Dear Sir,

Limited Partnerships Act 1907 – The Limited Partnership of A Groat and Aberdeenshire Council

SL1583

While it would appear from my reading of the Limited Partnerships Act, 1907 that it is not strictly a requirement of the legislation that intimation of dissolution of a Limited Partnership has to be made to you I hereby confirm that the Limited Partnership of A Groat and Aberdeenshire Council (formerly A Groat and Grampian Regional Council) has been dissolved with effect from 1st December 1999. A copy of the Limited Partnership Agreement and a copy of the Notice of Dissolution are enclosed.

Yours faithfully

Dear Madam

LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

On behalf of The Grampian Regional Council I hereby offer to enter into a limited partnership with you, A Groat, Marmon Wells, Turrit, on the following terms and conditions:-

1. The partnership shall be a limited partnership in terms of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907. You will be the general partner of the firm and the Council will be a limited partner within the meaning of the Act. The general partner will be responsible for the whole management of the firm's business and affairs including without prejudice to that generality the fulfilment of the firm's obligations under the Lease hereinafter mentioned and compliance with any statutory requirements relating to the firm. The general partner will be liable for all debts and obligations of the firm including without prejudice to that generality the costs of registering the same as a limited partnership in terms of the said Act and will receive all profits arising out of the operation of the business of the firm.
2. The term of the partnership shall be the period from the conclusion of missives until 28 November, 1990, and thereafter the partnership shall continue on a year to year basis subject to Condition 4 hereof.
3. The firm name shall be A Groat and Grampian Regional Council and the principal place of business shall be Marmon Wells, Turrit.
4. The limited partner will be entitled to dissolve the partnership at any time upon giving to the general partner not less than three months prior written notice.
5. The business of the firm shall be to take on lease and farm with a view to profit such subjects as may from time to time be leased by the Council to the firm.
6. The general partner will not assign his share in the firm nor will any person be introduced as a partner into the firm without the consent of the limited partner.
7. The limited partner will contribute a capital sum of ONE POUND (£1.00) STERLING only to the firm.
