Accountants' Report to the Board of Directors on the Unaudited Abbreviated Financial Statements

In accordance with the engagement letter dated 8 February 2013, and in order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 2006, we have compiled the unaudited abbreviated financial statements of the company, set out on the Balance Sheet and the related notes, from the accounting records and information and explanations you have given to us.

This report is made to the company's board of directors, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement. Our work has been undertaken so that we might compile the unaudited abbreviated financial statements that we have been engaged to compile, report to the company's board of directors that we have done so, and state those matters that we have agreed to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's board of directors, as a body, for our work or for this report.

We have carried out this engagement in accordance with technical guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland and have complied with the ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of financial statements.

You have acknowledged on the balance sheet for the year ended 31 December 2014 your duty to ensure that the company has kept adequate accounting records and to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view under the Companies Act 2006. You consider that the company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit of the financial statements. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the abbreviated financial statements.

1 Accounting policies

Going concern

The directors have considered a period of at least twelve months from the date on which these financial statements have been signed and, having considered all relevant information available to them, believe it is appropriate to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis.

Basis of accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the historical cost basis of accounting and have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

The financial statements do not include a cash flow statement because the company, as a small reporting entity, is exempt from the requirements to prepare such a statement under the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

Turnover

Turnover represents value of the goods and services supplied by the company during the year, excluding value added tax.

Foreign currency translation

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies have been translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences are taken into profit and loss account for the year.
