	and 8.3 they will be obliged to inform the Company and will thereafter be reclassified in terms of either Article 8.1, 8.2 or 8.3 and that if the Company becomes aware of this itself it will so reclassify the member and notify them accordingly.
	CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP
9	The following conditions apply to membership:
9.1	the Company shall have not fewer than 20 members at any time; and
9.2	at least three quarters of the members of the Company are members of the Community; and
9.3	in the event that the number of members falls below 20 or that at least three quarters of the members of the Company do not consist of members of the Community, the Board may not conduct any business other than to ensure the admission of sufficient Ordinary Members to achieve the minimum number and/or maintain the majority.
10	Any individual or organisation who wishes to become a member shall in such written form as the Board prescribe submit a written application for membership (in the case of a organisation the application must be signed by an appropriate officer of that body).
10.1	The Board shall promptly consider applications for membership, from time to time, determining if the terms of Article 8 apply and into which category of membership each applicant shall belong, and immediately thereafter shall approve any valid application provided the applicant is not excluded by virtue of Article 9 or has previously been a member of the Company and continues to be excluded from membership by virtue of Article 15
11	The Board shall maintain a Register of Members, setting out the name and postal address of each member, the relative category of membership and the date of the member's appointment and cessation. Record keeping will comply with all relevant legislation under General Data Protection Regulations.
	MEMBERSHIP SUBSCRIPTIONS
12	The Ordinary Members may (if applicable) at any or each AGM fix subscriptions (and, if relevant, different rates thereof for different categories).
13	Members shall be required to pay the appropriate membership subscription, where fixed.
. •	Only those members who have paid their subscription, where fixed, are entitled to take
•	part in and vote at any General Meeting.
14	Any individual or organisation which, ceases to be a member (for whatever reason) shall , ,	not be entitled to any refund of membership subscription.

15.4	a resolution that a member be expelled is passed by a majority of at least 75% of the members present (including proxy) and voting at a General Meeting, of which not less than 21 days' previous notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution and the grounds on which it is proposed shall have been sent to all Directors, all members and the Company Secretary and also to the member whose removal is in question, such member being entitled to be heard at that meeting; or
15.5	being an individual, he or she dies (the right of membership not being transmissible assignation).
	GENERAL MEETINGS (Meetings of Members)
16	The Board shall convene an AGM in each year, at such time as it may determine, although the first AGM need not be held in the first year provided that it be held within 18 months after the date of incorporation of the Company. Thereafter, not more than 15 months shall elapse between one AGM and the holding of the next.
17	The business of each AGM shall include:
	a) the report by the Chairman on the activities of the Company b) the election of Directors; c) consideration of the accounts of the Company; d) the report of the auditor (if applicable); and e) the appointment of the auditor (if applicable).
	THE PROVISIONS WITH REGARD TO GENERAL MEETINGS
18.	All General Meetings, other than AGMs, shall be called General Meetings (GM);
18.1	the Board may convene an GM whenever it thinks fit; and
18.2	the Board must convene an GM within 28 days of a valid requisition. To be valid, such requisition must be signed by not less than 10% of the Ordinary Members, must clearly state the purposes of the meeting and must be delivered to the Registered Office. The requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more signees to the requisition.
19	Subject to the terms of Articles 70 , 71 and 72 , the provisions regarding notice of a General Meeting are as follows:
19.1	14 Clear days' notice at the least shall be given of every General Meeting to each member, Director, the Company Secretary and the auditor;
19.2	the notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the General Meeting, the general nature of any business and the full text of any Special Resolutions proposed in terms of Article 25;
19.3	the accidental omission to give notice of a General Meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any member entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed at or proceedings of any General Meeting.

	CHAIRMAN OF GENERAL MEETINGS
20	The Chairman of the Company, whom failing the Vice-Chairman of the Company (if any), shall act as chairman of each General Meeting. If neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman is present or willing to act as chairman of the meeting within 15 minutes after the time at which the General Meeting in question was due to commence, the Directors present shall elect from among themselves one of the Elected Directors who will act as chairman of that meeting.
	QUORUM AT GENERAL MEETINGS
21	The quorum for a General Meeting shall be the greater of (a) 10 ordinary members or (b) 10% of the Ordinary Members, in either event being present in person or by proxy. No business shall be dealt with at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present.
22	If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the General Meeting was due to commence - or if, during a General Meeting, a quorum ceases to be present - the General Meeting shall stand adjourned to such time, date and place as may be fixed by the chairman of the meeting.
22.1	The board may make any arrangements in advance of any general meetings to allow members to fully participate in such general meetings so long as all those participating in the meeting can clearly comprehend each other; a member participating in any such means other than in person shall be deemed to be present in person at the general meeting.

	VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS
23	The chairman of the meeting shall endeavour to achieve consensus wherever possible but, if necessary, questions arising shall be decided by being put to the vote.
24	The provisions regarding voting are as follows:
24.1	<ul> <li>a) each Ordinary Member shall have one vote, to be exercised in person or by proxy, by a show of hands</li> <li>b) Unless a secret ballot is demanded by the chairman of the meeting, or by at least</li> </ul>
	two Ordinary Members present at the meeting and entitled to vote, this may be demanded only before any show of hands takes place and shall be taken immediately at the same meeting.
	c) This shall be conducted in such a manner as the chairman of the meeting may direct and the result of which shall be declared at the same meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
	In that event, the chairman of the meeting shall appoint and instruct tellers, who may cast their own personal votes if Ordinary Members);
24.2	Associate and Junior Members shall have no vote;
24.3	whilst actual attendance by Ordinary Members is to be encouraged at General Meetings, any Ordinary Member shall be entitled to complete one form of proxy to appoint a proxy to attend a General Meeting on his or her behalf, in respect of which the following apply:
24.3.1	d) a proxy need not be a member;
24.3.2	a proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of an Ordinary Member shall have the same right as the Ordinary Member who appointed him or her to speak at the meeting and to vote thereat; and

24.3.3	the form appointing the Proxy shall be in terms of Schedule 2 annexed to these Articles;
24.3.4	the form appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a certified copy obtained from the office thereof, shall be lodged at the Registered Office not less than 48 hours before the time of the meeting at which the proxy is to be used; and
24.3.5	no form of proxy shall be valid more than 12 months from the date it was granted; and
24.4	in the event of an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairman of the meeting shall have a vote in his/her capacity as a member of the company
25	At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be voted upon by a simple majority of the Ordinary Members who are present and voting thereon, except for decisions relating to any of the following Special Resolutions,
!	a) to alter the name of the Organisation; or
'	b) to amend the Purposes; or
	c) to amend these Articles (subject to Article 74) or
	d) to wind up of the Organisation in terms of Articles 75.1 to 75.4; or
	e) all other Special Resolutions.
	shall require to be decided upon by not less than 75% of the Ordinary Members present and voting thereon (no account therefore being taken of members who abstain from voting or who are absent from the meeting).
26	Ordinary and Special Resolutions may be passed in writing, rather than at a General Meeting, provided that the terms of this Article are followed.
26.1	an ordinary resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of a simple majority of all the Ordinary Members shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held, provided that the terms of this Article are followed.

	CONSTRAINTS ON PAYMENTS/BENEFITS TO MEMBERS AND DIRECTORS
40.1	The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards promoting the Purposes and do not belong to the members. Any surplus income or assets of the Company are to be applied for the benefit of the Community.
40.2	No part of the income or property of the Company shall be paid or transferred (directly or indirectly) to the members of the Company, or to any other individual, whether by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise, except in the circumstances provided for in Article 40.4.
40.3	No Director shall be appointed as a paid employee of the Company.
40.4	No benefit (whether in money or in kind) shall be given by the Company to any member or Director except the possibility of:
40.4.1	repayment of out-of-pocket expenses to Directors (subject to prior agreement by the Board of Directors); or 40.4.2	reasonable remuneration to any member or Director in return for specific services actually rendered to the Company (not being of a management nature normally carried out by a director of a company); or 40.4.3	payment of interest at a rate not exceeding the commercial rate on money lent to the Company by any member or Director; or 40.4.4	payment of rent at a rate not exceeding the open market rent for property let to the Company by any member or Director; or 40.4.5	the purchase of property from any member or Director provided that such purchase is
•	at or below market value or the sale of property to any member or Director provided that such sale is at or above market value; or 40.4.6	payment by way of any indemnity, where appropriate;
	and in any such event the terms of Articles 41 to 43 shall specifically apply.
	PERSONAL INTERESTS & CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

41	Any Director who has a personal interest in any prospective or actual contract or other arrangement with the Company must declare that interest either generally to the Board or specifically at any relevant meetings. A personal interest includes not only the interest of the Director or employee in question, but also his or her partner, close relative or business associate, or any firm of which they are a partner or employee, or any limited company of which they are a director, employee or shareholder of more than 5% of the equity or voting power.
42	Additionally, the Board may resolve at any time to require all Directors to deliver a Notice of Relevant Interests to the Registered Office, as they arise and at least annually. In that event, the Board shall determine from time to time what interests shall be relevant interests and shall ensure that a Register of Notices of Relevant Interests is maintained, which shall be open for inspection by both the Board and members of the Company and, with the express prior written approval of the Director or employee concerned, by members of the public.
43	Whenever a Director finds that there is a personal interest, as defined in Article 41, he or she has a duty to declare this to the Board meeting in question. It will be up to the chairman of the meeting in question to determine:
43.1	whether the potential or real conflict simply be noted in the Minutes of any relevant meeting, or
43.2	whether the Director in question, whilst being permitted to remain in the meeting in question, must not partake in discussions or decisions relating to such matter, or
43.3	whether the Director in question should be required to be absent during that particular element of the meeting and, in terms of Article 45 , where a Director leaves, or is required to leave, the meeting he or she no longer forms part of the quorum thereat.
	QUORUM AT BOARD MEETINGS
44	The quorum for Board meetings shall be not less than 50% of all the Directors (or the nearest number upwards) provided that the Elected Directors are always in the majority at any Board meeting. No business shall be ratified at a Board meeting unless such a quorum is present, though business may be discussed by those present.
45	A Director shall not be counted in the quorum at a meeting (or at least the relevant part thereof) in relation to a resolution on which, whether because of personal interest or otherwise, he or she is not entitled to vote.
	MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
46	Meetings of the Board may take place in person or by telephone conference call, video conference call or by any other collective electronic means approved from time to time by the Board.
47	7 clear days' notice in writing shall be given of any meeting of the Board at which a decision in relation to any of the matters referred to in Article 25 is to be made, which notice shall be accompanied by an agenda and any papers relevant to the matter to be decided.
47.1	All other Board meetings shall require not less than 7 days' prior notice, unless all Directors agree unanimously in writing to dispense with such notice on any specific occasion.
48	A Director may, and on the request of a Director the Company Secretary shall summon a meeting of the Board by notice served upon all Directors, to take place at a reasonably convenient time and date.

49	The Chairman, whom failing the Vice-Chairman (if any), shall be entitled to preside as chairman of all Board meetings at which he or she is present. If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman is present and willing to act as chairman of the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the remaining Directors may appoint one of the Elected Directors to be chairman of the Board meeting, which failing the meeting shall be adjourned until a time and date when the Chairman or Vice-
	Chairman will be available.
50	The chairman of the Board meeting shall endeavour to achieve consensus wherever possible but, if necessary, questions arising shall be decided by being put to the vote, each Director present having one vote. In the event of an equal number of votes for and against any resolution at a Board meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.
51	The Board may delegate any of its powers to sub-committees, each consisting of not less than one Director and such other person or persons as it thinks fit or which it delegates to the committee to appoint. Any sub-committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any remit and regulations imposed on it by the Board. The meetings and proceedings of any such sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Board.
