15. A resolution in writing signed by all the members who would be entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at a general meeting at which such resolution was to be proposed, or by their attorneys, proxies, or other duly appointed representatives, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in materially the same form, each signed by one or more of the members or their attorneys, proxies or other duly appointed representatives. In the case of a corporation which is a member of the Company, a signature by a Director or its secretary or by a duly appointed and authorised attorney or representative shall be sufficient.
16. It shall not be necessary for any written resolution passed in terms of the preceding Article to be referred to or approved by the Company's auditors and it shall be effective on the date it is signed by all the relevant members or where there are several documents, on the date the last such member signs the resolution.
17. On a show of hands or on a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy, or if a corporation, by its duly authorised representative.

18. Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution of the Company, the number of Directors shall not be subject to any maximum and the minimum number of directors shall be one.
19. A Director shall not be required to hold any share in the Company in order to qualify for office as a Director. A Director, whether or not the Director holds any share in the Company, shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting, or any meeting of any class, of the members of the Company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

20. Any Director, other than an alternate Director, may appoint any other Director or may appoint any other person approved by the Directors, to be that Director's alternate and may remove from office such an alternate Director immediately but shall intimate the removal to the Directors without delay.
21. Where an alternate Director is also a Director, or acts as an alternate Director for more than one Director, such alternate Director shall have one vote for every Director represented by that Director in addition to that Director's own vote.
22. Where two or more Directors are required to constitute a quorum, an alternate Director, notwithstanding that that Director may be the alternate Director for a number of Directors, shall not, alone, constitute a quorum, and shall only act in conjunction with, at least, one Director or another alternate Director.
23. Where a Director appoints a person as that Director's attorney under a general power of attorney or under a written limited power of attorney which specifically permits that attorney to act as a Director, that attorney shall be entitled to act as a Director subject to the appointment of that attorney being notified in writing to the Directors. On the written intimation of the appointment of such an attorney, that attorney shall be deemed to act as an alternate Director, subject to the terms of these Articles.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

24. The Directors shall not be subject to retirement by rotation and any reference in the Regulations to such retirement shall be construed accordingly.
25. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act as a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director.
26. The Directors may appoint any person who is willing to act as a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director.
27. There shall be no age limit for Directors of the Company.

DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

28. The Directors may repay to any Director, including any alternate Director, all reasonable expenses as that Director may properly incur in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or of any committee of the Directors or general meetings of the Company or any class of members of the Company, or otherwise in or about the business of the Company. In the event of any Director necessarily performing or rendering any special duties or services to the Company outside any ordinary duties as a Director, the Directors may, if so authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company, pay such Director special remuneration, by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise as may be approved.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

29. A sole Director shall have and may exercise all the powers of, and the full authority conferred on, the Directors in terms of these Articles, and all references to the Directors in the Articles and Regulations shall be construed accordingly.
30. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors but unless so fixed shall be two, except in the case of a sole Director, when the quorum shall be one. A person who holds office only as an alternate Director shall, if the appointing Director is not present, be counted in the quorum.
31. Any Director, including an alternate Director, may participate in a meeting of the Directors or a committee of Directors by means of a conference telephone or other conference communication facility by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear and speak with each other. Participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute the presence of a Director in person at such meeting, entitling him to be counted in the quorum and to vote accordingly. A telephone conference meeting shall be deemed held at the place where the largest number of Directors is present, or, where there is no such gathering, where the chairman is present.
32. Subject to such disclosure as is required by the Regulations, or the Act, a Director shall be entitled to vote at, and be counted in the quorum of, a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which the Director has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company.

THE SEAL
