6 Declarations

6.1 Breach of Obligations

If there shall be any breach of the obligations contained or referred to in the Standard Security the Bank shall (without prejudice to all other rights and powers available to it) be entitled, without notice to the Customer, to withhold further banking facilities from the Customer and to return, without making payment of them, cheques, direct debits and other like documents drawn on the Bank by the Customer or otherwise bearing to be payable by the Bank to the Customer's order.

6.2 Notice of Subsequent Charge

If the Bank receives notice of any subsequent charge or other interest affecting all or any part of the Property the Bank may open a new account or accounts in the name of the Customer and, if or in so far as the Bank does not open a new account or accounts, it shall nevertheless be treated as if it had done so at the time when it receives such notice and as and from that time all payments made by the Customer to the Bank shall, notwithstanding any instructions by the Customer to the contrary, be credited or treated as having been credited to the new account or accounts and shall not operate to reduce the amount due by the Customer to the Bank at the time when it received the notice.

6.5 Preservation of Bank's Claims Against Others

If the Customer is liable under the Standard Security for the debts of another person then:

- 6.5.2 the liability of the Customer under the Standard Security shall not be affected by the existence of any other security or guarantee nor by any other security or guarantee being or becoming void or unenforceable, and
- 6.5.3 the Bank may place to the credit of a suspense account for so long as it considers desirable any monies received in respect of such debts without any obligation to apply them towards payment of such debts and, in applying monies towards payment of such debts, the Bank may appropriate them towards such part or parts of the debts as it thinks fit.

7 Warrandice

The Customer grants warrandice but excepting therefrom the Lease between the Notre Dame Trustee Company Limited and the Corporation of the City of Glasgow (as Education Authority) dated 21 November and 4 December and recorded in the Division of the General Register of Sasines applicable to the County of the Barony and Regality of Glasgow on 26 December, all days in 1963
