

18.2 Transmission of Shares

- 18.2.1 If title to a Share passes to a Transmitttee, the Company may only recognise the Transmitttee as having any title to that Share.
- 18.2.2 A Transmitttee who produces such evidence of entitlement to Shares as the Directors may properly require:
 - a) may choose either to become the Holder of those Shares or to have them transferred to another person; and
 - b) pending any transfer of the Shares to another person and subject to Article 18.2.3, has the same rights as the Holder had.
- 18.2.3 Transmitttees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of Shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the Holder's death or Bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the Holders of those Shares.

18.3 Exercise of Transmittees' rights

- 18.3.1 Transmittees who wish to become the Holders of Shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish.
- 18.3.2 If the Transmitttee wishes to have a Share transferred to another person, the Transmitttee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 18.3.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the Transmitttee has derived rights in respect of the Share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

18.4 Transmitttees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a Shareholder in respect of Shares and a Transmitttee is entitled to those Shares, the Transmitttee is bound by the notice if it was given to the Shareholder before the Transmitttee's name has been entered in the register of members.

19 DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

19.1 Procedure for declaring dividends

- 19.1.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the Directors may decide to pay interim dividends if it appears to them that they are justified by the profits of the Company available for distribution.
- 19.1.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the Directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.
- 19.1.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with Shareholders' respective rights.
- 19.1.4 Unless the terms on which Shares are issued specify otherwise, dividends must be paid by reference to each Shareholder's holding of Shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

- 19.1.5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on Shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.
- 19.1.6 The Directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 19.1.7 If the Directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the Holders of Shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on Shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

19.2 Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 19.2.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a Share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:
- a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the Distribution Recipient in writing;
 - b) sending a cheque made payable to the Distribution Recipient by post to the Distribution Recipient at the Distribution Recipient's registered address (if the Distribution Recipient is a Holder of the Share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the Distribution Recipient in writing;
 - c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the Distribution Recipient has specified in writing; or
 - d) any other means of payment as the Directors agree with the Distribution Recipient in writing.
- 19.2.2 In these Articles, "Distribution Recipient" means, in respect of a Share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:
- a) the Holder of the Share; or
 - b) if the Share has two or more joint Holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or

- c) if the Holder is no longer entitled to the Share by reason of death or Bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the Transmitttee.

19.3 No interest on distributions

The Company shall not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a Share unless otherwise provided by the terms on which the Share was issued.

19.4 Unclaimed distributions

19.4.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

- a) payable in respect of Shares; and
- b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable;

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

19.4.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

19.4.3 If:

- a) 12 years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and
- b) the Distribution Recipient has not claimed it, the Distribution Recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

19.5 Non-cash distributions

19.5.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the Share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a Share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

19.5.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

- a) fixing the value of any assets;
- b) paying cash to any Distribution Recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
- c) vesting any assets in trustees.

19.6 Waiver of distributions

19.6.1 Distribution Recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a Share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if:

- a) the Share has more than one Holder; or
- b) more than one person is entitled to the Share, whether by reason of the death or Bankruptcy of one or more joint Holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the Holders or persons otherwise entitled to the Share.

20 CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

20.1 Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

20.1.1 Subject to these Articles and the provisions of the Act, the Directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

- a) decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and
- b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise ("Capitalised Sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "Persons Entitled") and in the same proportions.

20.1.2 Capitalised Sums must be applied:

- a) on behalf of the Persons Entitled; and

- b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

20.1.3 Any Capitalised Sum may be applied in paying up new Shares of a nominal amount equal to the Capitalised Sum which are then allotted credited as Fully Paid to the Persons Entitled or as they may direct.

20.1.4 A Capitalised Sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as Fully Paid to the Persons Entitled or as they may direct.

20.1.5 Subject to these Articles, the Directors may:

- a) apply Capitalised Sums in accordance with Articles 20.1.3 and 20.1.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
- b) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with Shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
- c) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the Persons Entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of Shares and debentures to them under this Article.

21 GENERAL MEETINGS

21.1 Directors' power to call general meetings

The Directors may whenever they think fit, and shall on requisition in accordance with the Act, proceed to convene a general meeting. The Directors shall determine the means by which persons entitled to attend and participate in a general meeting shall be permitted to do so in accordance with Article 21.3. Such means shall include attendance and participation at a physical meeting place and, as determined by the Directors, whether simultaneous attendance and participation shall be permitted at a satellite meeting place and/or by electronic means.

21.2 Notice of general meetings

21.2.1 Subject to the Act, a general meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be called by not less than fourteen days' notice unless the shareholders agree to hold the general meeting at shorter notice.

21.2.2 Every notice shall specify the place and the day and hour of the meeting, and there shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at the meeting and that a proxy need not be a member of the Company.

21.2.3 In the case of a general meeting at which the Directors have resolved persons shall be entitled to attend and participate simultaneously at a satellite meeting place or places in accordance with Article 21.3, the notice shall state the location of such satellite meeting place(s).

21.2.4 In the case of a general meeting at which the Directors have resolved persons shall be entitled to attend and participate simultaneously by electronic means in accordance with Article 21.3, the notice shall state the means of attendance and participation as determined by the Directors and any access, identification and security arrangements determined by the Directors in accordance with the Articles.

21.3 Proceedings at General Meetings

21.3.1 Provided a physical meeting has also been proposed, a Director may resolve to enable persons entitled to attend and participate in such meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at a satellite meeting place or places anywhere in the world and/or by simultaneous attendance by electronic means.

21.3.2 Where the Directors resolve to enable persons to attend and participate by electronic means, the Directors shall determine in their absolute discretion the form and adequacy of such electronic means.

21.3.3 A general meeting held at more than one place and/or partly by electronic means is duly constituted and its proceedings are valid if (in addition to the other provisions of the Articles relating to general meetings being satisfied) the chairman of the meeting is satisfied that the facilities (whether electronic or otherwise) are available to enable each person present at each place to participate in the business of the meeting.

21.3.4 Each person present who would be entitled to count towards the quorum in accordance with the provisions of Article 21.4 shall be counted in the quorum for, and shall be entitled to vote at, the meeting. The inability, for any reason, of any person entitled to attend any meeting place and/or participate in the business of the meeting by way of electronic means will not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting. The meeting is deemed to take place at the place at which the chairman of the meeting is present (the “principal place”).

21.4 Quorum

21.4.1 No business other than the appointment of a chairman at the meeting shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the time at which the meeting proceeds to business. Two Shareholders present and entitled to vote at such meeting shall constitute a quorum.

21.4.2 If the Company only has one Shareholder, Article 21.4.1 does not apply, and the one Shareholder present and entitled to vote at a general meeting shall constitute a quorum.

21.5 Attendance and speaking by Directors and non-Shareholders

21.5.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are Shareholders.

21.5.2 The Chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:

- a) Shareholders of the Company; or
- b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of Shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

21.6 Adjournment

21.6.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the Chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

21.6.2 The Chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

a) the meeting consents to an adjournment; or

b) it appears to the Chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

21.6.3 The Chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

21.6.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the Chairman of the meeting must:

a) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors; and

b) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

21.6.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least seven clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):

a) to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given; and

b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

21.6.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

22 VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

22.1 Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with these Articles.

22.2 Errors and disputes

22.2.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

22.2.2 Any such objection must be referred to the Chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

22.3 Poll votes

22.3.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

- a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or
- b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

22.3.2 A poll may be demanded by:

- a) the Chairman of the meeting;
- b) the Directors;
- c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- d) a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution.

22.3.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

- a) the poll has not yet been taken; and
- b) the Chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

22.3.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting directs.

22.4 Content of Proxy Notices

22.4.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “Proxy Notice”) which:

- a) states the name and address of the Shareholder appointing the proxy;
- b) identifies the person appointed to be that Shareholder’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
- c) is signed by or on behalf of the Shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and
- d) is delivered to the Company in accordance with these Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

22.4.2 The Company may require Proxy Notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

22.4.3 Proxy Notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

22.4.4 Unless a Proxy Notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any amendment to a resolution and on ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
- b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

22.5 Delivery of Proxy Notices

22.5.1 A Proxy Notice must be delivered to the Company not less than 48 hours before the general meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

- 22.5.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid Proxy Notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.
- 22.5.3 An appointment under a Proxy Notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the Proxy Notice was given.
- 22.5.4 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 22.5.5 If a Proxy Notice or a notice revoking a proxy appointment is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

22.6 Amendments to resolutions

- 22.6.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chairman of the meeting may determine); and
 - b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 22.6.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:
- a) the Chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and
 - b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

- 22.6.3 If the Chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the Chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

22.7 Authority of corporate representatives

22.8 Records of members

The Directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the relevant date of all proceedings at general meetings of the Company.

23 ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

23.1 Power to authenticate documents

Any Director, the company secretary or any person appointed by the Board for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the Company and any resolution passed by the Company or the Board or any committee, and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies or extracts as true copies or extracts. Where any books, records, documents or accounts are not at the Office, the local manager or other officer of the Company who has their custody shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the Board for this purpose. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting, of the Company or the Board or any committee which is so certified shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that any minute so extracted is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

23.2 Means of communication to be used

23.2.1 Subject to these Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under these Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Act provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of the Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

23.2.2 Subject to these Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

23.2.3 The times of deemed delivery of documents and information specified in Sections 1147(2) and 1147(3) of the Act shall be amended as follows:

- a) subject to the other requirements of Section 1147(2) of the Act, documents or information set by first class post to an address in the UK shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient 24 hours after it was posted;
- b) subject to the other requirements of Section 1147(2) of the Act, documents or information set by second class post to an address in the UK shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient 48 hours after it was posted; and
- c) subject to the other requirements of Section 1147(3) of the Act, documents or information sent or supplied by electronic means shall be deemed to have been received 24 hours after it was sent.

23.3 Company seals

23.3.1 Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the Directors.

23.3.2 The Directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.

23.3.3 Unless otherwise decided by the Directors, if the Company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

23.3.4 For the purposes of this Article, an authorised person is:

- a) any Director of the Company;
- b) the Company secretary (if any); or
- c) any person authorised by the Directors for the purpose of signing documents to which the common seal is applied.

23.4 No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the Directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a Shareholder.

23.5 Provision for employees on cessation of business

The Directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a Director or former Director or shadow Director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or that Subsidiary.

24 INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY

24.1 Insurance

Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 24.2, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for or for the benefit of any person who is or was at any time:

24.1.1 a Director, officer or employee of the Company or any Associated Company; or

24.1.2 a trustee of any pension fund or employee's share scheme in which employees of the Company or any other body referred to in Article 24.1.1 is or has been interested, including without limitation insurance against any liability incurred by such person in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution or discharge of his duties or in the exercise or purported exercise of his powers or otherwise in relation to his duties, powers or offices in relation to the Company or any such other company, Associated Company, pension fund or employees' share scheme.

24.2 Indemnity

24.2.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, but without prejudice to any indemnity which the person concerned may otherwise be entitled, every Director or other officer of the Company (including, but only if the Directors so determine, any person (whether an officer or not) engaged by the Company as auditor) shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against (a) any liability incurred by him for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company, (b) any liability incurred by him in connection with the Company's activities as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined by section 235(6) of the Act, or (c) any other liability incurred by him in relation to the Company or its affairs, provided that this Article 24.2.1 shall be deemed not to provide for, or entitle such person to, indemnification to the extent that it would cause this Article 24.2.1, or any element of it, to be treated as void under the Act or such other applicable law.

24.2.2 Without prejudice to Article 24.2.1 above or to any indemnity to which a Director may otherwise be entitled, the extent permitted by law and otherwise upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may in their absolute discretion think fit, the Directors shall have the power to make arrangements to provide a Director with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him:

- c) In connection with any application referred to in section 205(5) of the Act, or to enable a Director to avoid incurring such expenditure.

24.2.3 In Article 24.2.1 above "liability" includes costs, charges, losses and expenses.

25 WINDING UP

If the Company shall be wound up (whether the liquidation is voluntary, under supervision, or by the Court) the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the company and whether or not the assets shall consist of property of one kind or shall consist of properties of different kinds, and may for such purpose set such value as he deems fair upon any one or more class or classes of property and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders. The liquidator may, with the like authority, vest any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of Shareholders as the liquidator with the like authority shall think fit, and the liquidation of the Company may be closed and the Company dissolved, but so that no contributory shall be compelled to accept any shares or other property in respect of which there is a liability.
