2 Person authorised

Under either section 270 or 274 of the Companies Act 2006.

The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to raise the necessary funds to meet its obligations.
 This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the government has been unable to collect the necessary taxes, and the fact that the government has been unable to borrow the necessary funds from the international market.
 The second factor is the fact that the government has been unable to implement the necessary reforms to the economy. This has led to a number of problems, including inflation, unemployment, and a general decline in the standard of living.

The third factor is the fact that the government has been unable to maintain the necessary level of public order. This has led to a number of problems, including crime, corruption, and a general decline in the standard of living. The fourth factor is the fact that the government has been unable to maintain the necessary level of public health. This has led to a number of problems, including disease, death, and a general decline in the standard of living.
