Director's Responsibilities Statement

For the year ended 30 November 2012

The director is responsible for preparing the Director's Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless he is satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Report to the director on the preparation of the unaudited statutory accounts of AC&H 224 Limited for the year ended 30 November 2012

In order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 2006, we have prepared for your approval the accounts of AC&H 224 Limited for the year ended 30 November 2012 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes from the company's accounting records and from information and explanations you have given to us.

As a member firm of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, we are subject to its ethical and other professional requirements which are detailed at www.icaew.com.

This report is made solely to the director of AC&H 224 Limited in accordance with the terms of our engagement letter dated 13 January 2012. Our work has been undertaken solely to prepare for your approval the accounts of AC&H 224 Limited and state those matters that we have agreed to state to the director of AC&H 224 Limited in this report in accordance with the requirements of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, as detailed at www.icaew.com. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than AC&H 224 Limited and its director for our work or for this report.

It is your duty to ensure that AC&H 224 Limited has kept adequate accounting records and to prepare statutory accounts that give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities, financial position and profit or loss of AC&H 224 Limited. You consider that AC&H 224 Limited is exempt from the statutory audit requirement for the year ended 30 November 2012.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or review of the accounts of AC&H 224 Limited. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory accounts.
