(3) Add here any special remarks the Liquidators think desirable:

Since our appointment, a number of intermediate holding companies, and the ultimate group parent company have entered creditors voluntary liquidation (CVL) processes. Given expectations around the potential recovery of intercompany balances, the liquidators have concluded that there is no economic benefit to the company of pursuing the inter group debtor, and this balance has been written down to nil.

Realisations from the Company's assets are therefore nil.
