THE COMPANIES ACT 1985 TO 1989

PRIVATE COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

of

DALGLEN (NO. 1034) LIMITED

- 1.1. The company is established as a private company within the meaning of the Companies Act 1985, and subject as hereinafter provided the Regulations contained in Table A in the Schedule to The Companies (Tables A to F) Regulations 1985 as amended by The Companies (Tables A to F) (Amendment) Regulations 1985 and the Companies Act (Electronic Communications) Order 2000 (SI 2000 No. 3373) (such Table being hereinafter called "Table A") shall apply to the Company with the exception of Regulations 24, 25, 26, 40, 42, 43, 46, 47, 50, 64, 70, 73-80 (inclusive), 81, 85, 86, 89, 93, 94, 95 and 117 of Table A and save in so far as they are excluded or varied hereby and such Regulations (save as so excluded or varied) and the Articles hereinafter contained shall be the regulations of the Company.
- 1.2. In these Articles the expression "the Act" means the Companies Act 1985, but so that any reference in these Articles to any provisions of the Act shall be deemed to include a reference to any statutory modification or re-enactment of that provision for the time being in force.

SHARE CAPITAL

2. The share capital of the Company at the date of adoption of these Articles of Association is £100 divided into 100 Ordinary shares of £1 each.

LIEN

3. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share but not for any other monies, indebtedness or liability. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends, distributions, repayments of capital or other amounts payable in respect of it.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

4. Subject as hereinafter provided, the directors may not decline to register the transfer of any share in the Company. They may refuse to register a transfer if: -
 - 4.1. it is lodged at a place other than the office or such other place as the directors may appoint for lodging transfers; or
 - 4.2. is not accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates or by such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; or
 - 4.3. it is in respect of more than one class of shares; or
 - 4.4. it is in favour of more than four transferees; or
 - 4.5. it is in respect of a share over which the Company has a lien.
5. If the directors refuse to register a transfer of a share they shall within fourteen days after the date the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferor and the transferee notice of the refusal.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

6. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present. Two persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation, shall be a quorum. If the Company shall become a single member Company then, for so long as it shall have only one member, the quorum shall be one person entitled to vote on the business to be transacted, being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation.
7. At any adjourned meeting of the Company held in accordance with Regulation 41 of Table A, if a quorum shall not be present within 15 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.
8. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of directors, shall preside at every General Meeting, but if there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors or if at any Meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the members present shall choose one of the directors, or if no director be present, or if all the directors present decline to take the Chair, they shall choose a member present to be Chairman of the Meeting.
9. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by:-
 - 9.1. at least two persons entitled to vote at the Meeting each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation; or

- 9.2. by a member or member's representing of at least ten per cent of the total voting rights of all the members (whether or not present at the Meeting) having the right to vote at the Meeting; or
- 9.3. a member or members holding shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting and at which the aggregate sum paid up is not less than one tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring the right to vote.

An instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting is deemed also to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and for the purposes of this article a demand by a person as a proxy for a member is the same as a demand by the member.

10. Unless a poll is demanded in accordance with Article 9 above (and such demand is not withdrawn before the poll is taken), a declaration by the Chairman that the resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, shall be conclusive evidence thereof without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
11. In Regulation 48 of Table A the words "but only with the consent of the Chairman" shall be deleted.

DIRECTORS

12. The number of directors shall be not less than one and the quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors shall be one. The directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director.
13. A director need not be a member of the Company but shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all General Meetings of the Company.
14. The office of a director shall be vacated:-
 - 14.1. if by notice in writing to the Company he resigns the office of director;
 - 14.2. if he ceases to be a director in virtue of any provisions of the Act or becomes prohibited by law from being a director;
 - 14.3. if he becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or enters into any arrangement with his creditors; or
 - 14.4. if he becomes of unsound mind.

DIRECTORS INTERESTS

15. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of his interest, a director notwithstanding his office:-

- 15.1. may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested;
 - 15.2. may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is otherwise interested; and
 - 15.3. shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.
16. Subject to the provisions of the Act and provided he shall have declared his interest in the matter a director shall be entitled to vote and to be counted in the quorum at a meeting of the directors or of any committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter on which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. In relation to an alternate director the interest of his appointor shall be treated as the interest of the alternate in addition to any interest which the alternate may otherwise have.
17. For the purposes of Articles 15 and 16:-
- 17.1. a general notice to the directors that a director is a member of a specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in contracts which are made with the company or firm after the date of the notice shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of his interest in relation to the contract;
 - 17.2. a general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any transaction or arrangement with the persons specified in the notice; and
 - 17.3. an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.
18. A director may act himself, or by a firm or company in which he is interested (as a partner, member, director or otherwise) in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or such firm or company shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

19. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum and Articles of the Company, and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the Company.

20. Without prejudice to any other provisions of these Articles the directors shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any persons who are or were at any time directors, officers or employees of the Company, or of any other company in which the Company has any interest whether direct or indirect or which is in any way allied to or associated with the Company, or of any subsidiary undertaking (within the meaning of the Companies Act 1989) of the Company or of any such other company, or who are or were at any time trustees of any pension fund in which any employees of the Company or of any such other company or subsidiary undertaking are interested, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) insurance against any liability incurred by such persons in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of their duties and/or in the exercise or purported exercise of their powers and/or otherwise in relation to their duties, powers or offices in relation to the Company or any such other company, subsidiary undertaking or pension fund.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

21. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more directors; but a resolution signed by an alternate director need not also be signed by his appointer and, if it is signed by a director who has appointed an alternate director, it need not be signed by the alternate director in that capacity.
22. Any director may participate in a meeting of the directors or a committee by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other and subject to the provisions of these Articles the meeting shall constitute a meeting of the directors or a committee of the directors as the case may be. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum accordingly. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or, if there is no such group where the Chairman of the meeting then is.

WINDING UP

23. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and may, for that purpose, and subject to the sanctions contained in the Insolvency Act 1986, value assets and determine how the division will be carried out as between the members or different classes of members.

INDEMNITY

24. Subject to the provisions of the Act every director auditor secretary or other officer of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Company against all costs charges losses expenses and liabilities incurred by him (otherwise than as a result of his own negligence or default) in the execution and discharge of his duties in relation thereto. Regulation 118 of Table A shall be extended accordingly.
