Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable the Directors to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

For the year ended 31 December 2006 the company was entitled to exemption under Section 249AA(1) of the Companies Act 1985

Members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with Section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985

The Directors acknowledge their responsibility for

- a ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985, and
- b preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of its financial year, and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with Section 226 of the Companies Act 1985, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of that Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company

These accounts were approved by the Board of Directors on 9 July 2007 and were signed on its behalf by

Robin S Mackie
Director
